

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES
CAVE HILL CAMPUS, BARBADOS, WEST INDIES

Faculty of Social Sciences Handbook 2018-2019

The Faculty of Social Sciences Undergraduate Handbook is provided for the convenience of students. It sets out the Faculty's regulations governing the programmes offered; important guidelines; information on the courses offered at Cave Hill Campus and at the Centre for Hotel and Tourism Management, Nassau (Bahamas).

The current edition was finalized on July 31, 2018. A concerted effort was made to eliminate all errors but students must check with their department at the start of the semester and during the course of the academic year for updates as well as corrections of any errors or omissions that have come to light subsequent to the finalization of the Handbook. Students should always check with the latest Faculty Handbook when considering programme alternatives and for course offerings

DEAN'S REMARKS

The Faculty of Social Sciences at the U.W.I. Cave Hill extends a warm Caribbean welcome to all new and continuing students as we commence academic year 2018/2019. At the U.W.I. Cave Hill we think of the Campus as a vehicle; a potent tool for the personal and professional development of Caribbean people, and persons from the wider global community who choose to pursue studies with us. As with the turning of any calendar page, we have lots to look back on with gratitude and much to look forward to with anticipation and excitement. The anticipation and excitement is justified because after fifty years of existence (we are in our 51st year) the campus is institutionally accredited, boasts a world class teaching staff, an unmatched academic quality assurance system, a record of high quality and relevant research, and modern, sophisticated and beautiful infrastructure. The Cave Hill Campus represents a unique partnership between Caribbean governments, Caribbean citizens, the private sector and the international community to provide you with a pathway to personal development. This campus was created for you the students. It is focused on you and your personal and professional development; it is your place to shine.

As I welcome you, the latest entrants to the U.W.I.'s tradition of excellence I want to say to you that at the U.W.I. we are focused on your development as global citizens of competence, conscience, and compassion ready to excel on the world stage in your chosen area. At the U.W.I., the most enduring of West Indian institutions we take our motto, "Bright Lights Rising in the West" seriously and we project that onto our students. We expect, require, and even demand excellence from you, as you should from us. There is an old saying that a little knowledge is a bad thing. Here we expect you to drink deeply from the cup of knowledge and savour the taste.

As another new academic year dawns, Caribbean countries are into the seventh year of adjusting to changed economic circumstances associated with what has been dubbed "the great recession" that began in 2007. Caribbean nations, like so many others around the world continue to grapple with the adverse effects of this deep and prolonged recession and the tortured economic recovery. The University and the Faculty have been adversely impacted by this phenomenon and no doubt a number of you have also been personally impacted. The Faculty of Social Sciences, your Faculty, whether you are in the Department of Economics, Government, Sociology & Social Work or Cave Hill School of Business & Management, is at the centre of the debate as to the crafting of solutions to the varied issues that confront us and the world. We expect you as students to engage wholeheartedly with these issues as we craft a brighter future for you, the campus, the region and the world.

Justin Robinson, Ph.D.

Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences

GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN THE FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

Definition of Terms

Advising Hold	An Advising Hold may be placed on a student record to indicate that the student must get academic advising prior to registration
Anti-Requisites	Refers to courses where content overlap precludes courses being taken together for credit. Students are urged to view the listings in this handbook and consult their department for guidance
Core or compulsory courses	Courses that students must complete in order to be awarded a degree
Credit	Refers to a unit of study counting towards a degree or diploma. Undergraduate courses in the Faculty normally carry a weighting of three (3) credits. A number of courses, however, carry a weighting of six (6) credits.
Exemption with credit	Refers to cases where a student is granted exemption from UWI courses because the student has already passed courses in other programmes at UWI or passed courses of similar content at other recognized institutions. Students are not required to take replacement courses.
Free electives	Courses which are optional in the degree programme concerned and may be selected from any department or faculty. Please note that Level I courses cannot be used as electives in Level II/III of the programme.
Level I, Level II & Level III	Represents the different standard of courses that must be completed in the undergraduate degree programme. Each level is designated by the first numeral in the course code. Levels II and III courses are equally weighted for the assessment of class of degree
Pre-requisites	Courses which must be completed before registration for another course is permitted

QUALIFICATIONS FOR ADMISSION

- 1.1 Before registration and before beginning courses in the Faculty the candidate must have satisfied the University Matriculation requirements for entry to a degree programme (See University Matriculation requirements - UWI Calendar Vol II Part II).

Set out below, however, are the minimum requirements for full-time (3 years) and part-time (4 years) admission to the Bachelor of Sciences degree programmes in the Faculty. Admission to all degree programmes in the Faculty will be on a competitive basis. Therefore, the fulfilment of the mandatory minimum requirements does not guarantee admission.

English Language Proficiency Test (ELPT)

- 1.2 All applicants to the University of the West Indies are required to sit the English Language Proficiency Test (ELPT) to determine their level of entry to FOUN1001 Exposition for Academic Purposes or FOUN1008 Rhetoric II: Writing for Special Purposes.
- 1.3 Applicants for entry into Economics, Accounting, Management Studies, Psychology and Statistics (Mona) degree options (specialization and majors) are required to have a minimum of a Grade III pass in CXC (General) Mathematics or a qualification deemed by Faculty Board to be equivalent.

Exemption with Credit

- 1.4 The following list of automatic exemptions are entered for students in the Faculty of Social Sciences only. Exemptions are subject to the discretion of the Faculty and qualifications may be deemed to be obsolete by the Faculty Board. Students who wish to apply for exemptions outside of the programmes and equivalent courses listed below may do so by submitting an exemption form to the Faculty Office. If the qualification was obtained from an external university the student would need to supply the relevant course outlines so that the courses may be assessed.

(iii) From Other Universities

- (a) A student entering from another university to read for a UWI degree will have to do a minimum of two years full-time study or 60 credits.
- (b) Unless departments already have a record of the particular courses, course outlines are to be submitted for departments to make an assessment. Any course approved by departments will earn students exemption with credit from UWI equivalent courses up to the limit indicated by (a) above.
- (c) Exemption without credit may be granted for the course(s) in excess of the limit indicated.

1.5 Students Pursuing Study Abroad

(a) Exchange programme

Students who seek to do part of their programme at another university – a maximum of two semesters which must not include the final semester of full time study – must have the courses they intend to do at the overseas university assessed for equivalence and approved by the relevant department at Cave Hill before proceeding abroad. The request to study abroad and the course(s) approved by the department must then be submitted through the Dean's Office to obtain Academic Board approval.

When students' results are received from the overseas university, they will receive credit for the courses as substitutes as approved by the Academic Board. The grade recorded will be the grade received and assessed and approved by the Academic Board as the equivalent of that awarded by the examining university.

TRANSFERS

Inter and Intra Faculty Transfers

- 2.1 Students in another Faculty who have completed Level I of a degree programme of the University of the West Indies are eligible for transfer to the Level II of a degree programme offered by a Faculty of Social Sciences. Such students must, at the time of transfer, have passed courses which satisfy the Level I requirements of the Faculty of Social Sciences as well as the pre-requisites of the relevant courses of the programme into which the transfer is sought. Transfers are offered to students who have acquired a strong Level I record. (B+ average and above)
- 2.2 Students registered in the Faculty of Social Sciences on another Campus who have completed Level I of a degree programme are eligible for transfer to Level II in the Faculty of Social Sciences Cave Hill Campus
- 2.3 Transfer may also be offered to any student registered in any other Faculty of the University of the West Indies and who has successfully completed the Level I prerequisites to Levels II & III courses in the area of intended major or special and has also completed the required Foundation Course(s).
- 2.4 Consideration for transfer will not be given to students in the year they were accepted to the Faculty. Students may, upon receipt of an offer from the Admission Office, choose to reject that initial offer and immediately request their desired Major.
- 2.5 Students approved for transfer must pursue the programme requirements outlined in the Handbook for the year approval was granted.
- 2.6 For transfer to the Level II of a degree programme offered by the Faculty of Social Sciences (Mona), students registered prior to 1998-99 may include among the courses passed Essentials in English (UC010, UC001) or Use of English (UC120).

COURSE OF STUDY

3. Candidates for any of the degree programmes must pursue a course of study comprising at least 90 credits at least 30 credits at Level I and at least 60 credits at Levels II and III. The Faculty Board may require that the timing of registration in particular courses be such as to ensure that the course of study extends over either at least five (5) semesters and two (2) summer school sessions or six (6) semesters.

LEVEL I REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1 Students MUST complete ALL the requirements for Level I and Level II/III of their degree programme as indicated here.

Level I consists of a minimum of 30 credits or ten 3-credit Level I courses, depending on the choice of degree i.e. a single major, a double major, one major and one or two minors or a special. The choice made will determine whether or not additional courses must be taken.

Requirements for Level I of the degree are as follows:

- (a) Three (3) University foundation courses
- (b) Pre-requisites for Level II courses and/or free electives
- (c) Any other courses designated by the respective departments which are not included in the above.

UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION COURSES

- 4.2 As of 1998-99 all students registered in the University of the West Indies will be required to complete a minimum of 9 credits of Foundation Courses including MGMT 1000 Introduction to Computers.

Foundation courses are University courses and they are designed to promote sensitivity to and awareness of distinctive characteristic features of Caribbean cosmologies, identities and cultures.

- i. FOUN 1008 An Introduction to Professional Writing
 - ii. FOUN 1210 Science, Medicine and Technology in Society
 - iii. FOUN 1101 Caribbean Civilization
 - iv. FOUN 1301 Law, Governance, Economy and Society
 - v. FOUN1006 Exposition for Academic Purposes
 - vi. Any other course approved for the purpose by the Board of Undergraduate Studies
- (b) Students registered in the Faculty of Social Sciences will be required to include among such Foundation Courses FOUN 1008 An Introduction to Professional Writing or FOUN 1006 Exposition for Academic Purposes.
- (c) The elective Foundation course, FOUN 1301 Law, Governance, Economy and Society, will not count for credit in the programme of the Faculty of Social Sciences except with the permission of the Dean.
- (d) Exemption in whole or in part from the requirements under [4.2(a- b)] may be granted from time to time by the Board for Undergraduate Studies.

Appendix

REPLACING A FOUNDATION COURSE WITH A FOREIGN LANGUAGE COURSE

Students in the Faculty of Social Sciences may replace FOUN1101 Caribbean Civilization or FOUN1210 Science Medicine and Technology with a foreign language course in French, Spanish, Portuguese or Chinese.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ENTRY TO LEVELS II AND III

5. Students are required to satisfy pre-requisites for Levels II and III courses.
A minimum of twenty-four credits at Level I including eight core courses is required to progress to Level II.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE AWARD OF THE DEGREE

- 6.1 In order to qualify for the award of a degree a student must:
- Have completed a minimum of 90 credits (normally equivalent to 30 semester courses)
 - Have completed at least thirty credits from Level I semester courses (including the Foundation Course requirement), and at least sixty credits from Levels II and III semester courses
 - Students registering for more than twenty Level II/III courses must indicate in writing which of the additional courses are “not for credit at the time of registration”. Students will not be permitted to register for “not for credit” courses after satisfying the requirements for the award of the degree.
 - Have satisfied the requirements for their specific degree programmes.
- 6.2 Degrees are offered in the following categories:
- Special
 - Major

- Three minors (restricted to B.Sc. Social Sciences)

A student must be formally registered in one of these programme options:

- A special comprises a minimum of forty-five (45) credits in the subject area at Levels II and III.
- A major comprises a minimum of thirty (30) credits in the subject area at Levels II and III.
- A double major comprises a minimum of thirty (30) credits each in two (2) subject areas at Levels II and III.
- A minor comprises a minimum of fifteen (15) credits in the subject area at Levels II and III. A major/minor comprises a minimum of thirty (30) Levels II and III credits in the subject area of the major and fifteen (15) Levels II and III credits in the minor.

- 6.3.4 The degree majors with which the above minors may be combined will be approved by the Faculty Board and Board for Undergraduate Studies and listed as programme offerings in the Faculty Handbook.
- 6.3.5 Students may also request to combine a Social Science major with a minor offered by another Faculty. To do this, the permission of the Deans of both Faculties must be sought and obtained.
- 6.3.6 A student may with the permission of the Dean change any major, special or minor for which that student is registered.

REGULATIONS FOR FULL-TIME PROGRAMME

7. A full-time student:
- (a) Shall complete the degree programme in not more than eleven (11) semesters and five (5) summer school sessions;
 - (b) Will unless Academic Board approves otherwise on the recommendation of Faculty Board be required to register for ten (10) semester courses in any one year and five (5) semester courses in any one semester. Permission may be sought for not more than one additional course per semester by any student who needs that one course for completion of the requirements for the degree or who has been awarded a grade of A as the examination mark for more than half of the courses for which that student has been examined when registered in the Faculty.
 - (c) Will be required to withdraw from the Faculty unless he/she has gained at least:
 - fifteen (15) credits at the end of the second semester
 - thirty-three (33) credits at the end of the fourth semester
 - fifty-one (51) credits at the end of the sixth semester
 - sixty-nine (69) credits at the end of the eighth semester

N.B. Credits gained from courses done in another programme will not be counted towards the rate of progress.

