UWI-Leuphana Double LLM

Corporate and Commercial Law and International Economic Law

Where an eligible candidate wishes to pursue a double LLM degree from The University of the West Indies and from the University of Leuphana (Germany), with particular interest in international commercial and economic law, he or she can opt for the UWI-Leuphana Double LLM Degree.

DOUBLE LLM DEGREE FROM THE UWI AND THE UNIVERSITY OF LEUPHANA (GERMANY)

The UWI-Leuphana Double LLM Degree specialising in international economic law is a minimum 12-month degree programme, starting with two semesters at The University of the West Indies, followed by a semester and research paper at the Leuphana University of Lüneburg in Germany.

The programme allows students to specialise in several advanced areas of law from a Caribbean perspective while at UWI, followed by advanced courses in international economic law at the Leuphana University of Lüneburg in Germany.

Entry Requirements

The following persons are eligible to apply for admission into the UWI-Leuphana Double LLM Degree programme:

- Graduates of The University of the West Indies holding the LLB degree;
- Graduates of The University of the West Indies or of an approved university holding a degree that includes such law subjects as shall satisfy the Board for Graduate Studies and Research;
- Graduates of The University of the West Indies, or of an approved university, who have obtained a professional legal qualification and are eligible for admission to practise in any part of the Commonwealth;
- Persons who, having obtained a professional legal qualification, are admitted to practise in any part of the Commonwealth, and who have also been certified as being in practice for a minimum of five years; and
- Graduates of The University of the West Indies or of an approved university, who satisfy the Board for Graduate Studies and Research of their capability to undertake the course of study leading to the award of a UWI LLM degree.

The suitability of applicants to the UWI-Leuphana Double LLM Degree programme will be determined in accordance with the above criteria, through examining their academic and practical experiences. Letters of reference will also be used to determine suitability.

Students with a third class or pass degree will not normally be admitted to read for the UWI-Leuphana Double LLM.

Language of Instruction

The language of instruction is English for courses offered by both UWI and the Leuphana University. Applicants whose native language is not English may be required to take an English proficiency test set on behalf of the Board for Graduate Studies and Research.

Method of Delivery

The courses for the UWI-Leuphana Double LLM Degree will be delivered through blended learning, including face-to-face instruction and modern distance learning techniques. Any UWI LLM course taught by staff from one campus of UWI will be available through e-Learning and/or distance learning modalities to registrants from the other two campuses that offer the programme.

Time of Entry

Students must begin the UWI-Leuphana Double LLM Degree in Semester 1.

Duration

- A student will be required to complete the courses within a single academic year as follows:
 - Semester I (UWI) – August-December
 - Semester II (UWI) – January-March/April
 - Assessments will be completed before the start of teaching in Semester II of the Leuphana University programme;
 - Semester II & summer (Leuphana University) – April-August
 - A Leuphana University dissertation is completed over summer.

Duration cont'd

- A student will be required to read for a minimum of two (2) courses and a maximum of four (4) courses in any one semester.
- The summer period has been designated as a teaching session for the purposes of the UWI-Leuphana Double LLM Degree.
