

DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT, SOCIOLOGY AND SOCIAL WORK CAVE HILL CAMPUS

ACADEMIC YEAR 2011/2012

WELCOME

It is a pleasure to welcome all our new and continuing students registered in the Department this academic year. To our new students, my colleagues and I are looking forward to assisting you as you start your academic journey and pursue a course of study within the Department. To our continuing students, we wish you continued academic success and urge all of you to take your educational journey seriously. The degrees and courses offered by our Department will provide you with the knowledge, skills and tools to enable you to assess and comprehend the many changes that are taking place in your local environment as well as in the region and globally. We also recommend that you participate in some of the activities and programmes that the campus offers to students and encourage you to make the most of your academic experience here at the Cave Hill Campus. We trust that The University of the West Indies will be "your place to shine" and achieve all of your academic goals.

Best wishes.

Letnie Rock Ph.D.
Head of Department

The Library provides access to over 180,000 books, 20,000 paper periodicals, 80 online databases, 1000 electronic journals and endeavours to support the research activities of all faculties. The library collection comprises an ever-increasing number of electronic resources and as such the main gateway to research information is the library's website: <http://cavehill.uwi.edu/mainlibrary>

Each faculty has a Liaison Librarian who serves as the first point of contact for information about library policies, procedures and services. Library services include research and reference assistance, inter-library loan, information literacy and research skills workshops, a computer lab, a wireless environment, a twenty-four hour reading room and closed study carrels.
