

DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT, SOCIOLOGY AND SOCIAL WORK
CAVE HILL CAMPUS

ACADEMIC YEAR 2009/2010

WELCOME

It is my pleasure to welcome all our new and continuing students this academic year. To our new students, my staff and I are looking forward to assisting you as you start your academic journey and pursue degrees and courses within our Department. To the continuing students, we wish you continued academic success as you start the new academic year. We urge you to take your educational journey seriously. The degrees and courses offered by the Department will provide you with the knowledge, skills and tools to enable you to analyse and understand the changes that are taking place in your local, regional and global environment. As you pursue your course of study we recommend that where possible you participate in the other activities and programmes that the campus offers for students.

We, therefore, encourage you, to make the most of your academic experience and trust that the University of the West Indies will be "your place to shine" and achieve all of your academic goals.

Best wishes.

Letnie Rock Ph.D.
Head of Department

COURSE WORK REQUIREMENTS

Students are advised to follow the instructions for the course work requirement pertaining to each course. COURSE WORK IS MANDATORY.

ALL course work MUST be handed in within the stipulated deadline.

Students should read the Notice Board and check the Departmental website regularly. It is the Department's quickest and most convenient way of communicating certain kinds of information.

Always report any change of name, address or telephone number to Student Affairs, Admissions.

Course representatives are elected by the students in each class and the course representative is responsible for liaising with the course lecturer on matters pertaining to the class.

Students are also encouraged to sign up in the Departmental office for a Faculty Advisor, who can provide assistance with their academic progress.

Selected courses are offered in the summer, usually in June and July (Summer School). Students are encouraged to register for summer courses when they are advertised. The fee per course in Summer School is $500.00 Bds.

For examinations, students should always make sure that they consult the Final Timetable for accurate dates and time of their exam.

Failure to attend classes could result in the student being debarred from sitting the final exam.

Please note the University's General Regulations 21 and 22:

21. "No candidate shall be admitted to any examination unless:

- (i) he/she has satisfied all the requirements and passed all the qualifying examinations prescribed in the Regulations; or
- (ii) he/she has been exempted from any such requirements by the Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty Board concerned."

22. "Any candidate who has been absent from the University for a prolonged period during the term for any reason other than illness or whose attendance at prescribed lectures, classes, tutorial, or clinical instructions has been unsatisfactory or who has failed to submit essays set by his teachers, may be debarred by Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty Board concerned, from sitting any University Examination."
