MISSION STATEMENT OF THE FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND EDUCATION

“... to generate and promote by its teaching, research and other academic activities, the intellectual excellence and creativity of its students, staff and people of the Caribbean through an understanding of their educational and social needs and by active engagement with the scholarship of other cultures.”
This handbook gives information on programmes offered in the Faculty of Humanities and Education at the Cave Hill campus of the University of the West Indies in Barbados. For information on programmes offered by the Faculty at other campuses please consult the handbook for the relevant campus. The Faculty reserves the right to make such changes to its advertised programmes as may be deemed necessary.

All students should read this booklet very carefully in conjunction with the relevant departmental websites. These are the major sources of detailed information on the courses and programmes offered by the departments each semester.

History
The Faculty of Humanities and Education evolved out of the original Faculty of Arts established in 1950 and the Faculty of Arts and General Studies which was formed in 1964 to coordinate the teaching of General Degree studies instituted in 1963. At the time of its establishment the Faculty of Arts and General Studies was an inter-campus body with branches at all three campuses: Cave Hill in Barbados, Mona in Jamaica and St Augustine in Trinidad and Tobago. In 1996, the Faculty of Arts and General Studies was merged with the Faculty of Education on all three campuses. At Cave Hill, the Faculty of Humanities and Education comprises the School of Education, the Department of History and Philosophy and the Department of Language, Linguistics and Literature. The Errol Barrow Centre for Creative Imagination (EBCCI) is a special department under the Office of the Principal affiliated with the Faculty. Codrington College is an autonomous institution affiliated with the Faculty. The United Theological College of the West Indies (UTCWI), of which Codrington College is part, was established in 1966 and, shortly afterwards, became affiliated with the University of the West Indies, preparing candidates for the Licentiate in Theology and the Bachelor of Arts (Theology). Other Affiliate Colleges are St. Michael’s Seminary (Jamaica), and the St. John’s Vianney Regional Seminary (Trinidad).

Degrees Offered
The Faculty at Cave Hill offers the following undergraduate degrees:

- The BA in French, Linguistics, Literatures in English, and Spanish (administered by the Department of Language, Linguistics and Literature)

- The B Ed in Education (administered by the School of Education)
- The BFA in the Creative Arts (administered by the EBCCI).

The Faculty also offers graduate degrees in the following disciplines:

Affiliated Colleges, Institutes, Facilities and Centres

Apart from Codrington College, several other colleges, institutes, facilities and centres have links with the Faculty of Humanities and Education, as follows:

- Through the External Relations, Inter & Intra-Institutional Collaboration (ERIIC) (formerly known as Tertiary Level Institutions Unit (The TLIU)): the Antigua State College, the Sir Arthur Lewis Community College and the Clarence Fitzroy Bryant College offer the Faculty’s Level I BA courses to students in Antigua, St. Lucia and St. Kitts/Nevis respectively. This enables those students to enter directly into Level II at the Cave Hill Campus. Students at the Antigua State College can also take Level II BA courses. The complete B.Ed programme is offered at the Sir Arthur Lewis Community College and the H.Lavity Stoutt Community College.

- The UWI Open Campus allows the Faculty to reach out to people in the countries of the Eastern Caribbean via Distance programmes.

- The Institute for Gender and Development Studies (IGDS) is affiliated with the Faculty. Its goal is to introduce an integrated, interdisciplinary programme in Gender and Development Studies, to include gender issues in the content of all disciplines at both the undergraduate and postgraduate levels, and to generate research data on women and gender-related issues in the Caribbean.

- The Errol Barrow Centre for Creative Imagination (EBCCI) is an autonomous centre affiliated with the Faculty, delivering a wide range of programmes in the Creative Arts.

- Cultural Studies is a unit within the Faculty. Its main objective is to promote studies and research in the field of Cultural Studies.

The Humanities Festival

The annual Humanities Festival (held in semester II) has succeeded in creating important avenues for creative expression and cultural discussion for both staff and students. In some cases, it has brought participants to the attention of the wider public and has created opportunities in drama and other creative endeavours after graduation.

