THE MISSION OF THE FACULTY OF LAW

The Faculty of Law is an integral part of the regional development strategy. Its principal mission is to provide prospective West Indian lawyers with a rich, intellectually-based and humanistically-motivated, academic foundation in law, that teaches the skills of good writing and critical reason, and that prepares the law graduate to pursue professional training for the successful practice of law, or the pursuit of a career outside of the professional field of law. Put differently, the central purpose of legal education at the University of the West Indies is to cultivate in the prospective lawyer or law graduate the arts of critical thought and reasoned exposition as they apply to the growth and functioning of our legal systems in the Commonwealth Caribbean and to the advancement of a more just and humane West Indian society. In support of this objective, the Faculty of Law is committed to:

- deepening the intellectual and humanistic content of the law curriculum to ensure that the student derives a critical understanding of legal concepts, and a solid academic foundation for the practice of law or for the pursuit of a career in any other field;
- the undertaking of fundamental enquiries in collaboration with relevant disciplines into the adequacy of existing laws to meet the developmental needs of our societies;
- the organization and pursuit of research through the publication of books, monographs, internationally recognized journals, reviews and bulletins to meet the need for critical appraisals of current legal developments in both case and statute law;
- the thorough examination and scholarly exposition of current West Indian Law and West Indian Legal history;
- the provision of services to regional Governments pursuing legal and constitutional reform;
- the provision of intellectual support through research and training essential for the successful operation of the Caribbean Single Market and Economy (CSME) and the Caribbean Court of Justice;
- the provision of courses in law for students reading for degrees in the humanities and the social sciences;
- the provision of continuing legal education programmes for practising attorneys, civil servants, social workers, police officers, teachers and the general public;
- the provision of advanced training in law through the development of postgraduate programmes in such critically needed areas as Legislative Drafting, Corporate and Commercial Law and Public Law;
- the enhancement of the Faculty's ability to serve as an intermediary in the delivery of special programmes, workshops or projects that are funded through international agencies.

INTRODUCTION

The Faculty of Law was established at the University of the West Indies in 1970 with headquarters at the Cave Hill Campus. Its primary objective is to provide for an academic qualification which is a compulsory prerequisite to professional legal training for lawyers in the Commonwealth Caribbean. However, the traditional basic legal skills of concise and pertinent oral argument, systematic and relevant presentation of essential issues, clarity and precision of written opinions and detached and balanced judgment are also useful and reliable skills for other professions such as the Civil and Police Service, Accountancy, Banking and Commerce.

The Faculty of Law offers both an undergraduate and postgraduate programme. The undergraduate course is offered only to students from territories which contribute to the Faculty. The course is divided into 3 parts - Part I is offered at the Cave Hill, Mona and St. Augustine campuses of the University of the West Indies and at the Turkeyen Campus of the University of Guyana, Parts II and III are offered at the Cave Hill and Mona Campuses. (In the academic year 2000-2001 the University entered into an agreement with the Government of the Bahamas to offer the LL.B. programme to Bahamian students at the College of the Bahamas for a period of three years in the first phase.)

A student is generally required to complete each Part successfully before being allowed to enroll for the part following. However, very limited trailing is permitted into Parts II and III of the programme.

The degree offered by the Faculty of Law is the LL.B. which may be awarded in the following categories:

- First Class Honours
- Upper Second Class Honours
- Lower Second Class Honours
- Pass

Graduate studies in the Faculty lead to the Graduate Diploma or the LL.M. The LL.M. is awarded on the basis of coursework and a research paper. It is offered in the areas of Corporate and Commercial Law; Legislative Drafting; and Public Law. The Legislative Drafting option is open only to members of the legal profession who are specifically nominated by their Governments.

The Ph.D. by research is also available to suitably qualified candidates. Full details on these programmes are contained in the Faculty's Graduate Information Guide, the Faculty Office or the website of the School for Graduate Studies and Research www.cavehill.uwi.edu/gradstudies.

