

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND EDUCATION

Cave Hill Campus

HUMN3099 CARIBBEAN STUDIES PAST TITLES

LINGUISTICS

Studies highlighted in red and marked with an asterisk (*) have received a grade of at least B+ and are therefore lodged in the UWI Sidney Martin Library.

TOPICS 2013/2014	Supervisor
Compare the Effectiveness of Instructional Methods Used at the Montessori School to Instructional Methods of Public Nursery School to Enhance Proficiency of Oral Reading. *	K. Evans
A Sociolinguistic Analysis of the Language Varieties used by Barbadians in a Formal Business Setting. *	J. Jules
An Investigative Study into how Interpreters Create Signs to Express Local Meaning in the Context of a Pentecostal Church.	K. Gibson
A linguistic Analysis of the Language of Barbadian Primary School Children's Hand Games: The Preservation of Barbadian Dialect.	J. Jules
An analysis of the socio-linguistic factors which influence the oral proficiency of Nurses between the ages of 20-25 in Barbados *	K. Evans
An Examination of Parliamentary Language in the Parliament of Barbados: 1980 – 1989.	K. Gibson
An investigation into the Effectiveness of Teaching Phonics to Develop Oral Reading Skills in Infants Aged 6-7 in one Government Primary School and One Private Primary School in Barbados. *	S. Denny
An analysis of the influence of recreational reading in Standard English on the level of oral language proficiency of St. Lucian, 13-14 year old adolescent bilingual speakers. *	J. Jules
An Analysis of the Instructional Methods Used to Teach Oral and Reading across the Streams of a Barbadian Primary School.	J. Jules
An investigation into the sociolinguistics factor that influence the replacement of French words by English words in the speech of young Guadeloupian adults aged 18 to 25.	H. Zamor
A comparison between some of the phonological features of the Irish dialect and some of the phonological features of the Barbadian dialect of the 'redlegs' of St. John. *	K. Gibson
A comparative analysis of the TESOL instructional methods within a formal and informal context: The level of effectiveness on students' oral communication *	S. Denny
An analysis of the sociolinguistic factors which influence the use of the vernacular in formal situational contexts among 18 to 25 year old Trinidadian and Jamaican students at the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus.	K. Belgrave
Language and Gender: The Effect of Language Differences on Female University Students. *	K. Gibson

TOPICS 2013/2014	Supervisor
The Study of the way church people talk to each other at church versus outside of church	K. Evans
An Investigation into the Effectiveness of Instructors' Teaching Techniques to improve the oral proficiency of second language adult Spanish learners at The University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus.	S. Denny
Study of Barbadian Slang. *	K. Gibson
Same Word Different Meaning	K. Evans
An Analysis of the Influence of Social Media Systems Networking Language on the Written Standard English of Young Barbadian Students Ages 13-15 at two Secondary Schools in Barbados.	J. Jules
An Analysis of the Oral Linguistic Performance of a 9-Year-Old Child Diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy.	K. Belgrave
The Effects of the Use of Bajan Dialect by Barbadian Secondary School Children on the Syntax of Standard English.	K. Evans
An Analysis of the Use of Barbadian Dialect as a Strategy to Teach Standard English to 7-8 year olds at a Primary School in Barbados.	J. Jules
The Struggle for a Language Survival: The Case of the Kalinago Language of Dominica.	K. Gibson
Pre-school and Children's oral language.	K. Belgrave
An Insight into the Impact of Linguistics knowledge on the Teaching of Reading in a Barbadian Primary School.	S. Denny
An analysis of the effectiveness of the instructional methods employed by Barbadian French teachers on the oral language performance of fifth form French students. *	J. Jules
A Study of the Labelling Strategies used in the Caribbean to refer to Household Items.	K. Evans
The Effects of Internet Language on Students' Written Proficiency within the Faculty of Humanities and Education at the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus.	S. Denny
The Influence of the Jargon in the Oral Language of Boss FM Disc Jockeys on the Oral Language of 13-17 year olds in Secondary Schools in St. Georges, Grenada. *	K. Gibson
Language development and use in Autistic children *	K Evans