

20th Annual Caribbean Commercial Law Workshop

Caribbean Perspectives on International Commercial Law

July 23-25, 2023

Faculty of Law
The University of the West Indies

Save the date

Following the Faculty of Law of The University of the West Indies' successful gathering in Havana, Cuba, in 2019, the Faculty is pleased to announce that the 20th Annual Caribbean Commercial Law Workshop will be hosted at the Hotel AKA Brickell, Miami, Florida from July 23-25, 2023.

Theme

The theme of this year's workshop is: The Commonwealth Caribbean's Contribution to International Commercial Law. The workshop will feature the popular and dynamic roundtable sessions, including both corporate counsel and new developments in Caribbean commercial law practice roundtables.

Call for Papers

Persons are invited to submit proposals for papers that discuss, explore and reflect on Caribbean and International perspectives on the following topics:

- International Dispute Resolution and International Commercial Arbitration
- International Investment and International Trade
- Private International Law of Commercial Transactions and International Sale of Goods
- International Taxation Law
- Competition Law and Intellectual Property
- Regulation of International Commercial law and Comparative Corporate Law

All proposals must contain the full name and contact details of the presenter, the proposed paper title and a short abstract of the paper topic (250 words maximum). Papers should be related to the Workshop theme and must be submitted by January 31, 2023 to Ms. Lorna Payne at the contact details below. We look forward to your joining us this year, either as a delegate or a panellist!