DEAN'S MESSAGE

A hearty welcome to the Faculty of Law if you are starting the LL.B. programme at the Cave Hill, St. Augustine or Mona Campus. If you are returning to the Faculty as a second or final year student, we are happy to have you back in the programme -at Cave Hill or at the Mona Campus.

This academic year is of tremendous significance for the Faculty of Law. It was established in 1970 to provide the academic phase of the West Indian System of Legal Education which had been discussed and planned for over a decade. This means that the Faculty celebrates its 40th Anniversary in 2010. This is a significant milestone.

As the Mission Statement which follows shows, in 2010 the Faculty has remained as wedded to the concept of delivery of a solid academic foundation for the practice of law as it was in 1970. The main difference between now and then is the wider range of subjects from which a final year student can choose to prepare for a legal career in the 21st century or use as a basis for a career in another field.

You have become a student in the Faculty of Law at a time when the University has emphasized student centredness, along with excellence in research and teaching and satisfaction of regional needs in its 2007-12 Strategic Plan. The Law Society, your mouthpiece, is entitled to send representatives to meetings of the Board of the Faculty of Law and of higher level bodies in the University so that you are actively involved in decisions affecting you, as students. The Law Society also spearheads an active social programme which ensures that you take short, refreshing breaks from your studies. I urge you to take part in these activities, and also to be aware of and discuss events at the local, regional and international level which affect us, as Caribbean people.

Today, the Faculty of Law is faced with two main challenges. The first challenge is to cultivate in all our law graduates the arts of critical thought and reasoned exposition to which our Mission Statement speaks. Both you, and those who teach you must rise to this challenge so that in the end, you are proud of yourselves and we of you. The second challenge is to find ways of ensuring that all citizens of Commonwealth Caribbean countries which are part of the University of the West Indies family who have an interest in a legal education can access our LL.B. and other programmes. All possible avenues will be explored.

Best wishes for 2010/2011 and always.

UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

ADMISSIONS

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

The normal entrance qualification for the Faculty of Law is the basic Matriculation standard of FIVE subjects, at least TWO of which must be at 'A' level or equivalent level, the remainder at CXC general. There are no special subject requirements in addition to those necessary for Matriculation. The competition for places in the Faculty is such that very high "A" level grades and very high averages in undergraduate degrees are required for an applicant to stand a reasonable chance of gaining admission.

The Faculty is prepared to consider applications from persons who do not strictly satisfy Matriculation standards but who have equivalent academic qualifications. In particular, mature applicants over 21 who have shown evidence of academic and professional achievement can be considered. (Reference should be made to the Regulations Governing Matriculation in the University Calendar). This may provide an opportunity to read for a Law degree for those who have already been associated with the practice of law in some way - e.g. clerks of the courts, legal assistance, civil servants, police officers and so on.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Application

We encourage online applications for entry into the Faculty. Where necessary applicants may obtain application forms from the Students Affairs Section on any of the Campuses or from the Resident Tutor in non-campus countries. Completed applications along with original certificates (which will be returned to the applicant), transcripts from Universities attended previously (in the case of non-UWI graduates) and the relevant application fee of Bds. $30.00 should be submitted by January 31 of the year in which entry is sought.

Applicants from Guyana

Guyanese students are asked to apply to the University of Guyana for admission to the LL.B. programme at that University. Applications are to be made to:

The Registrar
University of Guyana
Turkeyen Campus
P.O. Box 101110
Georgetown
GUYANA

Applicants from the West Indies (Except Guyana)

Applicants from other parts of the West Indies must apply to the Assistant Registrar (Student Affairs), Cave Hill, Barbados.

Applicants are reminded that the deadline date for applications must be complied with. The closing date for applications to the Faculty of Law is January 31. Late applications will not be considered.

