CHAPTER 12.01
ADOPTION OF CHILDREN ACT

AN ACT to make provision for the adoption of children; and to make provision for related or incidental matters.

1. Short title.

This Act may be cited as the Adoption of Children Act.

2. Power to make adoption orders.

(1) Upon an application, in the prescribed manner, by any person desirous of being authorised to adopt an infant who has never been married, the Court may, subject to the provisions of this Act, make an order (in this Act referred to as "an adoption order") authorising the applicant to adopt that infant.

(2) A person so authorised to adopt the infant and an infant authorised to be adopted are in this Act referred to as an "adopter" and an "adopted child" respectively, and "infant" means a person under the age of eighteen years.

(3) Where an application for an adoption order is made by two spouses jointly, the Court may make the order authorising the two spouses jointly to adopt, but save as aforesaid no adoption order shall be made authorising more than one person to adopt an infant.

3. Restrictions on making adoption orders.

(1) An adoption order shall not be made in any case where

- (a) the applicant is under the age of twenty-five years; or
- (b) the applicant is less than eighteen years older than the infant in respect of whom the application is made:

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Court, if it thinks fit, to make an order, notwithstanding that the applicant is less than

- (i) twenty-five years, if the applicant is the mother of the infant; or
- (ii) eighteen years older than the infant, if the applicant and the infant are within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity, or if the application is made by or on behalf of two spouses jointly and the wife is the mother of the infant or the husband is the putative father of the infant.

(2) An adoption order shall not be made in any case where the sole applicant is a male and the infant in respect of whom the application is made is a female unless the Court is satisfied that there are special circumstances which justify as an exceptional measure the making of an adoption order.

(3) An adoption order shall not be made except with the consent of every person or body who is a parent or guardian of the infant in respect of whom the application is made or who has the actual custody of the infant or who is liable to contribute to the support of the infant:

Provided that the Court may dispense with any consent required by this subsection if satisfied that the person whose consent is to be dispensed with has abandoned or deserted the infant or cannot be found or is incapable of giving such consent or, being a person liable to contribute to the support of the infant, either has persistently neglected or refused to contribute to such support or is a person whose consent ought, in the opinion of the Court and in all the circumstances of the case, to be dispensed with.

(4) An adoption order shall not be made upon the application of one of two spouses without the consent of the other of them:

Provided that the Court may dispense with any consent required by this subsection if satisfied that the person whose consent is to be dispensed with cannot be found or is incapable of giving such consent or that the spouses have separated and are living apart and that the separation is likely to be permanent.

(5) An adoption order shall not be made in respect of any infant who is not a citizen of Saint Christopher and Nevis or of any Commonwealth country and who is not resident in Saint Christopher and Nevis.

[Substituted by Act 3/1987 and amended by Act 6/1987]

4. Matters with respect to which Court to be satisfied.

The Court before making an adoption order shall be satisfied

- (a) that every person whose consent is necessary under this Act and whose consent is not dispensed with has consented to and understands the nature and effect of the adoption order for which application is made, and in particular, in the case of any parent, understands that the effect of the adoption order will be permanently to deprive him or her of his or her parental rights;
- (b) that the order if made will be for the welfare of the infant, due consideration being for this purpose given to the wishes of the infant, having regard to the age and understanding of the infant; and
- (c) that the applicant has not received or agreed to receive, and that no person has made or given, or agreed to make or give to the applicant, any payment or other reward in consideration of the adoption except such as the Court may sanction.

5. Terms and conditions of order.

The Court, in an adoption order, may impose such terms and conditions as the Court may think fit and, in particular, may require the adopter by bond or otherwise to make for the adopted child such provision (if any) as in the opinion of the Court is just and expedient.

6. Effect of adoption order.

(1) Upon an adoption order being made, all rights, duties, obligations and liabilities of the parent or parents, guardian or guardians of the adopted child, in relation to the future custody, maintenance and education of the adopted child, including all rights to appoint a guardian or to consent or give notice of dissent to marriage shall be extinguished, and all such rights, duties, obligations and liabilities shall vest in and be exercisable by and enforceable against the adopter as though the adopted child was a child born to the adopter, and in respect of the same matters and in respect of the liability of a child to maintain its parents the adopted child shall stand to the adopter exclusively in the position of a child born to the adopter:

Provided that, in any case where two spouses are the adopters, such spouses shall in respect of the matters aforesaid and for the purpose of the jurisdiction of the Court to make orders as to the custody and maintenance of and right of access to children stand to each other and to the adopted child in the same relation as they would have stood if they had been the lawful father and mother of the adopted child, and the adopted child shall stand to them respectively in the same relation as a child would have stood to a lawful father and mother respectively.