REGULATIONS FOR PART-TIME PROGRAMME

- 8.
- (a) A part-time programme is offered for Level I of the B.Sc. degree at Cave Hill Campus. Level II and III are available in all programmes offered at the Cave Hill Campus.
 - (b) The Faculty Board may require that the timing of registration in particular courses be such as to ensure that the course of study for the Level I programme extends over at least three (3) semesters inclusive of one (1) summer school session.
 - (c) A part-time student will be required to withdraw from the Faculty unless he/she has gained:
 - six (6) credits at the end of the second semester
 - eighteen (18) credits at the end of the fourth semester
 - twenty-four (24) credits at the end of the sixth semester
 - thirty-nine (39) credits at the end of the eighth semester
 - fifty-four (54) credits at the end of the tenth semester
 - seventy-two (72) credits at the end of twelfth semester
 - ninety (90) credits at the end of the fourteenth semester
 - (d) Part-time students shall usually be expected to register for a maximum of 18 credits (6 courses) in any one year and a maximum of 9 credits (3 courses) in any one semester.
 - (e) A part-time student may be allowed to register for twenty-one (21) credits if he/she has maintained a minimum GPA of 3.3. Finalizing part-time students may also be allowed to register for 21 credits.

- (f) Part-time in the Faculty is defined by a student's work load per semester and does not mean evening studies. While some Level I courses are offered in the evening, the majority of the courses at Levels II and III are taught during the day only. Thus, students registered part-time must be prepared to attend classes between 8 a.m. and 9 p.m.

- (g) Once a Part-time student transfers into the Full-time programme, he/she is required to maintain the rate of progress mandated for the Full-time programme.

N.B. Credits gained from courses done in another programme will not be counted towards the rate of progress.

REGULATIONS FOR GPA STUDENTS

- (a) Except where otherwise prescribed in Faculty Regulations, a student whose GPA for a given semester is less than or equal to 2.00 shall be deemed to be performing unsatisfactorily, and shall be placed on warning. A student on warning whose GPA for the succeeding semester is less than 2.00 will be required to withdraw.
- (b) A student on warning shall be counselled by the Dean or a designated faculty advisor. Such a student may, except where otherwise prescribed in Faculty Regulations, be permitted by the Academic Board on the recommendation of Faculty Board to carry a reduced course load.

REGISTRATION/EXAMINATIONS

10.

- a. Students will be examined during each semester and the summer session in the courses for which they are registered.
- b. A course may be examined by one or more of the following methods:
- (i) written examination papers
 - (ii) oral (under the conditions in Regulation 11 below)
 - (iii) practical examinations
 - (iv) coursework (which may include written in-course tests, practical work, dissertations, essays, projects, studies and other forms of coursework exercises as approved by the Faculty Board, or the Campus Committee on Examinations as appropriate).
- c. A student failing a course may subject to the rate of progress requirements of these Regulations be allowed to substitute another approved course in a subsequent semester or repeat the failed course.
- d. All optional courses (electives) listed in the various degree programmes in the Faculty Handbook will not necessarily be available in any one year.
- e. Deadlines for changes of registration including withdrawal from or addition of courses will be as prescribed in University Regulations.
- f. Registration for a course constitutes registration for the examination in that course.
- g. A student who does not take an examination in a course for which he/she is registered is deemed to have failed that examination unless permission to be absent has been granted.
- h. A student who, on grounds of illness or in other special circumstances as referred to in Examination Regulations fails to take an examination in a course for which he/ she is registered, may be given special consideration by the Board of Examiners to take examination at the next available opportunity, without penalty.
- i. Students are asked to pay special attention to Examination Regulation which states:
- “Any candidate who has been absent from the University for a prolonged period during the year for any reason other than illness or whose attendance at prescribed lecturers, classes, practical classes, tutorial or clinical instructions has been unsatisfactory or who has failed to submit essays or other exercises set by his teachers may be debarred by the relevant Academic Board, on the recommendation of the relevant Faculty Board, from taking any University examinations.”

ORAL EXAMINATIONS FOR FINAL YEAR STUDENTS

- (a) The Board of Examiners may recommend to the Department concerned that a student who has failed the last one or two courses(s) required to complete the degree be offered an Oral Examination in that one or those two courses provided that he/she has obtained in each instance a mark of at least 45% for the course(s).
If an Oral Examination is granted the student may choose to decline the offer.
- (b) The Oral Examination, which will be of maximum length of one hour, will be held as soon as possible after the previous examination and within the academic year in which the student is expected to graduate. The student must contact the department concerned immediately so that arrangements may be made for the Oral Examination.
- (c) The Oral Examination will concern the course as a whole, and not be restricted to the questions set in the examination which the student did. The First Examiner and at least one other must be present at an Oral Examination.
- (d) If the examination is passed, the student cannot be awarded a grade higher than 50 - C and this grade will replace that previously gained for the entire evaluation in that course.
- (e) If he/she fails the Oral, the student will not have any right of appeal or review.
- (f) A student will be allowed only one Oral Examination for any one Course.

EXAMINATIONS ONLY

12.

- (a) Final year students failing one or two (but no more than two) courses may apply to register for “Exams Only” in the course(s).
- (b) The candidate’s assessment will be based entirely on the examinations which will count for 100%.

COURSEWORK

- (a) In the case of examination by coursework only a student gaining an overall mark higher than 50% but passing in only one component will be required to repeat at the next available sitting the component that was failed.
- (b) A student who is absent from a coursework examination may apply to the Dean of the Faculty for exemption from this examination no later than one (1) week following the date of this examination. He/she must at the same time submit to the Campus Registrar justification for such absence (such as, in case of illness, a medical certificate complying with any applicable Examination Regulations). The Dean shall consider any such request for exemption in consultation with the relevant Head of Department and course lecturer. If the exemption is granted, the candidate’s assessment will be based entirely on the final examination.
- (c) A student may request to submit coursework assignments, essays, etc. after the stipulated deadline date on the basis of appropriate justification (such as, in case of illness, a medical certificate complying with any applicable Examination Regulations). This request must be made within 48 hours after the stipulated deadline date and must be addressed to the Dean, who in consultation with the relevant Head of Department and course lecturer may allow the extension. The Dean, acting on advice of the relevant Head of Department and course lecturers, may consider requests for extension of the coursework assignment, essays etc. If the extension is not granted the student will not be given any special consideration and will be graded based on both coursework and final examination.
- (d) If a student misses an examination for medical reasons or other extenuating circumstance approved by the Board of Examiners, he/she will be obliged to register again for the full course. However the Faculty may allow the student’s coursework/mid-term marks (if the coursework is within one academic year) to be applied and he/she will only have to attend classes and write the final examination.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- (a) A candidate who for good reason wishes to be absent from an academic programme for a semester or more must apply for formal leave of absence to the Campus Faculty Board, through the appropriate Dean, stating the reason for the application.
- (b) The length of such leave of absence, if granted, will be subject to approval by the Academic Board of the Campus concerned, but will not exceed one academic year in the first instance terminating at the end of the academic year for which the application is approved.
- (c) Leave of absence will not be granted for more than two consecutive academic years.
- (d) Leave of absence may be granted for one semester or for an academic year.
- (e) Applications for leave of absence for a semester shall normally be submitted by the end of the third week of the relevant semester.
- (f) Applications for leave of absence for the academic year shall normally be submitted the end of the third week of semester I.

Note: Students who have been attending classes and then apply for Leave of Absence after the deadline date are liable for payment of full tuition fees for the semester/academic year whether they sit examinations or not.

- (a) A student whose GPA for a given semester is less than or equal to 2.00 shall be deemed to be performing unsatisfactorily, and shall be placed on warning. A student on warning whose GPA for the succeeding semester is less than 2.00 will be Required to Withdraw (RTW).
- (b) A candidate who has been required to withdraw from the Faculty may apply to the Faculty for re-admission one (1) year after withdrawal. Each case will be considered on its own merit, but will only succeed if the Faculty is satisfied that the circumstances attending the reasons for the withdrawal have been altered substantially.
- (c) Students thus admitted to a Faculty may in accordance with its regulations be granted exemption from Level I courses subject to there being no change in the content of the courses and provided that no more than five (5) years have elapsed since the date of withdrawal. Level II University courses, for the purposes of exemption may be treated in the same way as Level I Faculty courses.
- (d) Students from one Faculty who had been required to withdraw from the University for failing to complete their degree programme within the stipulated period may be admitted to another Faculty after a minimum period of one (1) year had elapsed since their withdrawal. Such students may be granted exemption from Level I courses relevant to the new programme subject to regulations (b) and (c) above.

AWARD OF DEGREES

16. Notification of Results

For those candidates who have completed the requirements of the BSc degree a pass list shall be published and arranged alphabetically in the following categories:

- First Class Honours
- Second Class Honours
 - Upper Division
 - Lower Division
- Pass

GRADE POINT AVERAGE SYSTEM

17.

- a. These regulations shall apply to all students admitted to the University commencing academic year 2003-2004.
 - (i) The class of degree to be awarded shall be determined on the basis of a weighted Grade Point Average (GPA).

- (ii) In the calculation of the weighted GPA a weight of zero shall be attached to all Level I courses.
- (iii) Levels II and III courses shall have equal weight in the determination of the weighted GPA.
- (iv) Core courses satisfying the requirements of specials, majors and minors must be taken into account in the determination of the weighted GPA.
- (v) A course designated as not-for-credit (NFC) shall not count in the determination of the weighted GPA.
- (vi) The class of degree shall be awarded as follows:
 - First Class Honours - Weighted GPA of 3.6 and above
 - Second Class Honours - Upper Division - Weighted GPA 3.00 - 3.59
 - Second Class Honours - Lower Division - Weighted GPA 2.50 - 2.99
 - Pass - Weighted GPA 2.00 - 2.49

MARKING SCHEME FOR EXAMINATION IN THE FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

- (b) (i) In the determination of GPA, the grades with corresponding quality points shall be as defined in the University Regulations governing the GPA.
- (ii) The authorized marking scheme is as follows:

2014/2015 Grading Policy
Grade	Quality Points	Mark%
A+	4.3	90-100
A	4.0	80-89
A-	3.7	75-79
B+	3.3	70-74
B	3.0	65-69
B-	2.7	60-64
C+	2.3	55-59
C	2.0	50-54
F1	1.7	40-49
F2	1.3	30-39
F3	0.0	0-29

CO-CURRICULAR CREDITS

18.

- (a) Students will be eligible for no more than 3 credits for involvement in co-curricular activities. The activities may be Campus specific.
- (b) Co-curricular credits will be awarded on the following basis:
 - (i). Students must be involved in the activity for at least one (1) semester;
 - (ii). Explicit learning outcomes must be identified for each activity.
 - (iii) There must be clearly defined mode(s) of assessment for each activity.
- (c) The Office of Student Services and the School of Education on each campus will administer the award of credits.

- (d) The grading of co-curricular credits will be pass/fail.
- (e) All co-curricular activities/programmes must be approved in advance by the Faculty and Academic Board.
- (f) Subject to Faculty Regulations, co-curricular credits will form part of the 90 credits for a degree. However, in special circumstances, if credits are earned in excess of those required for the degree, these and the associated activity will be included on the student's transcript.

