

WAYNE DAWE

Mr. Wayne Dawe first joined the Cave Hill Campus in April 1978 and was reassigned to the Faculty of Social Sciences on January 01, 1995. From the commencement of this appointment, Mr. Dawe showed great promise and, in recognition of his contribution to the Faculty, was appointed Office Assistant in April 01, 2001.

Mr. Dawe has been an outstanding employee over the years, contributing significantly to the operations and efficiency of the Faculty and to the wider UWI community.

Mr. Dawe is a perfectionist and detail oriented. His work ethic reflects “that any job worth doing is worth doing well”, no matter how small or challenging. He takes the initiative in offering alternatives to complete tasks more efficiently and often more cost effectively.

Over the years, Mr. Dawe has equipped himself with the knowledge of the use of technology and the equipment used within the Faculty, demonstrating his resourcefulness over the years, by keeping his knowledge current with the rapid technology changes in this equipment. As such Mr. Dawe can be ably called on to fix common problems that occur with the machines as well as to interact intelligibly with the external maintenance technicians when necessary.

He has sought to enhance his skills and competencies by undertaking courses in the Efficient Assistant at BIMAP, and has undergone training in computer software applications offered by the UWI.

Mr. Dawe is a reliable, conscientious and dedicated member of the team in the Faculty of Social Sciences. He can be called at the last moment to perform any task and its completion will still be compliant with his self-imposed meticulous standards.