Students from Non-Contributing Countries

Following a ruling of the University Grants Committee, students from Commonwealth Caribbean Countries which have not yet agreed to contribute to the Faculty of Law will only be admitted when applicants from contributing countries have all been placed.

International Students

A limited number of international students may be admitted to the Faculty of Law, provided that there is an exchange programme or cooperative agreement in place between their home university and the University of the West Indies. Other international students who do not fall into this category may be accommodated under the University's Study Abroad Programme.

ADMISSIONS PROCEDURE

(I) Firm offers will be made to the students selected from those who are already qualified for entry.

(ii) Since the Faculty operates within limits on the total number of places available, and the number of places available under the agreed country quotas, the standard which qualified candidates must achieve in order to be offered places will vary according to the number and standard of applications in any given year from any given country.

For similar reasons, it may in some circumstances be possible to offer a candidate a place only at a campus other than that of his or her first choice.

(iii) A waiting list will be drawn up of persons to whom offers can only be made late in the summer when it is known how many places are available following the examination results.

(iv) Late offers may be made by cable, fax or e-mail in late summer. Again, it may not be possible to offer a candidate admission to the campus of preference.

All applicants will receive notification of their eligibility and the decision in relation to their case when first offers are made. It is imperative that any deadlines for acceptance set by the University are adhered to. Applicants should therefore read University replies with the utmost care.

DIRECT ENTRY TO PART II

Exemption from all the non-law subjects in Part I is a concession granted by the Board of the Faculty of Law. Students who qualify under Faculty Regulations for such exemption may be considered for direct entry to the Part II course at Cave Hill. A limit of numbers may be imposed on the grant of this direct entry.

COURSE EXEMPTIONS

- (i) Graduates holding Arts or Social Science degrees from the University of the West Indies or from the University of Guyana, may already have studied certain subjects specified for the U.W.I. law degree. Any student fulfilling the required conditions of the Faculty Regulations may apply for appropriate exemption.
- (ii) Students who hold Commonwealth common-law type law degrees from other universities will not as a rule be accepted for the LL.B. degree. Such students may in certain circumstances be admitted to read for the LL.M. degree. These graduates will, in any case, be able to apply for entry to the Professional Law Schools for the practical training.
- (iii) Students who have already studied a single subject in the course but who are not granted exemption may be required to study a different subject in its stead.

TEACHING AND EXAMINATIONS

TEACHING ARRANGEMENTS

The course of study provided on all campuses will be designed for full time students. Thus, students will be required to attend classes during the day, although some may take place in the evening. Law studies, in addition, require frequent and intensive use of the Law Library for reference to the basic source materials, such as law reports, statutes and texts. The programme of work provided will involve the preparation of written and oral opinions which call for concentrated library work at regular intervals.

LECTURES AND TUTORIALS

Teaching in law subjects will in most of the courses in Part I and Part II take the form of lectures and tutorials. Tutorials are arranged on a small-group basis. In these classes, the student will be expected to develop the techniques of argument and presentation of cases and to produce essays, opinions and small project work under tutorial guidance. The tutorial is a very important aspect of the teaching programme in the Faculty, and attendance at tutorials is compulsory.

CASEBOOK METHOD

The student will be encouraged to learn the art of legal reasoning by use of the case-book method. This involves the preparatory reading of selected materials, followed by class discussion designed to deduce the legal rules inherent in the materials and their use and limits in future situations.

SEMINARS

In the advanced courses, teaching may be conducted by means of seminars. This involves the preparatory reading of selected materials and the use of this to analyse and discuss a presentation based on these materials.

MOOTS

With Faculty encouragement, the students' Law Society has organised a programme of mooting. This involves the preparation and presentation of argument and counter-argument on points of law in a simulated court situation. Success lies not in the winning of the case but in the demonstration of legal skills in making the best argument from the materials available. Opportunities also exist for the participation in International competitions, e.g. the Inter-American Human Rights Moot Court Competition, the Philip C. Jessup International Moot Court Competition and the Caribbean Court of Justice Moot.

