

HUMN3099 CARIBBEAN STUDIES

Past Titles - Linguistics

Title	Supervisor
A comparative analysis of the morphological errors found in the speech production of a group of three to four year olds and the writings of a group of eight to nine year olds in the Arthur Smith Primary School	S. Denny
A case for the formation of a suitable language policy for the primary schools in St. Vincent and the Grenadines (SVG)	M. Isaac
What are some of the factors influencing the acquisition of English by 9 year olds in Deacons Primary School?	S. Denny
Gender, Sexuality and language communication on the internet	K. Gibson
The development of Barbadian English: Has it changed since independence	P. Roberts
Representation and Re- representation: The Caribbean in International Media	C. Best
An Investigation into the use of storytelling to develop literacy skills in a select group of five to six year olds in a select primary school	S. Denny
An analysis of language used in the law courts of Barbados	J. Allsopp
How has internet users influenced the change of the Lexical and Syndactical content of the English language through the use of internet communications such as MSN Instant Messenger and the use of the Mobile phone?	J. Allsopp
A linguistic comparison between Jamaican and Barbadian speech, seeking to explain the reasons why Jamaican speech is termed as creole and Barbadian speech is not.	P. Roberts
Differences in languages of males and females at religious meetings at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah Witnesses	K. Gibson
An investigative study of the social – cultural linguistics differences among upper middle call and lower middle class of modern Barbados.	P. Roberts
An investigation into the difficulties encountered by 10 -11 year olds in two selected Barbadian Primary Schools in relation to the acquisition and use of the standard English.	M. Isaac
Barbadian dialect in the electronic media	P. Roberts
The historical impact of slavery on Barbadian culture and society	J. Allsop
A study of the impact of Black Entertainment Television (BET) on the language of a group of university students	P. Roberts
Do men use language to show dominance and control with women in conversations?	K. Gibson
A study of how the names of districts in the parish of St. Andrew came into existence.	P. Roberts
The use of language in advertisements and signs	K. Gibson
A Cultural and Historical look at a selection of Plant Names of Barbados	P. Roberts
Education in a bilingual St. Lucian community	M. Isaac

An analysis of the role played by slavery in the creolization process of language in Barbados.	P. Roberts
An investigation into the use of the vernacular in the classroom at the Christ Church Boys' School.	S. Denny
Dread talk – An analysis of the language in Barbados	P. Roberts
A comparative study of the language of 9 year old children with Down's Syndrome and normal nine year old children.	S. Denny
A study of the use of dialect in a sample of West Indian Novels	J. Allsopp
Reading comprehension and the implications for teaching and learning	P. Roberts
The marginalization of women within the church in Barbados in the twentieth century.	P. Roberts
The Naming of selected Inanimate objects in Barbados	P. Roberts
Attitudes towards Bajan dialect	M. Isaac

2012/2013

The Variation in Parliamentarians' Language Use in Debates in Barbados	Janice Jules
Religiously Speaking: A Comparative Study of the Language Used in the Wedding and Funeral Ceremonies in the Pentecostal, Spiritual Baptist and Rastafarian Denominations in Barbados.	Kean Gibson
Language in text-messaging in the 12-16 age group and its impact on their acquisition of Standard English.	Keisha Evans
The Linguistic Representation of Women in Print Media in Barbados	Kean Gibson
A Comparative Study of the Registers used by Employees Communicating with Each Other and with Clients in the Workplace.	Janice Jules
The Use of Instant Messaging as Slang in the Informal Speech of the Students of The University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus	Korah Belgrave
The Gender Differences in Conversational Practice among Adolescents Aged Twelve to Sixteen Years in Barbadian Secondary Schools	Jeannette Allsopp
The Use of the Vernacular as a tool for classroom management at the St. Bartholomew Primary School.	Keisha Evans
An Investigation into the Ability of Barbadian Primary School Teachers to provide effective Instruction to students with Dyslexia	Janice Jules
The Relationship between Cognitive Styles in Language Arts and Methods of Assessment in three Barbadian Classrooms within three Barbadian Primary Schools	Janice Jules
An Analysis of The Effects of Dyslexia on the Writing of 11 to 12 year old Barbadian Students.	Stacey Denny
The Importance of Instruction in Phonemic Awareness and Phonological Awareness in Promoting Alphabetic Knowledge in children aged 3-4 years.	Stacey Denny
From Bosses to Battyboys: An Analysis of the Views of Barbadian Males (18-25) on the Portrayal of Men and Masculinity in Jamaican Dancehall Music	Korah Belgrave