[Amended by Act 19/1983]

(2) An adoption order shall not deprive the adopted child of any right to or interest in property to which, but for the order, the child would have been entitled under any intestacy or disposition, whether occurring or made before or after the making of the adoption order, or confer on the adopted child any right to or interest in property as a child of the adopter, and the expressions "child", "children" and "issue" where used in any disposition whether made before or after the making of an adoption order, shall not, unless the contrary intention appears, include an adopted child or children or the issue of an adopted child.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "disposition" means an assurance of any interest in property by any instrument whether inter vivos or by will including codicil.

(4) For the purposes of section 57 of the Friendly Societies Act, Cap. 18.14 which enables a Friendly Society to insure money to be paid for funeral expenses, and section 58 of the said Act, which restricts the persons to whom money may be paid on the death of a child under the age of ten years, the adopter shall be deemed to be the parent of the child; and where before the adoption order was made any such insurance had been effected by the natural parent of the child, the rights and liabilities under the policy shall by virtue of the adoption order be transferred to the adopter, and the adopter shall, for the purposes of the said enactment, be treated as the person who took out the policy.

7. Power to make interim orders.

(1) Upon any application for an adoption order, the Court may postpone the determination of the application and may make an interim order (which shall not be an adoption order for the purposes of this Act) giving the custody of the infant to the applicant for a period not exceeding two-years by way of a probationary period upon such terms as regards provision for the maintenance and education and supervision of the welfare of the infant and otherwise as the Court may think fit.

(2) All such consents as are required to an adoption order shall be necessary to an interim order but subject to a like power on the part of the Court to dispense with any such consent.

8. Power to make subsequent order in respect of infant already subject to an order.

An adoption order or an interim order may be made in respect of an infant who has already been the subject of an adoption order, and, upon any application for such further adoption order, the adopter or adopters under the adoption order last previously made shall, if living, be deemed to be the parent or parents of the infant for all the purposes of this Act.

9. Jurisdiction and procedure.

(1) The Court having jurisdiction to make adoption orders under this Act shall be the High Court.

(2) Rules in regard to any matter to be prescribed under this Act and directing the manner in which applications to the Court are to be made and dealing generally with all matters of procedure and incidental matters arising out of this Act and for carrying this Act into effect shall be made by the Chief Justice.

(3) Such rules may provide for applications for adoption orders being heard and determined otherwise than in open Court.

(4) For the purposes of any application under this Act and subject to any rules under this section, the Court shall appoint some person or body to act as guardian ad litem of the infant upon the hearing of the application with the duty of safeguarding the interests of the infant before the Court.

10. Restriction on payments.

It shall not be lawful for any adopter or for any parent or guardian except with the sanction of the Court to receive any payment or other reward in consideration of the adoption of any infant under this Act or for any person to make or give or agree to make or give to any adopter or to any parent or guardian any such payment or reward.

11. Provisions as to existing de facto adoptions.

Where at the date of the commencement of this Act any infant is in the custody of, and being brought up, maintained and educated by any person or two spouses jointly as his, her or their own child under any de facto adoption, and has for a period of not less than two years before such commencement been in such custody, and been so brought up, maintained and educated, the Court may, upon the application of such person or spouses, and notwithstanding that the applicant is a male and the infant a female, make an adoption order authorising him, her or them to adopt the infant without requiring the consent of any parent or guardian of the infant to be obtained, upon being satisfied that in all the circumstances of the case it is just and equitable and for the welfare of the infant that no such consent should be required and that an adoption order should be made.

12. Adopted Children Register.

(1) The Registrar-General shall establish and maintain at his or her office a register to be called the Adopted Children Register, in which shall be made such entries as may be directed to be made therein by adoption orders, but no other entries.

(2) Every adoption order shall contain a direction to the Registrar-General to make in the Adopted Children Register an entry recording the adoption in the form set out in the First Schedule.

(3) If, upon any application for an adoption order, there is proved to the satisfaction of the Court

- (a) the date of the birth of the infant; and
- (b) the identity of the infant with a child to which any entry or entries in the Register of Births relates;

the adoption order shall contain a further direction to the Registrar-General to cause such birth, entry or entries in the Register of Births, to be marked with the word "Adopted", and to include in the entry in the adoption register recording the adoption the date stated in the order of the adopted child's birth in the manner indicated in the First Schedule.

(4) The prescribed officer of the Court shall cause every adoption order to be communicated in the prescribed manner to the Registrar-General, and upon receipt of such communication the Registrar-General shall cause compliance to be made with the directions contained in such order in regard both to marking any entry in the Register of Births with the word "Adopted", and in regard to making the appropriate entry in the Adopted Children Register.

