MA Heritage Studies

This programme aims to create heritage specialists who can develop and manage the cultural and heritage resources of Barbados and the wider Caribbean.

2017-2018

MA HERITAGE STUDIES

The MA in Heritage Studies programme continues to create marketable graduates in the field, deepening and diversifying students knowledge base in this area. Emphasis is placed on innovative types of experiential learning and management aspects of the industry. Graduates of the programme will be able to immediately apply their skills across all sectors of the heritage industry including Tourism, museums, archives, government and academia.

The aim of this programme is to create heritage specialists who can develop and manage the cultural and heritage resources of Barbados and the wider Caribbean, while working within global standards for the heritage industry.