AEGROTAT DEGREE

19. A candidate taking examinations in respect of a final degree, diploma or certificate programme and who had been absent through illness from one or more papers, may apply for the award of an aegrotat degree, diploma or certificate on the following conditions.
 - (a) Where the whole of the final examination for a degree, diploma or certificate is taken at the end of the final year of the course and he/she has completed more than half of the examination but has been absent from the remainder of that examination.
 - (b) Where the final examination is in two or more parts (the award of the degree, diploma or certificate depending on performance in each of these parts) and he/she has successfully completed the first one or two parts or more than half of the final part, but has been absent from the remainder of the examinations for the final part.
 - (c) Where the final examination is in two parts and the student has completed the first part (level II) with a B average or higher and his course work during the final year of the course has been of a consistently high standard, but he/she has been absent from the other part of the examinations.
 - (d) The Examiners consider that in the work which the candidate has submitted at such of the final examination as he/she had attended, he/she reached a standard which, if also reached in the remainder of the examination, would have qualified him/her for the award of a degree, diploma or certificate.
20. All applications for an aegrotat degree, diploma or certificate must be referred by the Registrar to the Faculty Board of Examiners and the Board for Examinations for a recommendation to the Board of Undergraduate Studies (BUS). Applications from or on behalf of candidates must be accompanied by a medical certificate signed by (a) University Health Officer, or (b) the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine in consultation with the appropriate members on the Medical School, (c) or other medical personnel appointed for this purpose by the University, and shall reach the Registrar not later than thirty days from the last examination paper written by the candidate.
21. In assessing an application for an aegrotat degree, diploma or certificate, reports from Heads of Department on the candidates work should be taken into consideration. Oral examinations, where possible, by internal examiners may be an aspect of examinations for the award of an aegrotat degree.
22. An aegrotat degree, diploma or certificate will be awarded without distinction or class.
23. Holders of an aegrotat degree, diploma or certificate will not be permitted to re-enter for the same examination but may proceed to a higher degree if accepted by the Board for Graduate Studies and Research.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE REGULATIONS (Revised March 2006)

1. The Board for Undergraduate Studies, in the delegated exercise of Senate's powers as the academic authority for the University under Statute 25, makes the following regulations to govern the Grade Point Average system in the University, effective 2003/2004 academic year for all candidates newly entering a programme. Persons who enter the system prior to 2003/2004 academic year to pursue first degrees will be considered under the GPA scheme effective 2006/2007. All students entering the Faculty of Law in the academic year 2005/2006 and the Faculty of Medical Sciences in the academic year 2006/2007 shall be governed by the GPA Regulations in the calculation of the award of their respective degrees. However, students entering the Faculty of Law prior to 2005/2006 and the Faculty of Medical Sciences prior to 2006/2007 will be treated under the old system of classification. A student who entered the University prior to 2003/2004 and changes his/her major subsequent to the introduction of GPA will be considered to be "newly entering a programme"
2. In accordance with Statute 47 and subject to these regulations all students shall normally spend a minimum of three academic years in the University of the West Indies before being eligible for the award of a First Degree.
3. (i) For purposes of these regulations, the following meanings shall apply, except where the context otherwise requires:
 - (a) Credit Hours Earned: "Credit hours earned" means the credits for each course that count toward the degree requirement and for which a passing grade is obtained.
 - (b) Quality Hours: "Quality hours" means the credits for each course that is included in the GPA calculation. Quality hours shall be assigned even when a grade of F is obtained in a course. Courses that are not used in the determination of the GPA shall be assigned zero quality hours.
 - (c) Quality Points: "Quality points" means the numerical value assigned to the relevant letter grade earned.
- (ii) For the purposes of these Regulations:

- (a) Level I, II and III Courses: Levels I, II and III courses are courses so designated by the Board for Undergraduate Studies.
- (b) Grade Points: Grade points are determined by multiplying the quality hours by the quality points for a course.
- (c) Grade Point Average (GPA): Grade Point Average is the average obtained by dividing the total grade points earned by the total quality hours for which the student has registered for any stated period of time, excluding courses taken on a pass/ fail basis, audited courses, courses taken for preliminary credit and courses for which the designation I or IP is awarded under Regulation 6(iv).
- (d) Weighted Grade Point Average: Weighted Grade Point Average is the average determined by applying appropriate weights for Levels I, II, and III courses to the grade points and the quality hours used in determining grade point average as set out at Regulation 3(ii)(c) above.
- (e) Credit Hours: The credit values for courses, as well as for projects, laboratory sessions, foreign language classes or other contact hours, shall be determined by the respective Faculty Board and approved by the Board for Undergraduate Studies.
- (iii) Pass/Fail Course Provision: Credit hours earned in courses taken on a Pass-Fail basis shall not be included in calculating grade point averages
4. (i). The class of degree shall be awarded on the basis of the Weighted GPA as set out in these regulations.
- (ii) In determining the Weighted GPA, the weights to be used for each Level I, II and III course shall be as prescribed in Faculty Regulations.
- (iii) Except for the purpose of determining the class of degree the term GPA in these regulations shall mean the GPA as defined at Regulation 3(ii)(c) above.
5. (i) First Degrees awarded by the University, with the exception of the BSc (Engineering), The Bachelor of Science (Petroleum Geoscience), the Bachelor of Science (Surveying and Land Information), LLB, MBBS, DDS, and DVM, shall be classified as follows:
- First Class Honours (Weighted GPA 3.60 and Above)
 - Upper Second Class Honours (Weighted GPA 3.00 – 3.59)
 - Lower Second Class Honours (Weighted GPA 2.50 – 2.99)
 - Pass (Weighted GPA 2.00 – 2.49)
- (ii) Award of Honours in GPA System: Honours shall be awarded taking into account all Level II and Level III courses excluding the Foundation courses.
- (ii) First Degrees awarded by the University for the Bachelor of Science (Engineering), the Bachelor of Science (Petroleum Geoscience) and the Bachelor of Science (Surveying and Land Information), shall be classified as follows:
- First Class Honours (Weighted GPA
 - Lower Second Class Honours (Weighted GPA 2.00 – 2.99)
 - Third Class Honours (Weighted GPA 1.50 – 1.99)
 - Pass - (Weighted GPA 1.00 – 1.49)
- (iii) First Degrees awarded by the University for the Bachelor of Laws (LLB) shall be classified as follows:
- First Class Honours
 - Second Class Honours (Upper and Lower Division)
 - Pass

(iv) The Degrees of MB BS, DDS and DVM shall be classified as follows:

- Honours with Distinction
- Honours
- Pass

6. (i) The letter grades for completed courses used in the calculation of GPA shall be the following:

A - four quality points
B - three quality points
C - two quality points
D - one quality point
F - no quality points

(ii) Plus and minus modifiers may be used with letter grades A through D.

(iii) In the determination of GPA, the defined grades with the corresponding quality points shall be:

2014/2015 Grading Policy
Grade	Quality Points	Mark%
A+	4.3	90-100
A	4.0	80-89
A-	3.7	75-79
B+	3.3	70-74
B	3.0	65-69
B-	2.7	60-64
C+	2.3	55-59
C	2.0	50-54
F1	1.7	40-49
F2	1.3	30-39
F3	0.0	0-29

(iv) The following designations may be assigned, but shall not be used in the calculation of Grade Point Average:

PC: Preliminary Credits - used for matriculation purposes or the satisfying of prerequisites only
EX: Exemption
EI: Examination Irregularity – Candidate disqualified from examination on account of breach of the Regulations
EQ: Examination Query

(v) The following designations may be assigned and shall count towards the GPA:

FA: When a student is absent from an examination without a valid reason
FC: Failed Coursework – indicates that a candidate has failed to satisfy the Examiner in the coursework component of the course
FE: Failed Examination – when a candidate has successfully completed the coursework requirement but has failed to satisfy the Examiners in the examination component of the course
AM: Absent Medical
IM: Incomplete Medical
V: Audited - when the course has been taken in accordance with Regulation 14
NV: When a student has been permitted to audit a course but has not done so satisfactorily
P: Pass - a pass obtained in a course taken on a Pass/Fail basis
F: Fail

ANP: Absent No Penalty

I: Incomplete - indicated that the student has made progress in a course but at the end of the semester has not finished the work required to receive a letter grade. An I designation is not counted in credit hours earned, or quality hours until a letter grade is reported. If neither a letter grade nor notification of an extension of time is received by the Registry from the Office of Dean, the I designation is replaced by an F letter grade at the end of the first six weeks into the next semester. An extension of time may be granted but shall not normally extend beyond the end of the semester in which the extension is granted. Any remaining I symbol at the end of the period of extension will be deemed an F.

NR: Not Reported - Grade not yet available.

IP: In Progress - when a dissertation, thesis, project, student teaching, practicum, internship, proficiency requirement, or other course intended to last more than one semester is not completed during the semester in which the student is registered. The IP designation must be replaced with an appropriate grade on completion of the course.

7. The scheme to be used for conversion of numerical marks to letter grades shall be as prescribed in Faculty regulations as follows:

2014/2015 Grading Policy
Grade	Quality Points	Mark%
A+	4.3	90-100
A	4.0	80-89
A-	3.7	75-79
B+	3.3	70-74
B	3.0	65-69
B-	2.7	60-64
C+	2.3	55-59
C	2.0	50-54
F1	1.7	40-49
F2	1.3	30-39
F3	0.0	0-29

8. The courses to be used for the purpose of determining the Weighted GPA for the class of degree to be awarded shall be as prescribed in Faculty Regulations.
9. Where a course has been repeated, the penalty to be applied for failure and the grade to be used in the computation of the student's GPA if the course is subsequently passed shall be as prescribed in Faculty Regulations.
10. For the purpose of determining the Weighted GPA, failed courses shall be treated as prescribed in Faculty Regulations.
11. (i) Where credit for a course taken at another institution is requested, it is the student's responsibility to provide all the information needed by the University to enable it to assess the course.
- (ii) Credit hours earned from another institution at the time of admission to the University of the West Indies will not be used in the computation of a grade point average.
12. The following shall apply to credits earned by a UWI undergraduate from another approved institution:
- (i) A UWI student who wishes to take academic courses elsewhere and apply those credits toward the UWI degree must obtain approval in advance from the relevant Academic Board on the recommendation of the Board of the Faculty in which he/she is registered.
- (ii) A student must have obtained a minimum UWI GPA of 3.00 to be approved to take courses as an exchange/transfer student.

- (iii) Only the grade equivalent as determined by the Board for Undergraduate Studies of the results achieved and not the marks or grades so earned at another institution shall be used in the computation of the student's GPA.
- 13. (i) Except where otherwise prescribed in Faculty Regulations, a student whose GPA for a given semester is less than or equal to 2.00 shall be deemed to be performing unsatisfactorily, and shall be placed on warning. A student on warning whose GPA for the succeeding semester is less than 2.00 will be required to withdraw. However, a student may be reinstated if his/her GPA improves beyond 2.00 by credits obtained in Summer School. Then the credits would be rolled in to the GPA of the preceding Semester of the academic year.
 - (ii) A student on warning shall be counselled by the Dean or a designated faculty advisor. Such a student may, except where otherwise prescribed in Faculty Regulations, be permitted by the Academic Board on the recommendation of Faculty Board to carry a reduced course load.
- 14. (i) A registered student may be permitted to audit a course on the approval of the Dean and the Head of Department.
 - (ii) Auditing means recorded attendance at the lectures, tutorials and laboratory sessions for a given course without the requirement of sitting the final exam.
 - (iii) Satisfactory attendance certified by the Head of Department shall be awarded the designation V.
In absence of such certification, the designation NV shall be recorded.
 - (iv) No academic credit may be granted for auditing a course.
- 15. (i) A student who voluntarily withdraws from the University and who applies for re-admission within five (5) years shall be granted exemption and credit for courses previously passed, subject to the time limit for the maintenance of credits stipulated in the relevant Faculty Regulations and subject to the stipulation that the courses previously passed are not determined by the Board of the relevant Faculty to be obsolete.
 - (ii) Where exemption and credit are granted in accordance with (i), the grades obtained at previous attempts at such courses shall be used in the determination of the student's GPA.
- 16. A student who was required to withdraw for reasons of failure to progress as prescribed in Faculty Regulations may be readmitted on the following conditions:
 - (i) A minimum of one (1) year must have passed since the date of withdrawal;
 - (ii) All grades previously obtained shall continue to apply for the purpose of determining the student's GPA;
 - (iii) Work done during the period between the student being required to withdraw and being granted readmission may be eligible for credit under Regulation 11.
- 17. Where there is a conflict between Faculty Regulations and these regulations, these Regulations shall apply.

HOW TO CALCULATE YOUR WEIGHTED GPA

STEP ONE: A 'grade point' is assigned for every course in which you receive a final grade. For example, if you receive an A as a final grade, you will be assigned a grade point of 4.0.

STEP TWO: The grade point assigned for each course completed is multiplied by the 'credit hours' of the course to determine your 'quality points'. For example, if you receive a grade point of 3.7 [equivalent of letter grade A-] for a 3-credit course the quality points would be calculated as follows: 3.7 X 3 = 11.1 quality points.

STEP THREE: Your 'Weighted GPA' is the average obtained by dividing the total quality points earned in your programme to date by the total credit hours taken, excluding courses taken on a pass/fail basis, audited courses, courses taken for preliminary credit, incomplete courses and any other courses which do not count towards the class of degree according to Faculty regulations.

For example: 54 quality points earned divided by 15 credit hours [equivalent to 5 3-credit courses] = a Weighted GPA of 3.6.

UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS ON PLAGIARISM (First Degrees, Diplomas and Certificates)

Application of these Regulations

1. These Regulations apply to the presentation of work by a student for evaluation, whether or not for credit, but do not apply to invigilated written examinations.

Definition of plagiarism

2. In these Regulations, “plagiarism” means the unacknowledged and unjustified use of the words, ideas or creations of another, including unjustified unacknowledged quotation and unjustified unattributed borrowing;
“Level 1 plagiarism” means plagiarism which does not meet the definition of Level 2 plagiarism;
“Level 2 plagiarism” means plagiarism undertaken with the intention of passing off as original work by the plagiariser work done by another person or persons.
3. What may otherwise meet the definition of plagiarism may be justified for the purposes of Regulation 2 where the particular unacknowledged use of the words, ideas and creations of another is by the standards of the relevant academic discipline a function of part or all of the object of the work for evaluation whether or not for credit, for example:
 - a. The unacknowledged use is required for conformity with presentation standards;
 - b. The task set or undertaken is one of translation of the work of another into a different language or format;
 - c. The task set or undertaken requires producing a result by teamwork for joint credit regardless of the level of individual contribution;
 - d. The task set or undertaken requires extensive adaptation of models within a time period of such brevity as to exclude extensive attribution;
 - e. The task set or undertaken requires the use of an artificial language, such as is the case with computer programming, where the use of unoriginal verbal formulae is essential.
4. It is not a justification under Regulations 2 and 3 for the unacknowledged use of the words, ideas and creations of another that the user enjoys the right of use of those words, ideas and creations as a matter of intellectual property.