(5) A certified copy of any entry in the Adopted Children Register if purporting to be sealed or stamped with the seal of the Registrar-General's Office shall, without any further or other proof of such entry

- (a) where the entry does not contain any record of the date of the birth of the adopted child, be received as evidence of the adoption to which the same relates; and
- (b) where the entry contains a record of the date of the birth of the adopted child, be received not only as evidence of the adoption to which the same relates but also as evidence of the date of the birth of the adopted child to which the same relates in all respects as though the same were a certified copy of an entry in the Register of Births.

(6) The Registrar-General shall cause an index of the Adopted Children Register to be made and kept in his or her office, and every person shall be entitled to search such index and to have a certified copy of any entry in the Adopted Children Register in all respects upon, and subject to the same terms, conditions and regulations as to payment of fees and otherwise as are applicable under the laws for the time being in force in the State in respect of searches in other indexes kept in such office, and in respect of the supply from such office of certified copies of entries in the Registers of Births and Deaths.

(2) Any notice under these rules shall be served upon any respondent to whom it is addressed either by delivering a copy to him or her personally or by leaving a copy with some person for him or her at his or her last known or usual place of abode or by sending a copy by registered post to him or her at his or her last known or usual place of abode, whether such place of abode is in the State or elsewhere:

7. Hearing in Camera.

Every application under the Act shall be heard and determined in camera.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an adoption order or an interim order shall not be made except after the personal attendance before the Court of the applicant, the child and the parent or guardian of the child; notwithstanding in the case of the parent or guardian that written consent has been obtained or that the Court is asked to dispense with the consent.

(2) The Court may waive the requirement under paragraph (1) of this rule,

(a) in the case of the child, if satisfied that special circumstances exist which render it inexpedient or unnecessary that the child shall personally attend before the Court;

(b) in the case of any other person, if satisfied that he or she cannot be found or is incapable of giving consent or that in view of any other special circumstances it is right that this requirement should be waived.

(3) In any case where the Court dispenses with the personal attendance of any person other than the child, the written consent of that person verified by a declaration purporting to be made before and signed by a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner of Oaths shall be prima facie evidence of such consent.

(4) In the case of a joint application for an adoption order or an interim order the Court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the personal attendance of one spouse if his or her application be verified by a declaration purporting to be made before and signed by a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner of Oaths.

9. Separate Examination.

Subject to the provisions of this rule and of rules 8 (4) and 12 (3) (b), the Court may direct that the applicant or any respondent shall attend and be heard and examined separately and apart from the other parties to the application:

Provided that no such direction shall be given unless

- (a) the Court is satisfied that the giving of the direction is desirable and will not prejudice the determination of any question involved; and
- (b) the consent of the applicant or respondent to whom it is proposed that the direction shall be given and of all other parties to the application is first obtained.

10. Notice to Absent Respondent.

On any adjournment of the hearing, the Court may issue to any respondent not in attendance a notice of the time and place to which the hearing is adjourned and may direct the applicant to cause it to be served.

11. Drawing up of Orders.

(2) No copy or duplicate of such order shall be given to or served upon any person other than the applicant and the Registrar except by special direction of the Court.

(3) An interim order shall include such provision for the maintenance and education of the child and such terms as regards the exercise of supervision by some fit and proper person appointed by the Court.

12. Further Hearing after Interim Order.

(1) Where the determination of an application has been postponed and an interim order has been made, the applicant shall at least two months before the expiration of the order apply to the Court to proceed with the determination of the application and it shall thereupon be lawful for the Court to fix a time for the further hearing of the application and to issue a notice in Form H set out in the Schedule to these Rules, addressed to the respondents and to direct the applicant to cause such notice to be served on each of them:

Provided that where the child is in the actual custody of the applicant the notice need not be served on the child.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this rule, where the applicant so applies, an adoption order shall not be made unless the applicant and the child have attended the further hearing.

(3) The Court may waive the requirement under paragraph (2) in the case of the child if satisfied that special circumstances exist which render it expedient or unnecessary that the child shall personally attend before the Court.

(4) In the case of a joint application the Court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the personal attendance of one spouse, if his or her application be verified by a declaration purporting to be made before, and signed by, a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner of Oaths.

13. Costs.

On the making of an interim order or on the determination of the application the Court may make such order as to costs as it may think just, and in particular may order the applicant to pay the out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the guardian ad litem or incurred in attending the Court by any other of the respondents, or such part thereof as the Court thinks proper.

14. Copy of Adoption Order to be sent to Registrar-General.

(1) Upon the making of an adoption order, the Registrar of the Court shall within seven days from the date thereof send a duplicate or a certified copy of the order to the Registrar-General of the State and shall also, subject to the payment by the applicant of any fee required by law, deliver or send a duplicate or certified copy to the applicant.

(2) The duplicate or certified copy, if sent by post, shall be sent by registered post.

15. Application of Rules of High Court.

Subject to the foregoing rules, the Rules of the High Court shall apply in respect of all proceedings under the Act.