Faculty Teaching Facilities

There are several rooms/lecture theatres devoted primarily to the Faculty’s teaching needs: the Arts Lecture Theatre and the Arts Seminar Rooms (ASR) 1 and 2. Classes are also held in the Roy Marshall Teaching Complex, the Sagicor Centre for Life Long Learning, the CLICO Centre for Teaching Excellence and elsewhere on campus. Classes in the Creative Arts are held in The Errol Barrow Centre for Creative Imagination.

Student Body and Services

While the majority of our students are part-timers who hail from Barbados, many of our students come from the other islands of the Caribbean. Academic counselling is available for all students within the Faculty. There are also several clubs for students, such as: the Humanities Society; the Language Club (French and Spanish); the Cave Hill Theatre Workshop and the History Society.

The Campus IT Services has computer laboratories available for students’ use in writing term papers and accessing the Internet. The Faculty’s Postgraduate Reading Room, equipped with computers and a printer, is available for the use of postgraduate students. There is also a small Research Projects Room.

All applicants to the university are required to take a proficiency test in English. The application form for the test is available online at www.cavehill.uwi.edu. The test is normally scheduled to take place in March preceding the start of the academic year. Students who have obtained one of the following are exempted from taking the test:

GENERAL INFORMATION

AVAILABILITY OF COURSES AND TIMETABLING

The Faculty reserves the right to withdraw or to add courses as may be necessary or desirable but, except in cases of extreme emergency or difficulty, no course will be added or withdrawn during an academic year. The Faculty does not guarantee that all courses listed in the following pages will be available this academic year. Additionally, timetabling constraints may impose restrictions on the combinations of courses permissible. Students are not permitted to register for courses that clash on the timetable.

Categories of Courses and Prerequisites

(a) Each course is classified either as a Foundation course or as a Faculty course. All UWI students must take a minimum number of Foundation courses as part of their degree programme. Faculty courses are courses in various disciplines administered by the Departments.

(b) Each course is designated as appropriate to Level I, II or III, or as appropriate to more than one level.

(c) Beginners’ courses are offered in foreign languages.

(d) Semester-long courses have a weighting of three (3) credits. Year-long courses, including the Level III course HUMN3099: Caribbean Studies, have a weighting of six (6) credits.

(e) Some Level II and Level III courses have prerequisites. For details on these, please consult the section on course descriptions.

(f) Credits for co-curricular courses can be counted toward the overall number of courses for the degree, (i.e. 30 courses). However, like the Foundation courses, they are awarded on a pass/fail basis. They do not have a GPA and, therefore, are not used in calculating the class of degree.

Declaring a Major

(a) On entry into the Faculty, a student must declare a Major, or a Special, or double major. A major is a student’s principal subject area of study; for example, if a student is pursuing a degree in History, then History is that student’s ‘major’.

(b) A Major or Special must be declared from among the following subjects only: Literatures in English, French, History, Linguistics, Spanish, Philosophy or Psychology.

(c) A major is made up of a minimum of 36 credits (12 courses) in a single subject over the three levels. Note that the major in Literatures in English consists of 13 courses (39 credits).

(d) A special is made up of a minimum of 54 credits (18 courses) in the subject over the three levels. Permission to declare a Special must be sought from the Head of the relevant Department.

(e) Courses that make up a Major or Special are determined by the Faculty Board on the recommendation of the relevant Department.

(f) Throughout the degree programme, no more than 30 credits (10 courses) (distributed so as not to exceed 12 credits (4 courses) in any one year of the full-time programme) may be selected from courses other than Humanities and Education courses, except with the special permission of the Dean.

(g) Deadline for Changing Majors: A student may, with the permission of the Dean, change majors. Full-time students must do this no later than the end of their third semester of registration. Part-time students, must do it no later than the start of the fifth semester of registration, or the completion of the bulk of Level I credits, whichever is sooner.