Other definitions

5. In these Regulations, “Chairman” means the Chairman of the relevant Campus Committee on Examinations;

“Examination Regulations” means the Examination and other forms of Assessment Regulations for First Degrees Associate Degrees Diplomas and Certificates of the University;
“set of facts” means a fact or combination of facts.

Evidence of plagiarism

6. In order to constitute evidence of plagiarism under these Regulations, there shall be identified as a minimum the passage or passages in the student’s work which are considered to have been plagiarised and the passage or passages from which the passages in the student’s work are considered to have been taken.

Student Statement on Plagiarism

7. When a student submits for examination work under Regulation 1, the student shall sign a statement, in such form as the Campus Registrar may prescribe, that as far as possible the work submitted is free of plagiarism including unattributed quotation or paraphrase of the work of another except where justified under Regulation 3.
8. Quotation or paraphrase is attributed for the purpose of Regulation 7 if the writer has indicated using conventions appropriate to the discipline that the work is not the writer’s own.
9. The University is not prohibited from proceeding with a charge of plagiarism where there is no statement as prescribed under Regulation 7.

Electronic vetting for plagiarism

10. The results of any electronic vetting although capable, where the requirements of Regulation 7 are satisfied, of constituting evidence under these Regulations, are not thereby conclusive of any question as to whether or not plagiarism exists.

Level 1 plagiarism

11. In work submitted for examination where the Examiner is satisfied that Level 1 plagiarism has been committed, he/she shall penalize the student by reducing the mark which would have otherwise been awarded taking into account any relevant Faculty regulations.

Level 2 plagiarism

12. Where an examiner has evidence of Level 2 plagiarism in the material being examined, that examiner shall report it to the Head of Department or the Dean and may at any time provide the Registrar with a copy of that report. In cases where the examiner and the Dean are one and the same, the report shall be referred to the Head of the Department and also to the Campus Registrar.
13. Where any other person who in the course of duty sees material being examined which he or she believes is evidence of Level 2 plagiarism that other person may report it to the Head of Department or the Dean and may at any time report it to the Campus Registrar who shall take such action as may be appropriate.
14. Where a Dean or Head of Department receives a report either under Regulation 12 or 13, the Dean or Head of Department, as the case may be, shall
 - a. where in concurrence with the report's identification of evidence of Level 2 plagiarism, report the matter to the Campus Registrar; or
 - b. where not concurring in the identification of evidence of plagiarism, reply to the examiner declining to proceed further on the report; or
 - c. where concluding that there is evidence of Level 1 plagiarism, reply to the examiner indicating that conclusion and the Examiner shall proceed as under Regulation 11.
15. Where a report is made to the Campus Registrar under Regulation 14a or 16, the Campus Registrar shall lay a charge and refer the matter to the Campus Committee on Examinations.
16. Where the Campus Registrar receives a report alleging Level 2 plagiarism from the Examiner or any other person except the Dean or Head of Department, the Campus Registrar shall refer the matter to a senior academic to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to ground a charge of plagiarism and where such evidence is found, the Campus Registrar shall proceed as under Regulation 15.
17. Where the matter has been referred to the Campus Committee on Examinations pursuant to Regulation 15, the proceedings under these Regulations prevail, over any other disciplinary proceedings within the University initiated against the student based on the same facts and, without prejudice to Regulation 21, any other such disciplinary proceedings shall be stayed, subject to being reopened.
18. If the Campus Committee on Examinations is satisfied, after holding a hearing, that the student has committed Level 2 plagiarism, it shall in making a determination on the severity of the penalty take into consideration:
 - a. the circumstances of the particular case;
 - b. the seniority of the student; and
 - c. whether this is the first or a repeated incidence of Level 2 plagiarism
19. Where the Campus Committee is of the view that the appropriate penalty for an offence of Level 2 plagiarism is for the student to be:
 - (i) awarded a fail mark;
 - (ii) excluded from some or all further examinations of the University for such period as it may determine;
 - (iii) dismissed from the University, it shall make such recommendation to the Academic Board.

Clearance on a charge of Level 2 plagiarism

20. A determination of the Campus Committee on Examinations that Level 2 plagiarism has not been found will be reported to the Campus Registrar who shall refer it to the Examiner and notify the student. Where the Committee has not identified Level 2 but has identified Level 1, it shall be reported to the Campus Registrar who shall refer it to the examiner.

Level 2 plagiarism: Appeal to the Senate

21. A student may appeal to the Senate from any decision against him or her on a charge of plagiarism made by Academic

Board.

Delegation by Dean or Head of Department

22. The Dean or Head of Department, as the case may be, may generally or in a particular instance delegate that officer's functions under these Regulations.

Conflict of interest disqualification

23. Any person who has at any time been an examiner of work or been involved in procedures for laying charges in relation to which an issue of plagiarism is being considered under these Regulations shall withdraw from performing any functions under these Regulations other than those of supervisor and examiner.

BSc HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT

This Programme is offered jointly with the Barbados Community College (BCC), Antigua and Barbuda Hospitality Training Institute (Antigua), T.A. Marryshow Community College (Grenada), Sir Arthur Lewis Community College (St. Lucia), and Clarence Fitzroy Bryant College (St. Kitts). In the programme, students are required to complete the Two-Year Associate Degree in Applied Arts - Tourism and Travel, or the Associate Degree in Applied Arts - Hotel Catering and Institutional Operations, (or equivalent) with a 2.75 grade point average, before proceeding to complete years 3 and 4 in the Faculty.

The four-year programme consists of a core of Hospitality and Tourism courses, along with Business and Management courses, in two (2) areas of specialisation, viz. Hospitality Management and Tourism Management. The vocational courses, particularly in Hospitality, will be undertaken during the first two years of study at the purpose-built facilities of the Hospitality Division of BCC. In years 3 and 4 a range of Business and Management courses is offered mainly at the Cave Hill campus of the UWI. The four-year programme is designed to be both academically sound and specifically relevant to the Regional Hospitality and Tourism Industry. The training will provide opportunities for employment in hotels, transportation and tour operation companies, travel agency operations, national and regional tourism organizations and government departments. It will be of benefit to those already in the industry as well as those seeking to enter this diverse field.

Students will receive practical exposure to kitchen, restaurant and general hotel management operations at the Pommarine Training Hotel facility. They will also be given the opportunity to gain experience and a realistic appreciation of the working environment of the industry through an internship scheme. A six (6) week internship is undertaken at the end of Year 2, and a further twelve (12) week industry internship is undertaken at the end of Year 3 of the programme. Language training is built into the degree programme as a requirement during the first two years.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

ECONOMICS (ECON) COURSES

PRELIMINARY LEVEL

ECON 0101 – PRELIMINARY MATHEMATICS FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES

Pre-requisite – No pre-requisite required

This course is intended to provide students pursuing degrees in the Faculty of Social Sciences who, while meeting lower level matriculation refreshments for entry into the degree programme, may need a refresher course in mathematics before they attempt the Faculty's Level 1 mathematics course: ECON 1003. Students who already hold CSEC Mathematics at Grade 1 or CAPE Mathematics would be exempted from this course. Topics covered in this course include arithmetic, algebra, sequence and series, matrices as well as use and application of exponentials and logarithms.

LEVEL I COURSES

ECON 1001 - INTRODUCTION TO MICROECONOMICS

Pre-requisite – No pre-requisite required

In this course students will examine how economic tools can be used to understand and predict the behaviour of individual economic agents. The course provides students with a basic overview of the key microeconomic topics including individual consumption behaviour, production, cost, price setting by firms as well as the notion of market failure. The course allows students to develop an understanding of how to use economic tools and models.

ECON 1002 – INTRODUCTION TO MACROECONOMICS

Pre-requisite – No pre-requisite required

The course examines the composition of the economy's key macroeconomic variables and the relationships which exist among such variables. Throughout the course, variables such as national income, economic growth, money demand and money supply and inflation are examined. In addition, the course would allow students to develop an understanding of how certain macroeconomic variables are measured and how such measurements can be interpreted.

ECON 1003 – MATHS FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES I

Pre-requisite - ECON 0101 Preliminary Mathematics for Social Sciences OR CSEC Maths – Grade I

This course introduces students to the mathematical principles necessary for students pursuing higher level courses in the Faculty of Social Sciences. The aim of the course is to provide students with the foundational knowledge of the key mathematics principles such as functions, basic linear algebra and calculus and their application to the social sciences. Students in this course will be exposed to tools that enable them to analyse and organize materials to achieve that objective. The topics covered include indices, set theory, functions, sequences, limits, differentiation, integration as well as matrix algebra.

ECON 1004 – MATHS FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES II

Pre-requisite - ECON 1003: Mathematics for Social Sciences I OR CAPE Pure Mathematics

This course illustrates how mathematical techniques are used to understand business, economic or any social sciences phenomena. It extends on Maths for Social Sciences I/CAPE Maths, exposing participants to further linear algebra (e.g. vector spaces, normalization, dependence; linear transformations, Eigen values and Eigen vectors) and calculus (e.g. optimization, integration and differential equations). Greater emphasis is placed on the application of these topics in various social sciences fields such as: economics, finance, management, accounting, sociology, political science and psychology.

ECON 1005 – INTRODUCTION TO STATISTICS

- Pre-requisite –1. Grade 1 or 2 CXC CSEC Mathematics General OR
2. Grade A at Cambridge GCE O'Level Mathematics OR
3. Pass in the Maths Proficiency Test
4. Pass in ECON0101 Preliminary Mathematics for Social Sciences

This is an introductory course designed to help students learn the basic statistics required for most courses that emphasize applications and fundamental concepts of statistics. It is designed to be practical, flexible, and modern, and provides a practical orientation that teaches how to identify the correct method, calculate the statistics, and properly interpret the results in the context of the question or the decision at hand. This course will also develop research skills needed in other areas of study.

LEVEL II & III COURSES

ECON 2000 – INTERMEDIATE MICROECONOMICS I

Pre-requisite - ECON1001 Introduction to Microeconomics

The course introduces the fundamental concepts of microeconomics. Based on theory, it investigates the behaviour of consumers and firms in a perfectly competitive environment. By studying the interaction of producers and consumers, the course will shed light on how industries and markets operate and evolve, and how they are affected by changes in policies and economic conditions. Students will be exposed to the mathematical concepts that are widely employed in microeconomics and other fields of economics.

ECON 2001 – INTERMEDIATE MICROECONOMICS II

Pre-requisite – ECON 2000 Intermediate Microeconomics I

This course deepens the understanding of basic microeconomics concepts and provides tools of analysis which allows students to blend microeconomic theory with practical relevance to economic problems. It focuses on economic behaviour of firms in different market structures acquainting students with the techniques that allow firms to optimize and enable economists to examine and predict the outcome of policies on firms in different market structures. In addition, it covers the analysis of factor markets and examines the conditions governing the achievement of a general equilibrium in an economy. In addition, some attention is also paid to non-collusive oligopoly, Cournot and Stackelberg equilibria, pricing, price leadership, Pareto Optimality Welfare, techniques of project analysis and the use of investment criteria for capital budgeting.

ECON 2002 – INTERMEDIATE MACROECONOMICS I

Pre-requisite – ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics AND
ECON 1002 Introduction to Macroeconomics

The course introduces students to macroeconomic analysis of the aggregate economic performance. It teaches various macroeconomic theories used to understand the economy's performance. Students become familiar in manipulating the models to solve the macroeconomic problems such as recessions, trade deficits, budget deficits and unemployment as well as develop skills in policy advice informed by the models.

ECON 2003 - INTERMEDIATE MACROECONOMICS II

Pre-requisite - ECON1001 Introduction to Microeconomics AND
ECON1002 Introduction to Macroeconomics

The course focuses on the microeconomics behind macroeconomics in the areas of consumption, investment and money; the classical theory in national income in the long run and growth theory in the very long run. It uses a combination of mathematical and intuitive analysis to provide some understanding of the subject area. The application of analysis that comes mainly from studies of the more developed economies and offers lessons that are valuable for developing countries especially the Caribbean.

ECON 2004 – PUBLIC POLICY ANALYSIS

Pre-requisite – ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics

In this course the role of government in the economy will be examined. The course attempts to provide a critical discussion of the key issues faced by public sector managers in relation to externalities, imperfect competition, public goods, policy and regulation. One of the fundamental reasons for government intervention is market failure. The course therefore begins with a discussion of this concept and government's role in addressing this problem. Related to this are the concepts of public goods and regulation in the public interest, which are fundamental aspect of enhancing national welfare.

The course material is closely aligned to the issues faced by Caribbean managers and examples are provided to illustrate the issues faced by public sector managers. This course is designed for non-specialist economics students in Public Sector Management. Both the microeconomics and macroeconomics principles governing the formulation of public policies will be examined

ECON 2016 – MATHEMATICS FOR ECONOMICS III

Pre-requisite – ECON 1004 Mathematics for Social Sciences II

This is a course in mathematics that is designs for students of economics. A limited number of mathematical topics are chosen from the numerous topics covered in the course are useful and basic for analyzing many economic problems. The choice of these topics based on available time, the background of the students and their importance in different branches of economics. The basic mathematical theory underlying each topic covered is presented and examples are given to illustrate the use of this mathematical theory to solve problems.

