

CARIBBEAN STUDIES 1991-1992

Alexander, Jacinta A

English linguistics and education transforming the society: three works by Earl Lovelace

Alleyne, Michael

Alien in the village: dislocation of identity in selected West Indian Narratives

Applewhite, Thyra D

The characterization of the female in the works of selected Puerto Rican writers

Applewhaite, Everton D

The social disturbances in Barbados in the 1930's: an analysis of the resultant structural changes by 1951

Archer, Graham

To protect and serve: the role of the Royal Barbados Police Force during the colonial era

Arthur, Pamela

Festivals and the entertainment culture of slaves in the British Caribbean

Berkley, Claude

A Church at the crossroads: an overview of the Anglican Church in Tobago as it moves toward the twenty-first century

Blackman, Catherine V

An investigation into the nature of childhood deviant phonology and the role of the teacher in assisting the child to overcome speech articulation problems

Bloice, Urlene A

A lexical study of the Kittitian dialect

Blunt, Cheryl P

Race and Class in the Development of West Indies Cricket 1945-65

Boyce, Cecily B

The effects on the Barbados peasantry of factory locational rationalization in the sugar industry, 1970-1990, with reference to St. Andrew and St. Joseph

Brome, Richard E

The views of adolescents on gangs and hostile youth in Barbados

Brown, Elphege

The St. Lucian folk tradition in Derek Walcott's Drama: a study of Walcott's use of the St. Lucian Oral tradition in Ti Jean and His Brothers and Dream on Monkey Mountain

Clarke, Clovine Patricia

Barbadian Anglican clergymen as slave owners: a social, political and economic view of the lives of reverend Henry Evans Holder and to a lesser extent the Honourable and Reverends Robert and John Brathwaite 1650 - 1850

Clarke, Sandra R

The Historical and Sociological Factors Contributing to Emigration and Immigration (Barbados) from the 1960s to 1985

Clauzel, Sylvester H

A comparative analysis of the factors giving rise to the collapse of the new Jewel Movement Revolution in Grenada (1983) and the St. Lucia Labour Party government (1982)

Collymore, John C

The influence of race and colour (in Barbados) on law and order 1914-37

Corbin, Oswald Dac

The social and economic roles of village shops as illustrated in a case study of Todds and Macaroni Villages, St. George 1930-1990

Cox, Marcella

The anti-apartheid movement in Barbados

Daniel, Roger A

The social outreach programme at St. Barnabas Anglican church

De Costa, Rosamond

The Social Impact of Tourism Development on St. Kitts- Nevis 1980 – 1990

Farley, Mary V

The growth and development of the Christian Mission Church in Barbados 1969-1980

Fraser, Lorna A

Literature, Self and Society: The Ontological Dilemma in Wuthering Heights, Tender Is the Night and Myal

Gale, Wilton S

Some socio-legal implication of the growth and development of the life insurance industry in Barbados

Griffith, Ashley

The killing of the childhood

Hack, Vanessa

Teachers' attitude and juvenile delinquency

Hinds, Olivia A

Impact on pupils of specialization in social studies in primary schools

Holder, Selvin

Programmes, policies and politics: a critical assessment of the Barbados Youth Council

Horsford, Lana A

Anguilla 1967-1992: An assessment

Husbands, Alva Dec

A study of economic activity and pattern in the St. Andrew Parish of Barbados

John, Leonora E

Growth and change in the poetry of John Robert Lee

Jones, Livingstone O

An investigation into the importance of mathematical language when teaching mathematical problems to the 9-19 age groups in some Barbadian primary schools

Joseph, Tennyson

Socialism in the Anglophone Caribbean from the 1970's to present day. A dialectical analysis of the changing circumstance and utility of socialism as an ideology in the English Speaking Caribbean

King, Cliff

Childhood: a socio-political metaphor in selected West Indian novels

Manners, Chesley

Aventures de Guerre Aux Antilles by Gabriel Debien

Mapp, Janice R

The development of classroom language in the 4-6 age groups

McClellan-Grant, Cleopatra

The rise of the merchant class from the period 1840-1946

Moore, Cynthia Y

Some aspects of family life among youth in Barbados

Parris, Loleta G

The Barbados Public Library: an analysis of the changing nature of its services

Persad, Rajiv

To what extent did the planters use legislation as a tool to limit the social and economic development of the ex-slaves in post-emancipation Trinidad (1834 – 1860)

Pollard, Valerie A

The symbolic importance of the landscape in selected French Caribbean novels

Reid, Ronald

The National Cultural Foundation: history, structure and role

Reifer, Caroline

The creole/mulatto eye: the vision of seeing both sides

Richards Priscilla A

Wilson Harris and the novel of fulfillment: Palace of the Peacock, The Whole Armour and The Secret Ladder

Richardson, Lucia A

A comparative study of the proverbs of St. Christopher/Nevis and Jamaica

Salankey, Paul

A history of the role women in Barbados in electoral politics, 1951-91

Sifflet, June C

Housing policy in St. Lucia

Skeete, Glendine

Perceptions of race relations on the eve of independence (1930's-1966)

Skeete, Jacqueline V

The emergence of the Spiritual Baptists as a means of bestowing benefits to underprivileged members of society

Small, Pamela G

A study to investigate some procedures that would facilitate the teaching of Standard English as a second dialect to beginners (4-5 year olds) at primary school level in Barbados

Smith, Carla C

Childhood as mask: a critical analysis of Beka lamb, Annie John and The year in San Fernando

Smith, Julian C

The applicability of the political philosophy of Frantz Fanon to Barbados 1936-1966

Sobers, Morris E

The primary school head: a historical perspective

Squires, Sonnia V

The nature of relations between politics and trade unionism in Barbados over the past sixty years

Stoute, Lionel H

St. Philip through the lens: a history of St. Philip in the 17th and 18th centuries

Taylor, Sharon J

The female voice as subversive device

Thomas, Shirley P J

Analysis of materials and tasks used to develop comprehension in a selected primary school

Walcott, Rhonda J

A song of innocence and experience: a study of the work of Jamaica Kincaid

Walkes, Cheryl B

Effects on Teacher and Pupils of Teacher Allocation to Classes

Walkes-Stuart, Cheryl

Decision making, teacher morale and student academics achievement

Warner, Esther

The role of the Sunday schools on the moral development of children

Welsh, Sybil

Caribbean literature by Emilio Jorge Rodriguez

Williams, Sonia A

St. Ursula's: the history of an elite girl's school in Barbados (1984-1980)

Wilson, Marlon S

Race, class and cricket in Barbados (1900-1980)

Wright, Philip S

The Anglican Church and the Spanish-speaking community in Belize