(h) Extra credits gained in any Level beyond the original credits required for the degree at that Level cannot be substituted retroactively for the original credits.

Beginners Courses in Languages (6 credits max.)

(a) Beginners’ courses may be offered in French, Spanish, Portuguese and any other foreign language that may be added from time to time.

(b) Students are not permitted to offer more than two beginners’ courses (6 credits) towards the credits required for the degree.

(c) These courses are open to the following people:

- those who have no previous knowledge of the language concerned;
those who have a limited knowledge of the language concerned, but no academic qualification;

- those with academic qualifications, but whose knowledge of the language is deemed by the Department concerned to be inadequate for admission to normal Level I courses.

APPROVAL OF COURSES FOR REGISTRATION

CHANGES IN COURSE REGISTRATION
Students are permitted to make changes to the courses for which they are registered in each semester up to the end of the third week of the semester. Changes in registration will not be permitted after the deadline date without the approval of the Dean.

NB: It is the responsibility of the student to check his/her online transcript to ensure that he/she is registered for the correct course(s), and/or has successfully de-registered from the course(s) he/she wishes to drop. Registration for a course constitutes registration for the examination in that course and includes payment of student fees.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT
All students registered in the Faculty of Humanities and Education who do not have at least CSEC General Grade II before 1998 or Grade III after 1998 or its equivalent in a foreign language are required to complete three (3) credits in one of the following foreign language course:

(see ADDITIONAL FACULTY REQUIREMENTS).

CREDITS AND EXEMPTIONS
Students transferring into Level I from another Faculty, or who have undertaken relevant studies at another tertiary institution, may request credits for, or exemptions from, courses which are similar in content to those which they have successfully completed elsewhere. Such students should write a letter to the Dean requesting the appropriate credits/exemptions, giving specific information on the course followed, including the name of the course, the period of study, and the level and grade obtained. The granting of all credits and exemptions must be approved by Academic Board. Students may be provisionally registered pending approval of their request.

NB: Students who receive an exemption without credit are required to do another course.

Exemption with Credit
FOUN1101 Caribbean Civilization for CAPE Caribbean Studies at Grade I or II only.

Exemption without Credit
FOUN1001 English for Academic Purposes for CAPE Communication Studies at Grade I or II only.
FACULTY REGULATIONS
CONCERNING

THE BA DEGREE

In order to graduate with a BA degree, students must normally accumulate a total of 90 credits. Since each semester-long course is worth 3 credits, this means students must pass the equivalent of 30 courses distributed in the ways indicated below (see also diagram on p.35).

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

MAJORS
All students must, upon entering the Faculty, declare a major in one of the following subjects. A major is a student’s principal subject of study:

- French
- History
- Linguistics
- Literatures in English
- Philosophy
- Psychology
- Spanish

This means that students must do at least 12 core courses in the subject chosen (e.g. Linguistics) for a total of 36 credits. Courses must be chosen according to the requirements specified by each discipline (see the various Requirements for Majors, in the Majors and Specials section).

DOUBLE MAJORS
Students may choose to do a ‘double major’ within the Faculty, that is, 36 credits (12 courses) in each of two of the subjects listed earlier (e.g.12 courses in Linguistics and 12 courses in Spanish). Students wishing to do a double major involving a major from outside the Faculty must seek special approval from the Dean of each Faculty involved.

SPECIALS
Students may seek to do a ‘special’ in a subject (so far specials are offered only in History, Literatures in English and Psychology). This consists of 54 credits (18 courses) and requires permission from the Head of the Department. This evidently reduces the number of courses outside the discipline which a student may opt to do. NB: Normally, students will not be allowed to pursue a minor with a ‘special’.

FACULTY REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the requirements for the Major, the following information explains the faculty requirements for the degree programme.