ECON 2022 - INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Pre-requisite - ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics OR
ECON 1002 Introduction to Macroeconomics

The course is designed to introduce students to the analysis of the global economy and the businesses that operate within this environment. It describes the ideas of international business and the major issues that companies confront when operating across borders. Students will be provided with the knowledge and skills to effectively assess the current and future international business environment. The course will make use of a number of international data sets on bilateral trade patterns in the Caribbean, socio-demographic and macroeconomic indicators that can be used to assess the relative attractiveness of individual countries as supply and sales markets.

ECON 2025 – Statistical Methods I

Pre-requisites – ECON1004 Mathematics for Social Sciences II AND
ECON1005 Introduction to Statistics

The aim of ECON2025 is to provide students, primarily in the fields of economics, finance and business administration, with a conceptual introduction to the field of statistics and its many applications. Applications of data analysis and statistical methodology are an integral part of the organisation and presentation of the material. The discussion and development of each technique is presented in an application setting, with the statistical results providing insights to decisions and solutions to problems. This course prepares students for the study of more advanced statistical material. It also introduces students to the software package Excel and emphasises the role of computer software in the application of statistical analysis.

ECON 2026 – Statistical Methods II

Pre-requisites – ECON1004 Mathematics for Social Sciences II AND
ECON1005 Introduction to Statistics

The objective of this course is to explore techniques and methods that will help students better understand and undertake statistical inference as well as make predictions about future trends in economic or business endeavours. That is, the course will explore the basic tools used by economists and business persons to inform decisions and make predictions. The course covers topics in sampling including experimental design and survey, estimation theory, hypothesis testing, analysis of variance, regression analysis, and time series forecasting.

ECON 2029 - Research Methods for Economists

Pre-requisite – ECON1001 Introduction to Microeconomics,
ECON1002 Introduction to Macroeconomics AND
ECON1005 Introduction to Statistics

This course is designed to help students to think and write like an economist. Participants will be exposed to the correct style of the various documents one is likely to encounter working in the field and also discuss the approach to crafting an economic paper, with an emphasis on key research topics such as finding a niche, making a contribution to the literature as well as economic arguments. Topics covered include: What is Research?; Topic Selection; Searching for Information; Reviewing the Literature; Research Questions and Methods; Ethics in Research; Steps of Quantitative and Qualitative Research Designs; Quantitative Data Analysis; Qualitative Data Analysis; Writing the Final Report

ECON 3001 – Industrial Organisation

Pre-requisite – ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics AND
ECON 1004 Mathematics for Social Sciences II

In this course students will examine the structure in firms and markets and how they interact. The content is aligned with subjects (topics) of concern to businesses around the world, with particular emphasis on those of relevance to the Caribbean. It seeks to heighten students' awareness of how strategic interaction can impact on business decisions and firm performance. The course would allow students to develop an understanding of how to use economic tools and techniques to enhance firm performance.

ECON 3005 – Monetary Economics

Pre-requisite – ECON 2000 Intermediate Microeconomics 1 AND
ECON2002 Intermediate Macroeconomics 1

This course seeks to heighten students' awareness of issues that can be useful for a potential career in business or policymaking. It explores the linkages between money and prices; output and employment. The implications for business and households around the world as well as the peculiarities of small very open economies will also be examined. Given the events of 2007 and the ensuing great recession, how the approach to monetary policy should differ during 'normal' times in contrast to times of crisis will be discussed. In this module we will the links between money and prices, output and employment. We will also examine the implications for business and households around the world as well as the peculiarities of small very open economies. It seeks to heighten students' awareness of issues that can be useful for a potential career in business or policymaking. Given the events of 2007 and the ensuring great recessing, we will also discuss how our approach to monetary policy should differ during 'normal' times in contrast to times of crisis.

ECON 3006 – International Trade

Pre-requisite – ECON 2000 Intermediate Microeconomics I AND
ECON 2002 Intermediate Macroeconomics I

International Trade enables students to gain a fundamental understanding of the principles and applications of international trade theory in a globalised economy. The course covers international trade theory (classical, neoclassical and modern) and then proceeds to the study of international trade policy. The special issue of trade among developing countries is handled as a substantive portion of the course. The course maintains a perspective on the Caribbean. It is designed to serve both as a “stand-alone” course in international trade theory and its policy applications, and as a “foundation” course for further study of both applied international economics and advanced international trade theory.

ECON 3007 – International Finance

Pre-requisite – No pre-requisite required

This course is designed for final year undergraduate students in Economics to expose them to, and/or increase their knowledge of the balance of payments, foreign exchange markets, and global debt and equity markets. The course emphasises areas such as balance of payments theory and policy, exchange rate issues, international taxation, and the evolution of the international capital market and monetary system.

ECON 3008 – History of Economic Thought

Pre-requisite – No pre-requisite required

This course exposes you to the evolution of economic thought from the 1600s to the present. Hence, the course starts with early economic doctrines such as those of the Physiocrats and Mercantilists and then traces the history of economic ideas from the Classical School of economic thought of Adam Smith, David Ricardo, and John Stewart Mill right up to Modern Growth Theories of economists such as Solow and Arthur Lewis.

ECON 3010 – Finance and Development

Pre-requisite – ECON 2000 Intermediate Microeconomics I AND
ECON 2002 Intermediate Macroeconomics I

This course employs analytical techniques that effectively direct financial resources towards promoting sustainable development. It focuses on the sources and consequences of money (and its management) in funding developmental projects/ideas involving social, economic and environmental aspects. Emphasis is placed on discussing theories, researching and providing policy advice on financial capital flows in developing, transition and small island states. This further informs reforms of the financial structure from a development perspective.

The topics dealt with include: finance and economic/sustainable development, innovative financing mechanisms for economic development, micro financing as well as the role of foreign aid, sovereign credits rating, public debt management and financial liberalization in development.

ECON 3011 – Economics of Financial Institutions

Pre-requisite – ECON 2000 Intermediate Microeconomics I AND
ECON 2002 Intermediate Macroeconomics I

This course helps students construct the theoretical and practical knowledge necessary to understand contemporary issues related to financial markets and the institutions that operate them. Particular attention is given to the evolving relationship between the financial institutions and the real economy in the increasingly interconnected global financial system. Topics covered include financial regulation and supervision, financials system stability assessment, risk management and financial crises. The course is taught with great emphasis on the Caribbean landscape.

ECON 3016 –Public Finance 1

Pre-requisite - ECON1001Introduction to Microeconomics AND
ECON1002 Introduction to Macroeconomics

The course provides the tools for understanding the role of government in the economy and the determination of public expenditure. The basic theories of market failure, public goods and externalities are outlined along with the nature of and rationale for public sector enterprises. These areas help in defining the role of government in relation to its traditional functions as well as in the more recent public choice theory. The growth and structure of public expenditure in selected developing countries is explored from the perspective of budgeting and the consequences of inadequate budgeting for stabilization policy and structural adjustment in these countries. And finally some distributional issues relating to income, poverty and public utility pricing are presented; the latter deals with efficiency issues as well.

ECON 3017 – Public Finance II

Pre-requisite – ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics AND
ECON1002 Introduction to Macroeconomics

The course cursorily revisits public expenditure growth from public finance 1 and puts the emphasis on taxation. They are brought together to determine their influence on economic activity. The conceptual framework for analysing tax issues in any market economy is introduced along with equity and efficiency principles, incidence and costs of taxation. The major theoretical, institutional and some practical aspects of direct and indirect taxation are presented. The main issues in tax reform are explored, followed by some exposure to tax incentives and tax havens.

ECON 3019 – Transport Economics and Management

Pre-requisite – ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics AND
ECON 1003 Maths for Social Sciences I

The course is an applied area of economics focusing on the efficient use of society's scarce resources for the movement of people and goods from an origin to destination. It exposes students to various techniques including theories used for decision making in transportation with emphasis on the economic and financial aspects of transportation policies and planning. The fundamental concepts used include cost-benefit analysis, market demand and its supply. Hence, the course is designed for students of transport, economics, business, management, public policy and business strategy who foresee themselves as future managers, policymakers or economists.

ECON3027 – Economic Planning

Pre-requisite – ECON 2000 Intermediate Microeconomics 1 AND
ECON2002 Intermediate Macroeconomics 1

In this class we will explore some of the fundamental tools used by economists when planning at the firm level as well as at the national and/or regional level. You will be introduced to the traditional tools of economic planning such as shift-share analysis, data envelopment analysis and input-output modeling. There will also be an emphasis on regional tools to enhance competitiveness such cluster analysis, multi-sector analysis and geographic information systems.

ECON 3029 – Labour Economics

Pre-requisite – ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics OR
ECON 1002 Introduction to Macroeconomics

The course is about labour economics which focuses on the area of resource allocation in the economy that deals with the determination of wages and employment in the labour market and the resulting distribution of income among individuals and households. It demands an understanding of some basic micro-economic theory but emphasizes the labour market issues that impact on and are impacted by macro-economic outcomes.

ECON 3034 – RESOURCE & ENVIRONMENTAL ECONOMICS

Prerequisites:
ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics AND
ECON 1002 Introduction to Macroeconomics

Microeconomic and Macroeconomic issues relating to the pricing and taxation of renewable and renewal natural resources. Depletion Theory and Policy. Economic issues relating to the exploitation of natural resources. The Valuation of Environmental Resources. Problems with natural resource exploitation in the Caribbean. Impact of Industrial/Tourism Development on Natural Resources.

ECON 3035 – ECONOMIC FORECASTING

Pre-requisite - ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics AND
At least 21 additional credits from their programme

This course will cover a variety of statistical forecasting techniques which are applicable in many functional areas of business and which can be implemented on a personal computer. These include simple and multiple regression, exponential smoothing, seasonal decomposition, and ARIMA ("Box-Jenkins") models. The emphasis will be on learning to apply these techniques to real data using a full-featured statistical analysis programme (EViews) and a spreadsheet programme (Excel). Concepts of time series analysis introduced in this course should prove helpful in courses and professional work in finance, marketing, operations, consulting, and related fields.

ECON 3037 – OPERATIONS RESEARCH I

Pre-requisite – ECON1003 Mathematics for Social Sciences I

This course is deals with the application of deterministic optimization models in Operations Research and is designed for students who have no previous background in Operations Research. It introduces them to the Operations Research methodology and, through the use of simple cases, it illustrates how mathematical modelling can be used to improve decision making.

ECON 3038 – OPERATIONS RESEARCH II

Pre-requisite – ECON1003 Mathematics for Social Sciences I AND
ECON1005 Introductory Statistics

This course is concerned with the application of stochastic models in operations research. It is designed for students who have no previous background in operations research. It introduces them to the operations research methodology and, through the use of simple cases, it illustrates how mathematical modelling can be used to improve decision making.

ECON 3043 – ECONOMICS OF TOURISM

Tourism is now recognized as an economic activity of global significance. This complex and multi-faceted industry plays an important role in the economies of many developed and less developed countries. Although the impact of the tourism industry on economic life is generally positive, the economic costs are not insignificant. Additionally, the economic benefits of tourism may be offset by adverse environmental and social consequences. The major objective of this course is to give the macroeconomic picture of tourism's role within national economies using the fundamental concepts learned in introductory economics courses. Since socio-cultural and environmental impacts also form an essential part of the evaluation of the long-term advantages and disadvantages of tourism development, these issues will also be covered.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course you should:

- Be aware of factors that influence leisure and recreation
- Possess relevant travel terminology with a solid understanding of the various sectors of the tourism industry
- Be able to distinguish between tourism as an industry and tourism as a system
- Be able to assess external factors and trends affecting the travel industry and the impact of tourism
- Examine the nature of tourism demand and tourism supply
- Understand the role of tourism in the economic development of a country
- Explain how tourism development can influence the socio-cultural and natural environment of a country

ECON 3049 - ECONOMETRICS I

Pre-requisite – ECON 2025 Statistical Methods I OR
ECON 2026 Statistical Methods

This first course in the econometrics sequence develops the basics of econometrics. Precisely, it explores econometric techniques and methods that help students estimate the relationship(s) between one type of variable called explained variable and one or more than one variable called explanatory variable, test relationship(s), verify economic theories, conduct policy analysis and make informed predictions.

The course covers topics in single equation regression model, relaxation of the assumptions of the linear classical model, simultaneous equation model, and time series econometrics.

ECON 3050 - ECONOMETRICS II

Pre-requisite – ECON 3049 Econometrics I

This course extends the material covered in Econometrics I. It explores modern econometric techniques and methods that allow students to better estimate the relationship(s) between one type of variable called explained variable and one or more than one variable called explanatory variable, test the relationship(s), verify economic theories, conduct policy analysis and make informed predictions.

The course covers topics in time series modelling, forecasting and simulations, panel data modelling, and limited dependent and qualitative variables modelling.

