CODE AND NAME OF COURSE: FOUN 1301 – LAW, GOVERNANCE AND SOCIETY

DATE AND TIME: APRIL/MAY 2014
DURATION: 2 HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES: This paper has TEN (10) QUESTIONS and TWO (2) pages. Students are required to answer THREE (3) questions, ONE from each Section.

SECTION 1

1. Describe the differences between the Kalina and the Lokono or outline the achievements of the Maya, particularly in the areas of writing, medicine, architecture, astronomy and mathematics.

2. Will the decision in the Shanique Myrie case lead other CARICOM member States into joining the appellate jurisdiction of the CCJ?

3. The continued abuse of women speaks to the need for a sea change in the attitude of men towards women. This is a prerequisite for the further advancement of women in our societies. Discuss.

SECTION 2

4. When money talks, democracy walks away. Discuss.

5. Discuss the impact made by either Montesquieu or Marx on the modern world.

6. What are the differences between Belize and Haiti in terms of electoral systems and of their populations?

7. Discuss the flaws in the First Past the Post electoral system and suggest changes you might make in your country.
SECTION 3

8. Discuss the difficulties involved in creating CSME.

9. How far are crime and poverty related?

10. We are still mired in the plantation in our thinking about our economies and ourselves at a personal level. Discuss

END OF EXAMINATION PAPER