- 2 English Language Foundation Courses
- 2 Level 1 Faculty courses outside the Major
  - FOUN 1210
  - FOUN 1301
- Foreign Language Requirement
- Research Paper (or approved substitutes) at Level III

FOUNDATION COURSES
All students entering the Faculty are required to do four (4) Foundation courses for a total of twelve (12) credits by the time they graduate. Although they are all coded as Level I courses, only the Foundation Courses in English Language must be taken at Level I. The others may be taken at Level II.

NOTE: FOUN0100: Fundamentals of Written English must be taken by students who have not passed, taken, or been exempted from the Proficiency Test in English. This course has no credits.

- The Foundation course FOUN1001 is compulsory for all students entering the Faculty, unless otherwise specified.
- Students must also do either FOUN1002 or FOUN1003 as their second Foundation Course in English Language.
- In addition, students must do FOUN1210 and FOUN1301, both of which are out-of-faculty courses. Please refer all enquiries for these courses to the relevant Faculty.
The Foundation Courses which are administered by the Faculty of Humanities and Education are:

Foundation Courses in English Language
- FOUN1001 English for Academic Purposes
- FOUN1002 Language: Argument
- FOUN1003 Rhetoric I: The Writing Process
- FOUN1008 Rhetoric II: Writing for Special Purposes (For non-Humanities and Education Students)

Foundation Course in History
- FOUN1101 Caribbean Civilisation (For non-Humanities and Education Students)

Out-of-Faculty Foundation Courses
- FOUN1210 Science, Medicine and Technology in Society is administered by the Faculty of Pure and Applied Sciences and the Faculty of Medical Science
- FOUN1301 Law, Governance, Economy and Society in the Caribbean is administered by the Faculty of Social Sciences and the Faculty of Law

Faculty Electives.
Two courses in Humanities and Education outside their Major at Level I (one of which may be The Foreign Language Requirement below) (6 credits);

The Foreign Language Requirement.
A beginners’ course in a foreign language at Level I if they do not already possess at least CXC Grade III (or equivalent) in a foreign language (3 credits);

Electives
Students may acquire the other credits required to attain the total of 90 credits (30 courses) by doing:

- Extra courses in the subject of their major
- Co-curricular Courses. Credit for Co-curricular Courses can be counted toward the overall number of courses for the degree (i.e., 30 courses). However, like the Foundation Courses, they are assessed on a pass or fail (P/F) basis. They do not have a GPA and, therefore, are not used in calculating the class of degree.
- Any permissible combination of the above.

Research Paper
Students are required to do one of the following research papers in his/her final year: HUMN3099 Caribbean Studies, PHIL3099 Research in Philosophy, PSYC3011 Research in Psychology, or approved substitute courses at Level III (6 credits).

Minors
Although it is not compulsory for students to pursue a minor with their major, for those students who are desirous of doing so, there are structured minors available in a variety of disciplines. Those students wishing to pursue a minor must get approval from the Dean. At the end of their degree, students who have a declared minor will be certified as attaining a minor where they have fulfilled the requirement of the minor in the discipline they have chosen. (A minor will normally consist of at least 18 credits which must include at least fifteen credits at Level II/III, including at least 3 credits at Level III)

Students must note that approval to pursue out-of-faculty or cross-faculty minors is not automatic. This requires the permission of the two Deans involved, and in some cases, the approval of one or both faculty Boards. Minors taken from other Faculties will follow those Faculties’ requirements, unless there are arrangements between the respective Faculties to vary the structure of the minor. Students should also note that taking minors in other Faculties might require them to do extra courses, notwithstanding the stipulation that a degree in the Faculty of Humanities and Education consists of 90 credits or 30 courses spread over the various levels.
REQUIREMENTS FOR THE AWARD OF THE BA DEGREE

1. In order to qualify for a BA Degree a student must:

   (a) complete at least 90 credits (30 courses), of which

      (i) 12 credits (4 courses) shall be for Foundation Courses. (The English Language Foundation courses must be taken at Level I. Other Foundation Courses may be taken, preferably, at Level II).

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION OF COURSEWORK

General Layout

• All essays/projects/research papers should be submitted in a typewritten format (in black ink), which is expected to be free from typographical errors.