ECON 3051 – ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT I

Pre-requisite – No pre-requisite required

This course introduces you to the principles, concepts, models and theories that have been developed and applied by economists for the study of the problems of developing countries. The course therefore covers principal theories of growth and transformation and focuses on key areas of interest such as key indicators of development, measurement issues, growth and development theories, trade and development, growth strategies, and sustainable development.

ECON 3057- HEALTH ECONOMICS: THEORY AND POLICY

Pre-requisite – ECON 1001 Introduction to Microeconomics

The course introduces the economic analytical tools which enable students to comprehend and analyse the issues surrounding the provision, cost and financing of health care as well as improvement of health care quality in the context of limited resources. The following topics/concepts/theories/issues will be addressed: the purpose of health economics; equity, efficiency and need; the market of health care; economic evaluation; production of health; health care cost; the market for health insurance; financing health care; facility location planning; and public policy in health and medical care.

ECON 3075 – ADVANCED FINANCIAL ECONOMICS

Pre-requisite – ECON 2000 Intermediate Microeconomics I AND
ECON 2002 Intermediate Macroeconomics I

This course will scrutinize the underlying assumptions made in traditional finance models and the implications for the macro economy. The course will also cover such issues of risky decisions, the static and dynamic finance economy, empirical puzzles in financial economics and adaptations of traditional financial models to small open countries.

ECON 3090 – INDEPENDENT STUDY FOR ECONOMISTS

Pre-requisites – ECON 2025 Statistical Method I
ECON 2026 Statistical Methods II
ECON 2029 Research Methods for Economists
Programme GPA of 3.0 and above OR Special admission by the Head of Department and assigned course lecturer

Independent study is a one-semester course that targets students who wish to complete individual study projects under the supervision of a faculty member from the Department of Economics. Students are afforded the opportunity to explore a topic in greater depth than is afforded by the traditional academic curriculum. By registering for this course, students will enhance their understanding of the discipline of economics, as well as acquire practical skills (e.g. data management and analysis, time management, and writing skills) that are useful in a variety of contexts.

FINANCE (FINA) COURSES

LEVEL I

FINA 1001 – ELEMENTS OF BANKING AND FINANCE

Pre-requisite – No pre-requisite required

This course introduces students to the role and functioning of the financial services sector; that is the peculiarities of financial systems. These issues will be examined in the context of the theories and approaches to international relations.

GOVT 3017 – CARIBBEAN GOVERNANCE I

The course is designed to give students an in-depth examination of the government and politics of the Caribbean. While the examination will give emphasis to the nation states of the Commonwealth Caribbean, it will also include non- English speaking state systems, such as Suriname, Haiti, and the French West Indies. The course will therefore expose students to a number of theoretical approaches and concepts that have been utilised to interpret the historical heritage and contemporary practices, political practices, societal relations, political economy and culture in the region. The course also takes an applied approach. It is expected that this would develop the students' critical thinking skills through the comparative approach. The concepts that will be developed include colonialism and neo-colonialism, imperialism, peripherality, pluralism, development trap, alienation, statism monopolism, non-capitalist political economy, alternate development, etc. These theories and concepts will be liberally illustrated with reference to the Caribbean experience

GOVT 3018 – CARIBBEAN GOVERNANCE II

The course will provide students with the tools with which to interpret state formation and development in the Commonwealth Caribbean. It will address issues of institutional political forms in the region, from the 16th Century to the 21st Century, emphasising the critical issues shaping the development of the Westminster model in the region. It will expose students to the theoretical debate on political institutions and to the Continuing discourse on the appropriateness of the dominant political form in the region.

Among other critical issues, the course will also look at the role of the early nationalist movement in shaping the modern state formation in the region. It will therefore consider the roles of individuals and early political organisations and movements. Emphasis will also be given to the role of elections, electoral press, political parties, and the bureaucracy in the formation of public policy. The course will end with a review of the approach to regionalism and foreign policy in the region.

The nature of the course will favour a multidisciplinary approach drawing as necessary from politics and law, focusing specifically on international political economy and international trade law.

GOVT 3025 – INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL POLITICS

The course provides an understanding of the relationships between international trade (with particular focus on the World Trade Organization) and the protection of the environment. The nature of the course will favour a multidisciplinary approach drawing as necessary from politics and law, focusing specifically on international political economy and international trade law.

The course aims to provide students with the tools to discern the critical relationships between international trade and protection of the environment. Given the complexity and the interrelationship between human activity and the environment, there is a need to understand areas of potential conflict between trade as the political and economic activity of people and the physical environment within which this occurs. Trade cannot occur without the environment, and this makes it necessary to examine this relationship. Overall the course represents an illustration of the conflict of values and means of resolution, as between International Environmental Political, within system of international trade and international politics.

GOVT 3046 – INTRODUCTION TO INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

The defining task of this course is to introduce students to the many facets of International Organizations. The course begins with a historical perspective and show the evolution of international organizations from the end of the 19th century to the present. Secondly, various theoretical positions regarding the role of international organizations within the field of international relations are presented. Thirdly, the course highlights some of the challenges these organizations face in performing their mandate and the consequent reform measures introduced

GOVT 3049 – CARIBBEAN INTERNATIONAL POLITICS

1. International theories and weak states
2. Caribbean foreign policy relations
3. The administration of Caribbean foreign policy
4. Caribbean crisis and disputes
5. The Caribbean in international organizations
6. The Caribbean in the Global Political Economy

GOVT 3050 - COMPARATIVE FOREIGN POLICY: DEVELOPED AND DEVELOPING STATES

This course introduces students to foreign policy and foreign policy analysis by means of in depth examination of the foreign policies of at least two states from the so-called 'developed' and 'developing' worlds. Students are exposed to both the internal and external dynamics that may influence foreign policy making as well as the varied institutions that may play a role in foreign policy in different countries.

GOVT 3055 - THEORIES AND PRACTICES OF INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATIONS AND DIPLOMACY

Negotiation is a prominent feature in international relations as a means of conflict resolution. The course provides students with an understanding of the theoretical and practical aspects of international negotiation. It aims to enable students to understand the process of negotiation, negotiation outcomes and how outcomes can be improved. Appropriate case studies will be used to illustrate and supplement the theoretical issues.

GOVT 3075 - INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND FINANCE IN THE GLOBAL POLITICAL ECONOMY

This course provides students with an opportunity to assess the ways in which international trade and finance affect and are affected by global politics and economic dictates. The course examines the historical evolution of the interconnected systems of international trade and finance. The course will help students to understand the ways in which international trade and finance have been and continue to be facilitated and constructed by a combination of political actors, private entities, and economic dictates.

GOVT 3076 - INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN GLOBAL POLITICS

The course provides students with an introduction to international development which examines the role of development in international affairs.

GOVT 3077 - CARIBBEAN REGIONALISM AND WORLD AFFAIRS

The conduct of international affairs is characterized by the convergence of traditional and newly emerging issues; the interplay of state and non-state actors and an uncertain environment. This course is designed for undergraduate students, who are interested in acquiring specialized knowledge of the external relations of the Caribbean Community (CARICOM) and the sub-regional grouping of the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS) as they interact with the rest of the world. The course familiarizes students with the role of CARICOM and the OECS in international affairs as it examines how Caribbean states navigate the complex global arena.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS (INRL) COURSES

INRL 1000 – INTRODUCTION TO INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

This course aims to provide students with an understanding of the origins and progression of the International Relations (IR) as a discipline and to introduce them to key issues and concepts needed for studying international relations. Consequently, this course will expose students to the differences between IR (the discipline) and IR (the events/subjects under study). The course will present 'mainstream' (Realist and Liberal) approaches to understanding world politics, which originate predominately from industrialized countries, whilst also introducing students to developing country perspectives and concern.

PSYCHOLOGY (PSYC) COURSES

PSYC 1003 – INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY

This course is designed to introduce students to the theory and practice of the science of psychology. Throughout the course students will explore the hereditary and environmental origins of behaviour. Students will gain a broad based knowledge of the many fields of psychology, increase their self-awareness and develop skills that will lead to a more critical analysis of human behaviour in our society. Topics for discussion will include the biological basis of behaviour, consciousness, thinking and language, motivation and emotion, stress and health.

PSYC 1004 – INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY

This course is designed to introduce students to the psychological discipline that uses scientific methods to understand and explain how the thoughts, feelings and behaviour of individuals are influenced by the actual, imagined presence of others. Students will gain general knowledge of this interesting and exciting profession. Major content areas include prejudice and discrimination, prosocial behaviour, aggression, interpersonal attraction and close relationships. Issues will be discussed within the Caribbean context.

PSYC 2001 – COUNSELLING I

Prerequisites:

PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology OR

PSYC 1004 Introduction to Social Psychology OR

This course provides a broad introductory overview of the counselling process with emphasis on the theoretical foundation and the demonstration and practice of basic communication, counselling and problem-solving skills in the counselling relationship. This course is recommended for those students planning on entering the social science fields where interpersonal contact with people necessitates dealing with personal, social, vocational, empowerment, and educational concerns. Through the use of lecture, discussion, experiential exercises, group work, practice experiences and coursework, students will participate in their own development in the counselling process.

PSYC 2002 – ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY

Prerequisites:

PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology OR

PSYC1004 Introduction to Social Psychology OR

The student should have gained a basic understanding of the general principles of psychology and an appreciation of the variations of the different schools of psychology in the introductory courses and PSYC2012 Developmental Psychology. In addition, from PSYC 2012 Developmental Psychology, the student should understand the physical, social and psychological development of an individual from birth to death. With an appreciation of the limits of normal behavioural, the student is prepared for a course in psychology.

PSYC 2007- PSYCHOMETRICS

Prerequisites:

PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology OR

PSYC1004 Introduction to Social Psychology

It is of integral importance that students from an early stage understand and appreciate the need for rigorous testing in the field of Psychology. This course will provide an in-depth look into the field of psychometrics (a.k.a. psychological measurement) which addresses psychological testing and assessment. An exploration of psychological testing will include an examination of the history, theory, and construction of tests as well as a survey of principal individual and group tests of intelligence, personality, interest, and ability currently used in clinical, practitioner and research settings. Special attention will be placed on the development of student evaluation skills to enable them to determine the psychometric soundness of tests. The reliability, validity, the application and the suitability of psychological tests for the specific cultural environment and ethics of psychological testing will be addressed.

PSYC 2012 – DEVELOPMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY

Prerequisites:

PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology OR

PSYC 1004 Introduction to Social Psychology OR

The student should have completed the General Principles of Psychology in an introductory course and have an appreciation of the different Schools of Psychology

This course is concerned with human development and factors that shape behaviour from birth to old age. Emphasis is placed on the similarities and differences between male and female and the part that society plays in shaping behaviour.

At the end of this course the student should understand the physical, physiological, social and psychological development of an individual from birth onwards.

PSYC 2015 – CULTURE AND PSYCHOLOGY

Situating the study of human behaviour in the context of culture has gained tremendous momentum in the past several decades. This course is designed to explore this movement historically and conceptually. The course will cover cross-cultural research however the focus is not on cross-cultural appreciation nor on the development of a taxonomy of cultural differences. Methodological issues as they pertain to the conduct of research across cultures will be emphasized as will emergent theories important to the study of culture and psychology. The course will include an exploration of how recent advances in understanding the relationship between socio-cultural contexts and human behaviour have offered new insights into long held views of human functioning. The course will also examine how ignoring and misunderstanding the role of culture in human behaviour has lead psychology to participate in the perpetuation of racist ideologies in western societies. In this way the course is intended to help psychology students become critical consumers and producers of psychological research. This course will address culture from a developmental and social psychological perspective, with emphasis on the study of culture in the Caribbean context. The class is highly interactive by design and relies on discussion to facilitate critical thinking about the issues under consideration. Meetings will be divided between lectures, guided discussions and activities.

PSYC 2025 – COMMUNICATION PSYCHOLOGY

Prerequisites:

PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology OR

PSYC 1004 Introduction to Social Psychology OR

PSYC 1007 Fundamentals of Psychology

This course is designed to introduce students to the various types of communication so that they are enabled to critically assess the ability of the various types of communication to influence human behaviour, attitudes and thoughts.

PSYC 2026 – GENDER AND PSYCHOLOGY

Prerequisites:

PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology or

PSYC 1004 Introduction to Social Psychology or

PSYC 1007 Fundamentals of Psychology

This course examines how biological and cultural factors influence the development of gender identities and gender roles and the concepts of masculinity and femininity. It explores how these gender identities and roles affect our personal, social and professional lives. It will enable students to understand some of the major conceptual and theoretical approaches to the study of the psychology of gender and the influence of gender on people's thoughts and behaviours.

PSYC 3003 – COMMUNITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY

Prerequisite:

PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology or

PSYC 1004 Introduction to Social Psychology or

PSYC 1007 Fundamentals of Psychology

In this course, theories developed in a variety of areas – social psychology, sociology, ethology, political science, architecture and anthropology are synthesized to enable students to understand and assess the interaction between the individual and his environment.

This course aims to:

- Provide an overview of the theories, principles and methods of the community psychology
- Examine the relationship between individuals and the social system
- Explore the application of the theories, principles and methods of the community psychology to community issues and settings
- Explore the incidence and prevalence of psychological problems within the community
- Examine the relationship between the physical environment and human behaviour and experience
- Consider the role of research in community/environmental psychology
- Develop an awareness of the contemporary community needs and how both qualitative and quantitative techniques can be employed to address complex social problems.