BOOK LISTS

Book lists will be issued separately for each course and detailed reading and work sheets will be made available from time to time during the session.

FACULTY ADVISERS

Students are each assigned to a Faculty Adviser for the duration of their undergraduate career in the Faculty. The Adviser will give help and advice on matters both of an academic and non-academic nature if such advice is sought. The Faculty Adviser is to be regarded by students as an important Faculty resource.

EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are normally held at the end of each Semester. In some courses, however, examinations may take the form of essays submitted during the Semester together with an examination at the end of a Semester or solely of an extended research paper, submitted during the course of the academic year, as in the Independent Research Paper Course.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- (a) A student who for good reason wishes to absent himself or herself from the programme, must apply for formal leave of absence to the Faculty Board, through the Dean, stating the reasons for the application.
- (b) The length of a leave of absence, if granted, will be subject to the approval by Academic Board, but will not normally exceed one year in the first instance, terminating at the end of the academic year for which the application is approved.
- (c) Save in very exceptional circumstances, leave of absence may not be granted for more than two consecutive years.
- (d) The deadline for requests for leave of absence for any semester shall be the end of the third week of the semester and the third week of Semester I for leave of absence for the academic year.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Entry into the legal profession of all of the Commonwealth Caribbean territories is regulated by the law of the particular territory, but as a result of a regional agreement the basic requirements tend to follow a common pattern.

Since 1975, a Legal Education Certificate is normally required by a prospective lawyer. This is granted by the (West Indian) Council of Legal Education which was established in April 1971. The Certificate will be granted to a student who successfully completes a two year course of full time training at one of the Council's three Law Schools in Jamaica, Trinidad or The Bahamas.

The students will be taught by a system of practical instruction designed to give training in the basic and essential skills of the practising lawyer.

Entry into a Law School will normally be granted to any applicant holding the U.W.I. LL.B. degree. Students who hold law degrees from other universities are required to sit an entrance examination which is held in July of each year. The deadline for applications to the Law Schools is January 31 of the proposed year of study. Application forms are obtainable from the Faculty of Law or from either of the three Law Schools at the addresses below:

Norman Manley Law School
P.O. Box 231
Mona Campus,
Kingston 7
JAMAICA

The Eugene Dupuch Law School
P.O. Box SS-6394
Nassau
THE BAHAMAS

Hugh Wooding Law School
P.O. Bag 323
Tunapuna Post Office
TRINIDAD

Holders of a Certificate of Legal Education will be regarded by all Governments in the West Indies as having satisfied institutional and educational requirements for practice, but local legislation may add further requirements such as the requirement of nationality, which must be satisfied before the right to practise is granted in a particular territory.

ABOUT THE LAW LIBRARY

The Law Library is centrally located within the Faculty of Law, and forms an integral part thereof. With modern and functional facilities and a rapidly developing collection of West Indian and other Commonwealth legal materials, it is considered the premier legal library in the region.

The book collection - its first volumes acquired by gift from the Attorney General of the West Indies Federation Library in mid 1970 - now numbers in excess of 125,000 volumes. Significant benefactors include the British Overseas Development Administration, the Canadian Bar Association, the Caribbean Law Institute (CLI), Ford Foundation, University of Virginia Law Library, York University Law Library, and most of the Commonwealth Caribbean Governments.

The collection can satisfy most of the ordinary research needs of the region. Its content reflects the West Indian common law legal heritage. Included are most of the statutes, law reports, texts, law revision commission reports, etc. of the major Commonwealth countries as well as a basic selection of American and civil law legal materials. Strong points are the English and Canadian sections. The Law Library subscribes to approximately 620 periodical titles and 400 law report, digest, statute and citator titles.