• Only white 8½ x 11-inch (letter size) paper of good quality should be used (75g weight is good). Be sure to number each page of the essays/projects/research papers and to assemble the pages in the right order. Put page numbers in the upper right hand corner. The student must type his/her last name or student identification (depending on the lecturer’s request) before each number.

• Margins should be one inch all around, with double-line spacing throughout, (lengthy quotations, footnotes or endnotes and list of works cited maybe typed single-lined spacing).

• All essays/projects/research papers should be printed single-sided. The text font should be Times Roman with a font size of 12 points.

Documentation

Documentation acknowledges the sources of the ideas and information in a student’s essays/projects/research papers. The authority for both facts and opinions not your own must be acknowledged so that your readers can have an accurate account of materials on which you have based your conclusions. You must say where you took your idea from, and you must do so in a conventional style that allows the reader to trace its source and, if necessary, to investigate its accuracy or applicability.

What to Document

Any words or passages quoted directly from sources (including sources found on the internet) must be documented. In addition, paraphrased or restated ideas from a source must have a note as to the source of the idea. Allusions to sources within the text must also be documented. That is, if you refer to an entire text by title as an example of some element being discussed, the text needs to be documented.

Plagiarism

Failure to acknowledge your sources or imprecise documentation can result in invalid research or in plagiarism. Ideas are considered to belong to the person who first documents them; therefore, if you incorporate ideas or phrasing from an author in your work, whether quoted directly or used indirectly, you should be honest about your sources and indicate them fully. If you fail to do this, you are guilty of plagiarism. The University’s Examination Regulation 97 states:

‘Plagiarism is a form of cheating. Plagiarism is the unauthorized and/or unacknowledged use of another person’s intellectual efforts and creations howsoever recorded, including whether formally published or in manuscript or in typescript or other printed or electronically presented form, and includes taking passages, ideas or structures from another work or author without proper and unequivocal attribution of such source(s), using the conventions for attributions or citing used in this University.’

It is the policy of the Faculty of Humanities and Education that essays/projects/research papers which show evidence of plagiarism will receive NO MARKS. In addition, University Examination Regulation 103 (i) states:

‘If a candidate is found guilty of cheating or attempting to cheat, the Committee [on Examinations] shall disqualify the candidate from the examination in the course concerned, and may also disqualify him/her from all examinations taken in that examination session; and may also disqualify him/her from all further examinations of the University, for any period of time, and may impose a fine…’

REGULATIONS FOR THE RESEARCH PAPER

HUMN3099 CARIBBEAN STUDIES

In the final year of their degree programme, undergraduates reading for the BA are required to investigate some topic relating to the Caribbean, and to report the results in the form of a paper, except where permission has been given to substitute two approved alternative courses for Caribbean Studies.

Approved Alternatives include:

- Students majoring in French and/or Spanish, who have maintained a B+ average or above, may submit a translation, duly approved and supervised, in fulfilment of this requirement;
- LITS3501, LITS3502, LITS3601, LITS3602, LITS3603 and LITS3304 for those majoring in Literatures in English.

Students taking approved alternatives to HUMN3099 (the equivalent of six credits) should note that they are required to complete an additional nine credits in exclusively Level III courses in order to meet the requirements for the award of the degree.

Topic

The topic chosen for the study, which must not be wholly identical to Faculty coursework undertaken by the student, must normally be chosen from the student’s major area of study and must be approved by the Moderator of Caribbean Studies at the campus at which the student will register.

Proposal

An outline plan indicating the scope and organisation of the proposed study together with a bibliography or list of source materials should normally be submitted when seeking this approval.

Approval

It is the responsibility of the student to register the topic of his/her study with the Faculty Office for formal approval by the Moderator not later than the end of the second week in September, but changes of title will be permitted up to the first Friday of the second semester (see HUMN3099 Guidelines booklet for further details).