PSYC 3008 – ELEMENTS OF COUNSELLING AND PSYCHOTHERAPY

Prerequisite:

PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology or
PSYC 1004 Introduction to Social Psychology or
PSYC 1007 Fundamentals of Psychology

This course provides students with an introduction to the fields of counselling and psychotherapy in a complex, multicultural society, and highlights the differences and similarities between the two disciplines. It will cover professional foundations of counselling including ethics, provide an overview of the counselling process, outline key psychological theories and techniques as they are practiced in a variety of situations, describe the theoretical foundation of the professions, provide a basic overview of the practice of basic communication, interviewing, therapeutic and problem solving skills. The course is recommended for those students planning on entering social science fields where interacting with and helping others in a therapeutic context is required.

PSYC 3013 – CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY

Prerequisites:

PSYC 1004 Introduction to Social Psychology or
PSYC 1007 Fundamentals of Psychology or
PSYC 1003 Introduction to Psychology

This course builds upon the foundation laid by the introductory social psychology course and focuses on how Social Psychologists address contemporary social issues. Drawing on contemporary theory, and pure and applied research, students will engage in a critical analysis of the crucial person and environment variables that influence behaviour in our Caribbean society. Topics for discussion will include prejudice and discrimination, interpersonal attraction, close relationships, social influence, prosocial behaviour, aggression, and social psychology applied to health.

PSYC 3014 – INDUSTRIAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

This course explores the applications of psychological theories and concepts to problems encountered in work environments with special reference to the Caribbean. It will address the research methods and consulting techniques used to study and modify behaviour in organizations. Topics for discussion will include research methods in Industrial and Organisational Psychology, employee recruitment and selection, evaluating employee performance, employee training and development, motivation, job satisfaction, communication, organizational culture and human factors.

PSYC 3021- RESEARCH THESIS IN APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY (MAJORS)

N.B. For Psychology Majors only

This course is designed to develop an understanding, instil an appreciation, and provide hands on experience in designing and conducting an original piece of research in psychology. Students will gain experience in applying theories and skills attained throughout their undergraduate programme to conduct research. This two-semester research thesis will involve empirical and/or theoretical work using scientific methodology to address problems that emerge out of the condition of the Caribbean experience.

PSYC 3024 – APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY RESEARCH METHODS

Prerequisites:

PSYC 1004 Introduction to Social Psychology OR

PSYC1007 Fundamentals of Psychology OR

PSYC1003 Introduction to Psychology

This course is designed to provide psychology students with the knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to conduct successful research studies and to improve the research skills of third year psychology students in the following courses:

(PSYC 3021 Research Thesis in Applied Psychology (2 semesters) and PSYC 3050 Research Project in Applied Psychology (for Minors) (1 semester). The emphasis will be on imparting both conceptual understanding and skills students can apply when designing their third year research studies: developing their research proposals, collecting research data, analysing research data and presenting research findings. This course will consist of lectures, tutorials and computer laboratory sessions, with each aspect geared at specific skill development.

PSYC 3050 – RESEARCH PROJECT IN APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY (MINORS)

N.B. For Psychology Minors only

This course is designed to develop an understanding, instil an appreciation, and provide hands on experience in designing and conducting an original piece of research in psychology. Students will gain experience in applying theories and skills attained throughout their undergraduate programme to conduct research. This one-semester research project will involve empirical and/or theoretical work using scientific methodology to address problems that emerge out of the Caribbean experience.

SOCIOLOGY (SOCI) COURSES

SOCI 1000 – INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY II

The main objective of this course is to introduce students to the basic concepts, theories and methods of Sociology. It seeks to provide basic knowledge of the sociological approach to the study of social and economic problems and development, while ensuring that students have a clear understanding of the forms of explanation and methodological procedures used in Sociology for practical "scientific" analysis. It lays the foundation for more advanced sociology courses.

Topics for discussion include: development of sociology, introductory classical and modern theoretical perspectives, research methods in sociology, groups and social interaction, deviance, social inequality, social institutions, development of sociology in the Caribbean, social change and social development.

SOCI 1001 INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL RESEARCH

This course is designed to introduce students to the various approaches to social and behavioural research ranging from qualitative techniques to quantitative methods and probability sample surveys. In that regard, all phases of the research process are examined during this survey of research methods. Issues examined are: philosophical foundations of research, formulation of research problems and specification of key elements of research (concepts, variables and hypotheses), review of the literature, research designs, data collection, analysis and ethics.

SOCI 1002 – INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY I

1. Population, migration, population control
2. Family, education, religion
3. Bureaucracy
4. Social stratification and mobility
5. Model of Caribbean society

SOCI 1005 INTRODUCTION TO STATISTICS FOR THE BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES

This course is designed to introduce students to basic univariate, bivariate and multivariate statistics. It involves computation and interpretation of each statistic computed. The course covers topics such as: measuring central tendency and dispersion; probability distributions; statistical inference; and correlation-regression analysis. Social and behavioural examples will be employed to enhance understanding and develop the statistical thinking skills of students.

SOCI 2000 – CLASSICAL SOCIAL THEORY

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II

Classical social theory typically spans the period 1830-1930. It traditionally looks at the work and lives of theorists considered to be the 'Founding Fathers' of Sociology. It allows for the critique of select classical sociological theories and their application where possible to the understanding of Caribbean societies.

Topics for discussion include: Emergence of Sociology, The Enlightenment, Development of French, German and British Sociology Evolutionary Theories – (Comte, Spencer, Durkeim), Classical Female Social Theory – (Martineau, Perkins Gilman, Marianne Weber, Addams), Pre-conflict & Conflict Theories – (Marx, Engels), Formalism – (Simmel), Social Action Theory (Weber)

SOCI 2001 – MODERN SOCIAL THEORY

Prerequisite:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II

The course introduces students to the work of select contemporary theorists and the context in which their theories were developed. It allows for the examination and critique of select modern sociological theories, assessing their strengths and weaknesses and their application where possible to the understanding of Caribbean societies. It is intended to complement the knowledge gained from the study of classical social theory, thus providing students the opportunity to strengthen their perspectives on the advancement and relevance of sociological theory.

Topics for discussion include: Development of Modern Social Theory, Structural Functionalism, Symbolic Interactionism, Dramaturgic Sociology, Ethno-methodology Phenomenology, Critical theory, Feminist Theory, Post Modernism.

SOCI 2006 – QUALITATIVE RESEARCH METHODS

Prerequisite:

SOCI 1004 Logic of Social Inquiry OR

SOCI 1001 Introduction to Social Research OR

PSYC1013 Introduction to Research Methods

1. The course addresses the following
2. The formulation of a research problem - reviewing the literature and other source material.
3. The interplay of theory and method
4. Documentary analysis - historical and case study material
5. Unobtrusive measures - erosion and accretion analysis
6. Participant and non-participant observation

SOCI 2007 – SURVEY DESIGN AND ANALYSIS

Prerequisite:

SOCI 2006 Qualitative Research Methods

This course introduces students to survey research methodology. It will also expose students to the concepts of problem formation, sampling, instrumentation, ethics, and modes of data collection, processing and analysis.

The course will enable students to gain practical experience in the following areas: Conceptualisation & Operationalisation; Questionnaire Design; Survey Data Collection; The use of SPSS to enter and analyse data; and presenting findings in the context of social research.

SOCI 2013 – CARIBBEAN SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II OR
SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course builds on the content of the prerequisites and introduces the student to the practical world of Caribbean social development. The course provides a critical overview of the perspectives, definitions and indicators of social development as they have evolved from colonialism through the post-colonial Caribbean. The course will expose students to the basic techniques of project identification, design, monitoring and evaluation in the areas of social analysis and environmental impact studies. Actual projects in the wider Caribbean will be utilised. Students will also be exposed to the realities of poverty and development in the Caribbean and become familiar with the various social indicators measuring various aspects of poverty reduction and social development. Examination of community participation, the role of NGO's and questions of empowerment in social development programmes and projects will also be explored.

SOCI 2014 – CARIBBEAN KINSHIP

This course critically examines concepts and theoretical perspectives and biases in Caribbean Kinship studies. It examines variations in Caribbean Kinship ideologies and practices from the historical and contemporary perspectives and analyses, a range of kinship issues, problems and policies.

SOCI 2022 – SOCIAL GERONTOLOGY

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II OR
SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course is intended to expose students to major perspectives in Social Gerontology, and to explore how, and in what ways these may be applied to problems and policies of ageing in the Caribbean.

Topics for discussion will include: Demographic Trends in the Elderly Population; Social Theories of Ageing; Physiological Aspects of Ageing, Psychological aspects of Ageing; Economic Status of the Elderly: Income, Levels of Housing, Work Retirement; Social Relations: Family, Friends, Neighbours; Changing Roles: Community, Organizational, Political; Death, Dying Bereavement; Attitudes Towards the Elderly; Social Security Policy for the Elderly; Housing Policy for the Elderly; Health Care for the Elderly; Personal Social Service for the Elderly; Care of the Elderly.

SOCI 2028 – VIOLENCE AND DEVELOPMENT

Prerequisites:

SOCI 3017 Criminal Justice

This course examines the historical changes in the patterns and meanings of violence globally. Special attention is paid to individual, collective and state violence in the Caribbean context. The main theories explaining the causes of violence and current research on attitudes to violence and the use of force to bring about social and political change are reviewed. Strategies of conflict management and prevention and their relationship to development and the transformation of political culture and state institutions that seek to monopolize the legitimate use of violence are discussed.

SOCI 3000 – SUPERVISED RESEARCH

GENERAL

1. The Supervised Research Project is equivalent to a Faculty course and must therefore reach that standard in terms of content and research effort. It is a one-year six (6) credit course.
2. It is restricted to those majoring in Sociology and who have attained a B+ grade and over in SOCI 2006 Qualitative Research Methods and SOCI 2007 Survey Design and Analysis.

PROCEDURE

3. Students must choose a topic for study which is primarily sociological in focus and which should broadly fall within a sphere of research specialisation of one of the Sociology lectures. They must then seek the advice and approval of the lecturer who is willing to act as supervisor for each study. On occasions when the chosen topic spans more than one subject area or discipline, joint supervision with another university lecturer may be recommended.

4. Students should submit a proposal to and consult regularly with their supervisors. It is students' responsibility to inform his/her supervisor of progress and general difficulties faced, and to seek specific advice on bibliographical material and research methods (preparation of questionnaires, etc.).

PRESENTATION

The study should normally be between 5,000 and 8,000 words in length, excluding bibliography.

5. It should contain some originality in material, argument and conclusion and evidence of extensive reading and comprehension of the subject area. The research should also be explanatory rather than descriptive in nature.
6. Each study must have a title page, with the student's
7. Studies should be typed (12 pitch font).
8. Bibliographies must be included.
9. Footnotes to elaborate briefly on points should be kept to a minimum.
10. Citations and References should follow Departmental Guidelines available from the Department Office.

DEADLINES

11. Submission of Proposal: 5th Monday of Semester I
12. Submission of final project: 1st Monday in April, of the year

SOCI 3004 – TOURISM AND DEVELOPMENT

This course aims to provide students with a broad sweep of some of the major theoretical and practical dimensions of the world's largest industry, particularly in the pan-Caribbean context, but examples globally will also be analysed. The course will look at the history of the emergence of the leisure industry and modern tourism in the world and in the Caribbean. Examination of the Tourism and Development and its theoretical and methodological underpinnings will be explored. The social, economic and cultural impacts of tourism will be stressed utilising the comparative perspective. Transactional analysis and examination of both tourists and locals will be analysed. Given the critical link between tourism and the environment various issues will be researched and the roles of community tourism, eco-tourism and the necessity of developing sustainable tourism will be a critical focus of the course.

SOCI 3007 – RURAL DEVELOPMENT

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course is designed to introduce students to the field of Rural Development and its essential role and the various issues which are critical to the survival of millions of people globally and in the Caribbean. The course will explore the key issues and challenges facing rural populations, governments, practitioners and other stakeholders. The course will examine problems at both the micro and global level, particularly with respect to commodity production, international organisations such as the WTO, globalisation, as well as the critical link between agrarian reform and the environment. The course will examine the field from both an historical and comparative perspective exposing students to not only the history and problems of agrarian reform in the Caribbean but in other parts of the world. The linkages between agrarian reform, rebellion and revolution will be examined.

SOCI 3009 – INDUSTRIAL SOCIOLOGY I

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II, OR
SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course on Industrial Sociology focuses primarily on the broad societal context within which the firm operates as countries of the Caribbean seek to adopt and establish industrial processes and practices in their productive activities especially in this era of revolutionary developments in information and telecommunications technology. It will seek to provide students with a clear understanding of the nature of work in the industrial setting and some understanding of the sociological principles that govern industrial society and the industrial workplace. It will therefore focus on the interrelationship of society and industry.

