

Our third lecture of 'A series of Seminars': "European and International Tax Law" by Prof. Edvardas Juchnevicius (June 1, 2022)

The aim of the lecture is to present relations between National Tax Law, European and International Tax Law. The lecture will be presented in a synthetic way with the presentation of a tax law case – where we can see the picture of various problems that are faced by taxpayers or tax advisors.

About the lecturer: Edvardas Juchnevicius is a coordinator for International Cooperation, professor at the Department of Financial Law, Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Gdansk, Poland. He is an attorney at law in Lithuania and Poland. Lecturer at the Polish Bar Association (The Gdansk Bar Association of attorneys-at law). He is the author of over 100 scientific publications. His research interest and expertise include: international tax law, e-commerce taxation, tax evasion and tax avoidance.