Requirements

The paper shall be not more than 9,000 words, excluding bibliography, except with the permission of the supervisor and the Moderator for Caribbean Studies, and must be of a quality appropriate to the work of an undergraduate in the final year of the degree programme.

PHIL3099 RESEARCH PAPER IN PHILOSOPHY

This course introduces final year students to techniques of research in Philosophy. Students will be able to produce a written paper, under supervision, which identifies issues and/or themes in the works of a major philosophical figure.

Nature of Assessment

1. Students will produce an extended essay of a maximum of 4,000 words in semester I. This essay will be marked out of 40% and consist of the student’s analysis of a work in Philosophy assigned by the lecturer.

2. The final research paper of a maximum of 10,000 words, will be chosen by the student but in consultation with the lecturer. This will be marked out of 60%.

For further information, please consult the Department of History and Philosophy and the departmental handbook.

PSYC3011 RESEARCH PAPER IN PSYCHOLOGY

The project develops the students’ capacity to formulate a research topic and consolidate data collection and data analytic skills. For further information, please contact the School of Education. The report should not exceed the maximum of 10,000 words.

HUMN3901 CAPSTONE/THESIS PROJECT IN THE CREATIVE ARTS

This yearlong course will involve the production of a strong, well constructed, compelling work of art in film, theatre, writing and/or dance. The student will work under close supervision of the lecturer and be expected to make class presentations and provide a journal of his/her activities. For further information, please contact the EBCCI.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR THE RESEARCH PAPER

Students must ensure that their Research Paper comply with the Faculty and/or Departmental guidelines before submitting it. (See Guidelines for Submission of Coursework p. 82 for more information).

Deadline
The deadline for the submission of the completed Research Paper is May 4, 2012. In the case of PSYC 3011 and PSYC 3016, the deadline is April 27, 2012. The HUMN3099 is to be submitted to the Faculty Office while the PHIL3099, the PSYC3011 and the HUMN3901 are to be submitted to the department of History & Philosophy, the School of Education and the Errol Barrow Centre for Creative Imagination respectively. Only in exceptional circumstances will a paper be accepted after that date.

Failures
Students who do not submit a paper by the deadline date for submission shall be deemed to have failed and must register as normal in the next academic year.

Students who, having duly submitted, did not pass at the first attempt and wish to graduate without losing time may re-submit not later than the last Friday in August provided that all regulations governing Final Year Supplemental Examination are observed.

Students who fail the Research Paper on the first attempt are allowed a total of four additional submissions within a period of two years. Any change in topic must be approved by and registered with the Moderator.

Deferral
Full-time students who are allowed to take more than 36 credits (12 courses) but not more than 42 credits (14 courses) in their final year to complete the degree must register their Caribbean Study as deferred. Such students will be permitted to submit their study not later than the last Friday in August before the beginning of the next academic year. The same applies to final year students who, as a result of having failed a course in Semester I, need to gain 21 credits in Semester II to complete the degree. Students in these categories should register their topic with the moderator by 31st May.

Corrections
All studies shall be marked as received. However, after marking, a study may be returned for correction of minor editorial/stylistic errors, for purposes of lodgement in the Library but not for remarking.

Online Registration of Research Paper
Students are reminded that the research paper is regarded as a yearlong course carrying six (6) credits, and are therefore required to register online for the paper in each semester.

NOTE: Students who, at the beginning of an academic year, need only the research paper to complete the degree, are reminded that they are still required to register online for this research paper and to submit the study at the normal time.

An I designation is not counted in credit hours earned, or quality hours until a letter grade is reported. If neither a letter grade nor notification of an extension of time is received by the Registry from the Office of Dean, the I designation is replaced by an F letter grade at the end of the first six weeks into the next semester. An extension of time may be granted but shall not normally extend beyond the end of the semester in which the extension is granted. Any remaining I symbol at the end of the period of extension will be deemed an F.

NR: Not Reported - Grade not yet available.