The collection's unique feature is the West Indian section, including approximately 32,000 unreported West Indian cases, theses, and research papers produced by staff and students. The library also has one of the most extensive collections of West Indian legislation in existence, including pre-1900 laws of the region which have been acquired on microfilm. The Law Library received substantial grants from the UWI Board for Graduate Studies and Research to fund this project in co-operation with the Department of History, the Main Library, Cave Hill, UWI, the Archives Department and the Barbados Public Library. Content lists to the laws on microfilm have been compiled.

The Library aims at providing a legal reference service for practitioners and researchers in general, in addition to supporting the teaching programmes at the Faculty of Law where approximately 425 students, including postgraduate students, are registered. Since 2005 the Library has maintained Carilaw, its own electronic database of regional cases. The range of cases is from the mid 1950s to 2007 with new cases being added on a weekly basis. The Library has access to several electronic resources which include Lexis Nexis, West Indian Reports Online, Index to Legal Periodicals, U.S Supreme Court Reports and U.N Treaty series.

LIBRARY SECURITY

A security guard is on duty during the Library's opening hours. The security guard may ask any person seeking entry into the library to identify himself/herself and to show material on leaving. U.W.I. students and staff from faculties other than law (who may not be known to the security guard) are expected to present current valid ID cards on request.

Outside Users (non-UWI staff or students) need permission from the Law Librarian to use the Law Library. The names of persons who are given the necessary permission are included on a list which is kept by the security guard and updated on a two weekly-basis.

Briefcases and other large bags are not to be brought into the Law Library, but must be left in the bag bay which is on the right side of the main entrance door. Any bag larger than 9" x 12" is considered a large bag and the security guard may ask its holder to remove valuables and leave the bag in the bag bay, or in a locker.

Lockers are provided in the student lobby and are available for a rental of $20.00 per year. (2 semesters). Students must remove their locks from the lockers by June 15 or the locks will be removed by the Law Library.

If a student fails to return material borrowed for reading room use to the Issue Desk by the end of the day on which it is borrowed a fine of $5 for that day and $10 for each subsequent day that the book has not been returned to the Issue Desk must be paid.

OVERNIGHT BOOKS

A patron should first check the catalogue for the call number and fill in the overnight reservation form with the required details.

The patron must then give the form to the library assistant at the circulation desk. These reservation forms must be submitted between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., and are treated on a first come, first serve basis. Only students in good standing will be permitted to borrow items.

Students must themselves hand in completed slips for items which they are reserving.

From Monday to Friday during semester a reservation is valid until 7:00 p.m., and if not claimed by the requester by that time, any other reader in good standing with the library may borrow the item requested.

An overnight book may not be borrowed for more than two (2) consecutive nights by the same person unless there are no other requests.

Between Monday and Friday during semester overnight books should be collected from the circulation-reference desk after 5:00 p.m. and returned by 10:00 a.m. of the date on which they are due.

An overnight book may be borrowed from 3 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

The two book cards found inside the cover of the overnight book must be signed and left at the circulation desk when the book is collected.

A reader who has made a reservation on a weekday but is unable to collect the book between 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. may request, through the circulation staff, to have someone else collect the book. The requester must provide the name of the collector who must sign both cards in the book on the requester's behalf, and the collector must present an I.D. card.

An overnight book may be borrowed for reading room use during the day. There is a two-hour limit on Reading Room material which may be enforced particularly during examination periods. Overnight books which have been requested, if in use in the reading room, must be relinquished on request at 5 p.m. These may be exchanged for reading room copies, if any are available at the time.

When overnight loans are returned, students must ensure that Issue Desk staff checks back in the items. Students may request a copy of the cancelled borrowing slip as evidence that the book has been returned.

RENEWALS

Staff, postgraduate students and outside users who wish to keep books beyond the two week limit should return the item(s) to the library and have a new return date stamped on the date due card. On rare occasions these users may ask to have renewals done via the telephone.