SOCI 3012 – SOCIAL PLANNING

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II OR
SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course is intended to introduce students to the essential elements of Social Planning, its theory, its methods, design, implementation and evaluation. Topics for discussion will include: Theoretical Issues in Social Planning; Techniques and Methods in Social Planning; Problem Analysis; Building Support; Program Design/Development; Program Implementation; Social Program Evaluation; Goals and Objectives in Social Program Evaluation; Measuring the Implementation of Social Programs; Measuring the Impact/ Effectiveness of Social Programs; Social Impact Assessment and the Evaluation Report.

SOCI 3013 – CARIBBEAN SOCIAL POLICY

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II, or
SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course will introduce students to the basic concepts and approaches to social policy. It provides students with a historical and theoretical overview of the development of Caribbean social policies, and engages them in their assessment of laws relating to the operation of human services, the implementation of international and national social policy documents; and the modes of advocacy relating to social policy formation.

The topics for discussion include: concepts and theoretical perspectives in social policy; gender policy; education and children's services policy; mental health services; services for the unemployed; juvenile justice.

SOCI 3017 – CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II OR
SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

The course will offer a critical examination and assessment of some aspects of crime control in the Criminal Justice System. From a distinctly sociological perspective, the course will focus substantively and critically on Criminal Justice agencies and activities as the police and law enforcement, correctional agencies and the courts and activities such as the adjudication of justice and the punishment and treatment of offenders.

SOCI 3026 – SOCIOLOGY OF DEVELOPMENT

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II, OR
SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course is designed to introduce students to the theories, models, policies and ideological underpinnings of economic and social development in the post-colonial world. It will examine the concept of “development and underdevelopment” and its implications for the post-colonial world. Although the course will focus principally on development policies, programmes and issues in the Caribbean, it is also intended to give the student a wider perspective in terms of comparative responses to the various challenges facing post-colonial countries in an increasingly globalised world. Therefore, specific topics which have and are facing Caribbean and other countries including debt, structural adjustment, trans-national corporations, and environmental issues will be explored.

SOCI 3027 – GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II OR
SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course will introduce students to gender perspectives in development theory, and the application of gender perspectives to the analysis of Caribbean Development. The main gender issues in contemporary Caribbean development will be explored with special emphasis on the gender dimensions of economic, human and social development in the Caribbean and globally.

Topics for discussion will include: differentiating between sex and gender; differentiating between equity and equality; feminist concepts and theories; development concepts and theories; women in development; gender and development; gendered ideologies in education, work and family; gender policy & gender mainstreaming."

SOCI 3032 – CRIMINOLOGY I

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II OR

SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course will focus on conceptual and theoretical aspects of Criminology I. In substantive terms it will cover topics such as: What is Criminology I? What is crime? The measurement of crime, crime in the Caribbean, the criminal offender, criminal victimisation, theories of crime with specific reference to biological, psychological, social positivist, inter-actionist, structuralist and combination theories, and will conclude with a focus on the inter-relationships of criminological theories and criminal justice policies.

In addressing the above issues, special focus will be placed on the relationship between mainstream Criminology I perspectives and the empirical realities of crime in the Caribbean.

SOCI 3033 – DRUGS AND SOCIETY

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II or

SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course explores drugs as a social problem from a systems perspective, examining how drug abuse permeates every segment of society including the individual, family, community, national, and international levels. Current theories and research relating to drug use will be reviewed and the prevention, intervention and treatment of drug abuse will be explored. The pharmacology or the effects of commonly used drugs on the body and brain will be examined.

The course will also study how drugs present the single most critical challenge to personal and regional security within the Caribbean. Therefore, the relationship between drug abuse and crime will be examined. Social-cultural factors contributing to the use and the abuse of drugs in the Caribbean region will be emphasized. There will be discussion of the development and administration of regional and international social policies concerning drug related issues. Agencies and institutions that administer drug policy will be identified. Political, legal, economic, psychological, biological, behavioural and spiritual aspects will be studied, in addition to the main focus of the course, which is the sociological context of drug use. This multi-disciplinary approach will give the student an understanding of the complexity of drug use and abuse in society.

SOCI 3035 – CARIBBEAN SOCIAL PROBLEMS

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II or

SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

This course will expose students to a sociological analysis of several issues in Caribbean society. In addition to conceptual issues and definitions meaning, and measurement in each area, the course will be concerned with an examination of the extent, nature, causes and consequences of each topic covered.

Topics to be covered include: The study of Social Problems; Consensus Theory; Conflict Theory and Action Theory, Underdevelopment: Conceptual Issues; Under- development in the Caribbean; Development Strategies; Social Inequality: Income Distribution Poverty; The Distribution of Land and Wealth; Housing Conditions; Health Nutrition; Race Racism; Sex Sexism; Population Growth Size; Social Problems of Age Aging; Selected Population Problems; Labour Market Problems; Unemployment Underemployment; Access Welfare in Education; Gangs Social Formations; Family Function; Family Conflict: Divorce, Separation; The Status Condition of Children; Crime Delinquency; Drug Abuse; Mental Health; Politics; Media.

SOCI 3036 – CRIMINOLOGY II: POLICE AND SOCIETY

Prerequisites:

SOCI 3017 Criminal Justice

The course attempts a hands-on approach to aspects of Criminology I against the background of sociological and psychological theories of crime. This course will examine and critique two of the essential institutions in society intended to treat or deal with crime: law enforcement and corrections. As part of the content of the course, students will also develop complimentary research knowledge on deportees, a trenchant matter in the Caribbean that has numerous security, law enforcement and political considerations.

SOCI 3037 – SOCIAL DIMENSIONS OF INEQUALITY AND MARGINALISATION

Prerequisites:

SOCI 1000 Introduction to Sociology II or

SOCI 1002 Introduction to Sociology I

Social inequality is a complex and multidimensional problem as is evident in both classical and contemporary theories of social stratification. The aim of the course is to explore the primary causes, forms and consequences of social inequality and marginalisation in the Caribbean. The course will allow for the application of stratification theories to past and emerging contentious social issues like male marginalisation, female vulnerability, poverty, crime, human rights, homosexuality and discrimination, ethnic bias, HIV/AIDS, etc. The use of qualitative and quantitative data in examining inequalities and marginalisation will be done with a view to enhancing research skills.

Topics for discussion include: systems of stratification - open vs. closed systems of stratification (caste, estate & class systems), classical & modern explanations of social inequality, sex, gender & sexual inequality, religious, racial & ethnic inequalities, social mobility & human rights, unequal treatment of marginalised & vulnerable sub-populations, policy implications of inequality, methods used to reduce inequality.

SOCI 3047 - THE SOCIOLOGY OF PENAL PRACTICE

Prerequisites:

SOCI 3017 Criminal Justice

Penology is the study of punishment of persons who have broken the law. This course involves issues related to these offenders, as well as what happens after their punishment. The course involves a series of lectures which examine both historical and contemporary issues within penology. The aim is to provide a detailed knowledge of the use of punishment in modern society. In addition, prison life, the impact of incarceration, and what happens after release are all discussed. Historical and current penal policy is explored. Policy related to areas of imprisonment, punishment in the community, early release and re-entry of prisoners will be analysed.

SOCIAL WORK (SOWK) COURSES

SOWK 1000 – HUMAN BEHAVIOR

This course will provide students with a knowledge base, about human behaviour and growth, over the life span. . An ecological and systems framework (Systems Impact Model), together with a developmental approach to the major sociological and psychological theories, are used to provide an understanding of the interaction between a person and the social systems in which individuals live (families, groups, organizations, institutions and communities).

The course addresses the interrelatedness of biological, social, cultural, environmental, and psychological factors in human development and behaviour. Inequality, discrimination, and differential access to opportunities experienced by vulnerable groups, such as the elderly, persons living with HIV/AIDS, the disabled, gays and lesbians are examined. Content on gender, age, and sexual orientation is included and addresses the impact that these variables have on individual functioning at each developmental stage of the lifespan. Issues will be discussed within the context of the English-speaking Caribbean. Human Behaviour in the social environment will also be scrutinized from a participation and integration perspective.

SOWK 1001 – INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL WORK

This course will provide an introduction to the history, mission, and philosophy of social work and its development as a profession in the Caribbean. It will introduce the student to social work values, ethics, theories, knowledge base and functions and skills, and examine the relevance of social work to the social, economic, and political change in a society. In addition, the contribution of social, work in meeting the needs of individuals, groups, and communities through delivery of social programs will be explored.

Students will be introduced to the history and current patterns of social welfare program development, and the range of services that comprise social work and social welfare service delivery in Barbados and the Region. Students will be able to observe the operations of various social service agencies through organised field visits. The course will also be valuable for any student who wishes to gain knowledge about the purpose of social work and its development as a profession.

SOWK 1002 – INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES

Prerequisites:

SOWK 1000 – Human Behaviour and

SOWK 1001 – Introduction to Social Work

The course introduces social work students to direct practice with individuals and families as client systems. It is particularly concerned with extending the students' understanding of the social work process as well as their ability to make a complete psychosocial assessment upon which a feasible plan of intervention can be based and by which the outcome of case intervention can be evaluated. The focus will be on understanding the individual within the context of the family, societal alliances, and the broader societal setting. The West Indian family as a societal system will be discussed.

Course content will include methods of intervention that can be used to enable individuals to develop and function effectively in the family and society. Issues relating to the worker-client relationship and to values and ethical questions affecting interpersonal relationships will be examined. Students will also be introduced to the major theoretical frameworks relevant to casework intervention with individuals and families. The organizational context and the social service network within which social casework is practiced in Barbados and the Region will be discussed.

SOWK 2000 – SOCIAL WORK THEORY AND PRACTICE WITH GROUPS

Prerequisites:

SOWK 1002 – Individuals and Families

The purpose of this course is to provide Social Work students with the theory and practice of social group work. The course will address the initiation, facilitation and leadership of both task groups (social, recreation, education, skill, problem-solving and decision-making, self-help, socialization) and treatment groups from an ecosystems perspective. The focus of the course is to develop group leaders who understand group dynamics and effective leadership skills. The historical and theoretical foundations and the development of skills in group social work will be discussed and practiced. The course will emphasize issues that have application to a wide range of social work clients and situations in the Caribbean region.

SOWK 2007 - DISABILITY STUDIES

Prerequisites:

SOWK 1001 – Introduction to Social Work

SOWK 1000 – Human Behaviour

The purpose of this course is to provide an introduction to Disability Studies for students who wish to examine disability using theoretical frames and to understand policy development in the area.

It identifies the ways in which differently able persons are marginalized and restricted, and experience discrimination within an unadaptive society. Through descriptions of the current status of persons with disabilities in the Caribbean context, it examines the interaction of persons with disabilities within the existing, political, social, cultural and legal systems. The historical struggles for rights and services by persons with disabilities are highlighted. Policy needs for future development are outlined.

The course is designed for students to gain new and deeper understanding of the prolonged oppression of the disability community and to empower them to consider creative ways to initiate social change.

SOWK 2010 – INTERPERSONAL RELATIONS AND SKILLS LABORATORY

This course addresses the knowledge, intra and outer-personal skills, attitudes, values and behaviours social work students need in order to establish effective relationships and interventions in their field practicum and in their professional careers. The course design is an interactive approach which encourages social work students' "use of self" in their practice with persons in multiple systems. Building the foundation of students' self-development and self-reflective practice is a key component of the course.

Designed on a laboratory model, the course offers a supportive environment for identifying, developing and practising key social work values and skills, an approach recognised as effective in the preparation of students for placement in social work agencies. Learning objectives will be individualised for each student, based on their identified strengths and limitations and on core social work competencies and skills. Student collaboration and involvement in the planning of their professional skill development will be required in addition to meeting the course objectives. Direct observation by the lecturer as well as verbal and written feedback will be part of the student evaluation.

The rationale for the course is the need for high levels of self-awareness, empathy, tolerance, effective interpersonal communication, and ethical principles to deal with the increasingly complex and challenging professional and social environments. The course will attempt to more effectively prepare social work students by strengthening their academic and emotional attributes to face these challenges.

SOWK 3004 – FIELD INSTRUCTION 1

Prerequisite:

Must have completed Levels 1 and 2

Field Instruction I provides students with opportunities for development of social work practice through direct work in social service agencies. The central focus of this field practice is on the application of social work skills within micro and mezzo client systems. Field Instruction I is the educational component where knowledge, values, and skills learned in the classroom are tested, reinforced and integrated in a disciplined manner. As students undertake learning tasks within the reality of agency life, a vital link is established whereby constructive use of theory, acquired through course work, can be applied. Values and attitudes are examined and skills are developed and refined.

Students are placed in social work and related agencies for eight (8) hours each day, four (4) days per week, for thirteen (13) weeks, totalling 416 hours. Field instructors/agency supervisors and students are guided in practice by the social work programme's field instruction coordinator. The use of a field instruction manual assures standardisation, continuity, and accountability for learning tasks, and their completion and evaluation, within the first semester field experience. Field Instruction I is held concurrently with Field Instruction Integrative Seminar I: SOWK 3006, a seminar designed to enhance and strengthen the field experience.

SOWK 3005 – FIELD INSTRUCTION II

Prerequisite