IP: In Progress - when a dissertation, thesis, project, student teaching, practicum, internship, proficiency requirement, or other course intended to last more than one semester is not completed during the semester in which the student is registered. 8. The courses to be used for the purpose of determining the Weighted GPA for the class of degree to be awarded shall be as prescribed in Faculty Regulations.

9. Where a course has been repeated, the penalty to be applied for failure and the grade to be used in the computation of the student’s GPA if the course is subsequently passed, shall be as prescribed in Faculty Regulations.

10. For the purpose of determining the Weighted GPA, failed courses shall be treated as prescribed in Faculty Regulations.

11. (i) Where credit for a course taken at another institution is requested, it is the student’s responsibility to provide all the information needed by the University to enable it to assess the course.

(ii) Credit hours earned from another institution at the time of admission to the University of the West Indies will not be used in the computation of a grade point average.

12. The following shall apply to credits earned by a UWI undergraduate from another approved institution:

(i) A UWI student who wishes to take academic courses elsewhere and apply those credits toward the UWI degree must obtain approval in advance from the relevant Academic Board on the recommendation of the Board of the Faculty in which he/she is registered.

(ii) A student must have obtained a minimum UWI GPA of 3.00 to be approved to take courses as an exchange/transfer student.

(iii) Only the grade equivalent as determined by the Board for Undergraduate Studies of the results achieved and not the marks or grades so earned at another institution shall be used in the computation of the student’s GPA.

13. (i) Except where otherwise prescribed in Faculty Regulations, a student whose GPA for a given semester is less than or equal to 0.75 shall be deemed to be performing unsatisfactorily, and shall be placed on warning. A student on warning whose GPA for the succeeding semester is less than 0.75, will be required to withdraw. However, a student may be reinstated if his/her GPA improves beyond 0.75 by credits obtained in Summer School. Then the credits would be rolled in to the GPA of the preceding Semester of the academic year.

(ii) A student on warning shall be counselled by the Dean or a designated faculty advisor. Such a student may, except where otherwise prescribed in Faculty Regulations, be permitted by the Academic Board on the recommendation of Faculty Board to carry a reduced course load.

(iv) No academic credit may be granted for auditing a course.

15. (i) A student who voluntarily withdraws from the University and who applies for re-admission within five (5) years shall be granted exemption and credit for courses previously passed, subject to the time limit for the maintenance of credits stipulated in the relevant Faculty Regulations and subject to the stipulation that the courses previously passed are not determined by the Board of the relevant Faculty to be obsolete.

(ii) Where exemption and credit are granted in accordance with (i), the grades obtained at previous attempts at such courses shall be used in the determination of the student’s GPA.

16. A student who was required to withdraw for reasons of failure to progress as prescribed in Faculty Regulations may be readmitted on the following conditions:

(i) A minimum of one (1) year must have passed since the date of withdrawal;

(ii) All grades previously obtained shall continue to apply for the purpose of determining the student’s GPA;

(iii) Work done during the period between the student being required to withdraw and being granted readmission may be eligible for credit under Regulation 11.

17. Where there is a conflict between Faculty Regulations and these regulations, these Regulations shall apply.

HOW TO CALCULATE YOUR WEIGHTED GPA

STEP ONE: A ‘grade point’ is assigned for every course in which you receive a final grade. For example, if you receive an A as a final grade, you will be assigned a grade point of 4.0.

STEP TWO: The grade point assigned for each course completed is multiplied by the ‘credit hours’ of the course to determine your ‘quality points’. For example, if you receive a grade point of 3.7 [equivalent of letter grade A-] for a 3-credit course the quality points would be calculated as follows: 3.7 X 3 = 11.1 quality points.

STEP THREE: Your ‘Weighted GPA’ is the average obtained by dividing the total quality points earned in your programme to date by the total credit hours taken, excluding courses taken on a pass/fail basis, audited courses, courses taken for preliminary credit, incomplete courses and any other courses which do not count towards the class of degree according to Faculty regulations.

For example: 54 quality points earned divided by 15 credit hours [equivalent to 5 3-credit courses] = a Weighted GPA of 3.6.
