PATH TO PROSPERITY
PROGRAMME SUMMARY
The MSc. Integration Studies is an exciting programme designed to strengthen scholarship and research on regionalism by exploring the political, economic and social complexities of regional integration projects in process around the world. The programme is structured to be global in focus, but places special emphasis on Caribbean integration and development. Integral to the programme are concentrations in international trade, international business, government and globalization that, in a changing global environment, inevitably impact on the world’s regional integration projects.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
• To provide a sound understanding and critical awareness of the integration experience, in the Commonwealth Caribbean and beyond;
• To foster a rigorous appreciation of the relationships between regionalism and international relations, international political economy, as well as the relationships between integration and business, government and policy; and
• To produce individuals who possess historical perspective and up-to-date knowledge on regionalism and are able to provide perspectives vital to the furtherance of regional policy development in the Caribbean and beyond.

CAREER APPLICABILITY
This programme is well suited to those employed in/or interested in pursuing careers in, the following:- The Caribbean Community Secretariat and affiliated institutions/agencies; The Organisation of Eastern States Secretariat and affiliated institutions/agencies; Other intergovernmental organisations (e.g. the Organisation of American States or the Commonwealth Secretariat); Ministries responsible for Foreign Affairs, Foreign Trade, International Business or Security; The United Nations and related organisations; Non-Governmental Organisations (particularly those that are regional in scope) and/or interested in pursuing careers such as Academics and Research, Journalism, Business and Politics.

COURSE OF STUDY
MSc. Integration Studies spans twelve (12) to eighteen (18) months of full time study. The programme comprises nine taught courses (3 credits each), a practicum (9 credits) and a long research paper (6 credits), for which students are expected to earn a total of forty two (42) credits. This programme can also be pursued on a part time basis over a period of approximately twenty four (24) months.

Summer Session
Work Placement and Independent Study:
Practicum: The practicum component will usually be undertaken during the three month summer period at a relevant institution and will allow some degree of exposure to the applicability of the theoretical knowledge that participants have acquired. On completion of the practicum, students must submit a written report about their experience (not longer than 15,000 words).

Independent Study:
Research Paper: The research project is the final stage of the programme. The project provides students with an opportunity to apply the knowledge developed over the course of the programme to a practical problem. Students will be required to submit a research report of between 12,000 and 20,000 words analyzing and proposing solutions to the previously identified problem.

PROGRAMME COST
The fee for participants entering the MSc. Integration Studies is BDS$20,000 (US$10,000), which covers the entire programme, including tuition for the courses and course materials (excluding text books). Fees payable in full or per course on registration.
