THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES
EXAMINATIONS OF DECEMBER 2013

CODE AND NAME OF COURSE: INGR 6010 – CARIBBEAN GOVERNANCE

DATE AND TIME: DURATION: 3 HOURS

INSTRUCTION TO CANDIDATES: This paper has ONE page, TWO sections and SIX questions. Students are required to answer a total of TWO questions as follows: ONE question from Section A and ONE question from Section B. All answers must be in essay form and should employ relevant examples and evidence. Each question is worth twenty-five (25) marks.

SECTION A

1. ‘Historically, regional integration in the Caribbean has always been seen as a means to an end and never as an end in its own right.’ (Boxill 1997: 31). Present a critical analysis (of the above statement) which discusses the British West Indies Federation. (25 marks)

2. Utilising one regional integration initiative, provide a sound assessment of the legacy of the BWIF on continued integration within the independent Caribbean countries post 1962. (25 marks)

SECTION B

3. Examine the contribution of race and class in the evolution of governance within the Caribbean from the 18th century until 1962. (25 marks)

4. Critically discuss the two (2) major regional integration initiatives that existed prior to the British West Indies Federation. (25 marks)

5. Critically evaluate three (3) of Lewis’ development strategies for the British West Indies post the 1930s. (25 marks)

6. Provide a sound assessment of the contribution of Caribbean radical political thought to the regional integration movement. (25 marks)

END OF QUESTION PAPER