BOOK RETURN

The Library's book return container is situated next to the entrance to the Law Library. You are urged to make use of this facility when the library is closed. Please note that the book return is closed on a daily basis at 9:00 a.m. Overnight books which are due at 10.00 a.m. are to be brought to the Issue Desk and not placed in the book return, or fines will be incurred.

METHODS OF ACCESS TO THE COLLECTION

- (a) Unreported Commonwealth Caribbean Cases.

These cases may be consulted on Carilaw (Caribbean Law Online) or hard copies requested at the Issue Desk.

- (b) Reported Commonwealth Caribbean

Cases.

Available in bound volumes on the shelves or electronically (check Law Library's website).

- (c) Other Cases.

Available in bound volumes on the shelves or electronically (check Law Library's website).

- (d) CARD CATALOG

All material catalogued in the Law Library prior to November 2002 is recorded in the Card Catalogue under one or more of the following heads: author (personal or corporate), subject, title, editor, compiler, translator, series.

The Catalogue is divided into two parts: The Author/Title Catalogue and the Subject Catalogue.

The Author/Title Catalogue records alphabetically by name, the person or corporate body responsible for the work in question. It also contains entries for titles, editors, compilers, translators and series, where such entries would contribute to the location of the material. All Periodicals are listed under their title.

The Subject Catalogue records material according to the subject or subjects dealt with. Arrangement is alphabetical. A 'See' reference card in the catalogue indicates that a given word or phrase is not used as a subject in this catalogue, but that the user should look under another term. A "See Also" reference means that additional material on a subject may be found under other headings. (e.g. FAMILY see also PARENT AND CHILD).

Textbooks and Periodicals listed in the card catalogue can be found by checking the call number, i.e. the group of letters and numbers in the top right hand corner of the card. Cards for primary materials bear a location stamp,

REPORTS, STATUTES, etc. or REPORTS,

STATUTES SECTION.

If a catalogue card is encased in a plastic RESERVE BOOK jacket, the book in question must be requested at the Circulation Desk.

- (e) ELECTRONIC CATALOG

From the first Semester of 2003 students were able to search the electronic catalog on the Public Access computers in the Reading Room. Detailed instructions on using the catalog are available at each PC. The catalog can also be accessed via the internet at lawlibrary.cavehill.uwi.edu/index.html.

SERVICES

(i) REFERENCE SERVICE

Public Services Staff can often help a user by:

suggesting or searching for appropriate reference books, indexes and bibliographies;
advising on problems of research method;

- pointing out additional or alternative source material;
- interpreting the card catalogue and other library records;
- assisting in locating answers to specific questions e.g. "Where can I find the Dominica 'Dreads Act?'"
- locating material on any of the electronic databases.

A research fee may be charged to the public for any research which takes more time than is normally allocated to a request.

Please note that library staff cannot do extensive research on points of law for individual patrons, or give legal advice.

Please note also that the Law Library's computers are to be used by law students and not by outside users in any category.

(ii) PHOTOCOPYING SERVICE

The library provides a photocopying service at a cost of 25 cents per exposure. All users are expected to locate and copy their own material. There is a 35% surcharge on photocopying for institutions and individuals outside the University. Copying done by the Law Library for persons who are not members of the University, is charged at 40 cents per exposure.

Vendor Cards

The machines are operated by vendor cards. To obtain a vendor card a deposit of $10.00 must be paid. Cards are then issued in denominations of $10.00, $20.00, $30.00 and 50.00. Cards may be topped up from time to time. Cards may be purchased from one of the Public Services library assistants between the hours of 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

The Law Library's policy is "NO REFUND ON VENDOR CARDS"

Outside users and staff copying for personal use (i.e. not for Law Library use) must purchase Xerox vendor cards.

Deposit Accounts

Outsider users, both overseas and local, must deposit a sum of BDS$200.00 from which the cost of any copying done on their behalf is deducted. When the amount in a deposit account reaches BDS$75.00 an outsider user is asked to provide another BDS$125.00 to replenish the account.