An Investigation into the Effectiveness of Using Kittitian Creole and Standard English in Language Teaching Programmes on Students' Oral Performance in English	Stacey Denny
A Comparative Study of the Attitudes of Learning Spanish among 4th Form Students from Two Secondary Schools in Barbados. (Combermere School and the St. Leonard's Boys' School)	Keisha Evans
The Use of Abusive Language in Barbados from a Gender Perspective	Kean Gibson
An Analysis of the Effects of Decreolization on the lexicon of Barbadian Dialect	Korah Belgrave
An Analysis of the Methodologies used to Instruct Class Four Students in Subject and Verb Agreement and their Application of the Rules in Writing Standard English.	Jeannette Allsopp
A Different Meaning? Caribbean English Words and their Different Meanings to their Standard English Counterparts
The Differences and Similarities between Dominican and St. Lucian Creole Patois	Jeannette Allsopp
An Analysis of the Ability of Hearing-Impaired and Speech-Impaired Children to Adapt Sign Language to Represent Bajan Dialect	Keisha Evans
The Impact of Slang on the Oral Communication of Barbadian Teenagers within the Classroom	Jeannette Allsopp
Common Errors In Speech Produced by Infants	Keisha Evans
An Analysis of the sociolinguistic factors which influence the use of Bajan Dialect by Claims Officers of Capital Insurance Incorporation on the transaction of business	Jeannette Allsopp
A Comparison of the Attitudes of Barbadian Secondary School Teachers and Students of Foreign Language towards the Use of Computer Assisted Language Learning.	Korah Belgrave
The Impact Internet Language has on the Written Language of Adolescents in the 14-16 year Age Group	Korah Belgrave
An Examination of the Effects of Articulation Disorder on the Acquisition of Oral Language Reading Skills by Children 6-7 years old in Barbados.	Stacey Denny
The Language of Commentators	K. Evans
Towards An Appreciation of Barbadian Dialect in Language Arts Classrooms in Primary and Secondary Schools in Barbados	K.Evans
The Interpretation of Dancehall Music and its Influence on Men in Barbados	K. Belgrave
The Effects of Text Messaging and Email Language on Standard English	M. Isaac

2010/2011

Etymology & Semantics: The Evolution/Development of Selected Lexical Items in Caribbean English	J. Allsopp
An analysis of the Language Used by the Judges and Lawyers in the Barbados Law Courts	M. Isaac
An Inventory of the Phonemes of Contemporary Bajan: The Parish of St. Michael	K. Belgrave
Are there gender differences in the Language of Barbadian Children Ages Eleven to Sixteen	K. Gibson
An Investigation of the Perceptions and Linguistic Competency in Phonemic Awareness and Phonics Instruction of Nursery and Reception Teachers in Barbadian Primary Schools- Implications for reading	S. Denny
The use of Barbadian Dialect in Barbadian Media and How it Reflects the Language's Perception in Barbadian Society	K. Evans
The use of Barbadian Dialect in Barbadian Media and How it Reflects the Language's Perception in Barbadian Society	K. Evans
An Examination of the Factors which influence Methodologies in the Teaching of Language Arts in Barbados Primary Schools	K. Evans
An Investigation into the Teaching Strategies chosen when Teaching Reading Comprehension to 6-7 Year Olds in One Urban Barbadian School	S. Denny
Investigation into the Problems and Possible Solutions Associated with Students Answering Comprehension Questions	P. Roberts
Differentiating Normal and Delay Phonological Development in Preschoolers	K. Belgrave
The Use of the Standard and Non -Standard Forms of English in Conversations Among Working Class People	M. Isaac
Registers used in Barbadian Speech By University Students Aged 17-50 years	P. Roberts
The use of Caribbean English Idiomatic Phrases in the Speech of the 14-20 Age Group	