COURSE REPORT

Prepared by: The Campus Quality Assurance Office (Office of the Principal)

January 2016

How to use this course report

This report includes:

1. The number of evaluations completed and the number of students registered for the class.

Use these data to consider the extent to which your results may reflect the views of the average student.

2. Comparative summary tables

A snapshot of scores (means) for the course as well as the aggregate of all courses offered by the Faculty this semester. Means are based on weights of 1 (lowest value) to 5 (highest value) assigned to each student's responses. 'Not applicable' and 'Don't know/Not sure' responses have been excluded from this calculation.

Use these tables to assess your performance compared to that of your peers and identify strengths and areas for improvement.

3. Detailed tables and graphs

Details of students' ratings in absolute numbers and percentages, including 'Not applicable' and 'Don't know/ Not sure' responses.

Use these to get a sense of the spread of students' ratings.

4. Students' unedited comments (where provided)

Use these to develop a better understanding of specific reasons for students' ratings and consider possible steps to enhance course design or delivery.