Photocopying For UWI Departments & Libraries

If material is needed by a department or the Main or other library at the Cave Hill Campus, a photocopying form is completed, signed by the Head of Department and an account number is put on the form. This is treated as an invoice and sent to the Bursary for payment. If the form is not signed by the Head of Department then the requestor must pay for the material personally.

For Libraries at Mona and Cave Hill, an invoice is prepared and sent with any materials copied. Requests for short articles may be sent gratis with the permission of the Law librarian.

Please note this policy does not apply to:
The College of Bahamas
The Eugene Dupuch Law School
The Hugh Wooding Law School
The Norman Manley Law School
The University of Guyana

Clerical staff should pass any requests received from other libraries to the Public Services Librarian and it is the above guidelines which will be employed in relation to photocopying.

(iii) MICROFILM/FICHE SERVICE

The Law Library now has several of its serials titles in microform format, and as such the library provides a microfilm/fiche reader/printer service for its clientele.

Copies can be made at a cost of 35 cents per exposure. All users are expected to do their own copying. The library staff will train users how to use the machine.

(iv) BIBLIOGRAPHICAL AIDS

The Law Library is the publisher of the Consolidated Index of Statutes and Subsidiary Legislation in force in Commonwealth Caribbean Countries. Copies are available in the library and are sold throughout the region.

The Library also compiles and distributes quarterly lists of West Indian legislation and material catalogued and added to the collection. Staff members produce bibliographies from time to time. Copies of these are available in the library for consultation or may be offered for sale.

(v) COMMONWEALTH CARIBBEAN CASE LAW WEBSITE (Carilaw)

This is an electronic database of cases decided by the higher courts in the regions from the 1950's. It has been available since September 2003.

(vi) RESERVE COLLECTION

The Reserve Collection is located behind the Public Services Desk. It consists of recommended books and materials particularly relevant to courses offered by the Faculty, photocopied articles and cases, LL.B and LL.M theses, past exam papers, indices to West Indian statutes (WILIP Indexes), and Constitutions. The Caribbean Law Bulletin, Caribbean Law Review, West Indian Law Journal and current issues of legal periodicals and law reports (e.g. All England Reports, Weekly Law Reports) also form part of this collection.

Reserve Collection material is available for loan either for use in the reading room or overnight. Material which may be loaned overnight is identified by a red strip on the spine of the item. Reserve material for reading room use only is identified by a yellow strip; judgments by a blue strip, and theses by a yellow and blue strip. These reserve materials are not available for loan. All entry cards in the Card Catalogues denoting Reserve Collection material are encased in plastic jackets with "RESERVE BOOK" printed on them for ease of reference.

(vii) COMPUTER SERVICES

The Law Library currently has twenty-four (24) computers in the reading room for use by law students. These computers can all access the Internet, however print services are not available on the wireless computers. Four Stand-alone computers are dedicated to the Library's online catalogue.

NOTICES

Users are asked not to post any materials on the glass at the front of the library. This area is reserved for Library Notices. Any other notices should be posted on the notice board in the Student Recreation Area or on the notice board in the library. Permission for the latter case should be sought from the Public Services Librarian.

A NOTE TO TEACHING STAFF

In order to give the best possible service to your students we suggest that:-

- when preparing worksheets and reading lists for students you should check the Library's holdings and recommend quick purchase of required and recommended items not held by the Library;
- you should recommend the placing on reserve of any items to which you will be referring frequently, which are presently in the open stacks;
- you should inform the Public Services Librarian in advance of periodical articles and cases to which you intend referring students. We can then place additional Xerox copies of the articles and cases at the Circulation Desk;
- you should pass a copy of each reading list to the Public Services Librarian, so that the Library Assistants can be shown how to interpret difficult citations and locate the relevant items for students.
