INTRODUCTION

The Faculty of Law was established at the University of the West Indies in 1970 with headquarters at the Cave Hill Campus. Its primary objective is to provide the academic qualification which will lead to the practice of law in the Commonwealth Caribbean. However, the traditional legal skills learnt in the course of the LLB Degree, including concise oral argument, systematic presentation of essential issues, clarity and precision of written opinions and detached and balanced judgment are also useful and reliable skills for many other professions, such as the civil and police service, accountancy, banking and commerce. We encourage our students to think of a variety of career paths and to pursue all of their options.

The Faculty of Law offers both undergraduate and postgraduate programmes. At present the undergraduate programme is offered only to students from, or nationalities of, territories which contribute to the Faculty. Students from other jurisdictions should query the Admissions department of the Registry regarding their eligibility for entry.

The full time LLB programme is divided into three parts, spanning a period of three years, and is offered at the Cave Hill Campus.

A student is generally required to complete each part successfully before being allowed to enrol for the part following. However, very limited trailing of courses is permitted into parts II and III of the programme.

The degree offered by the Faculty of Law is the LLB which may be awarded in the following categories:

- First Class Honours
- Upper Second Class Honours
- Lower Second Class Honours
- Pass

Graduate studies in the Faculty may lead to the Graduate Diploma, the LL.M., M.Phil. and Ph.D. The LL.M. is awarded primarily on the basis of coursework. The M.Phil. and Ph.D. by research are available to suitably qualified candidates.

Full details on the Faculty's graduate programmes are contained in the Faculty's Graduate Information Guide, the Faculty Office or the website of the School for Graduate Studies and Research <http://www.cavehill.uwi.edu/gradstudies/home.aspx>

DEAN'S MESSAGE

Your decision to study law is the first step of the journey of inquiry into legal matrix that undergirds all aspects of Caribbean society. At the Faculty of Law at Cave Hill, we will provide you with an intellectually stimulating environment within which to excel. Our academics are among the best in their fields with leading monographs and textbooks on diverse areas of Caribbean law. The skills you will develop during your stay with us will enrich your lives and prepare you for a career not only in the legal profession, but in business, finance, journalism, and many others.

We teach law at Cave Hill within the context of the Caribbean society in which we live. This is reflected in the teaching by members of the Faculty of Law, many of whom are trained in the West Indian legal tradition, and by our emphasis on using Caribbean case law and materials in our teaching. The Faculty of Law Library, where these rich legal resources are housed, is second to none in the entire Commonwealth Caribbean. The research of the members of the Faculty of Law seek to explore and find solutions to the legal problems that confront our Caribbean society. You will be exposed to these issues among many others during your Lectures and Tutorials.

The Faculty of Law at Cave Hill, the oldest Faculty of Law at the University of the West Indies, modelled on the Faculties of Law of great English Universities, uses the tutorial system as one of the foundational pillars on which our legal education is grounded. This method of teaching will develop and strengthen your communication, analytical, research and writing skills. You will be encouraged to engage in stimulating debates with your lecturers and tutors, not only on the current state of the law but the way in which the law should develop to better our Caribbean society. As you will come to appreciate, law should, and must be an agent of social change and we will, through our teaching and course offerings, facilitate this appreciation.

It is not surprising therefore that those skills developed and nurtured at the Faculty of Law at Cave Hill have created a cadre of distinguished alumni whose influence in the Caribbean, the region and the world is unmatched. One does not need to look far to see the direct influence of the Faculty of Law in politics across the Caribbean region given the significant number of Prime Ministers and Presidents it has produced. Similarly, many of our alumni hold prominent positions in the justice system such as Chief Justices, Chancellors, Attorneys General, and Ministers of Justice. In the business and finance arenas too, you see former graduates of the Faculty of Law. Our graduates are everywhere and so will you, equipped with the skills harnessed at the Faculty of Law to allow you to thrive in any environment, be it legal practice (private and public), business, finance, accounting, journalism, politics, and management, to name a few.

Your journey with us no doubt will prepare you for the world you will encounter when you leave Cave Hill. We provide you with a comprehensive range of courses within a stimulating environment where the finer traditions of the legal profession will be harnessed. We encourage you to make the most of that experience during your time with us by participating in the activities of the student's Law Society, mooting competitions, mentorship activities, internships, sporting competitions, island associations among many others. Your experience at Cave Hill will be a dynamic and rewarding one.

Not only are our graduates penetrating most areas of endeavor in our Caribbean society and elsewhere, but they also hail from across the countries and territories served by The University of the West Indies. We boast not only of a diverse and strong team of academic staff at the Faculty of Law, but our student body is perhaps the most diverse across the Faculties of Law in The University of the West Indies and located on the most diverse Campus at the University of the West Indies. This experience, the true "UWI" experience, assists in encouraging and fostering integration among our people.

We welcome you and thank you for choosing Cave Hill Law where excellence in legal education and research continues to burn bright.

Professor Eddy D. Ventose

UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES ADMISSIONS

Entry Requirements

The normal entrance qualification for the Faculty of Law is the basic Matriculation standard of FIVE subjects, at least TWO of which must be at 'A' level or equivalent level (i.e., CAPE I and II in the same subject area would equate to one 'A' level subject), the remainder at CXC general. There are no special subject requirements in addition to those necessary for Matriculation. The competition for places in the Faculty is such that very high "A" level grades/Cape 1 and II and very high averages in undergraduate degrees are required for an applicant to stand a reasonable chance of gaining admission.

The Faculty is prepared to consider applications from persons who do not strictly satisfy Matriculation standards but who have equivalent academic qualifications. In particular, mature applicants over 21 who have shown evidence of academic and professional achievement can be considered. (Reference should be made to the Regulations Governing Matriculation in the University Regulations). This may provide an opportunity to read for a Law degree for those who have already been associated with the practice of law in some way - e.g. clerks of the courts, legal assistants, civil servants, police officers and so on.

Application Procedure

Applications for entry into the Faculty must be done online through the Campus' Admissions website: <http://www.cavehill.uwi.edu/admissions/undergraduate.aspx>. except for specially admitted students. For local applicants, original certificates (which will be returned to the applicant), must be accompanied with (1) one copy of each document. For overseas applicants, certified copies of each document must accompany the application along with transcripts from Universities attended previously (in the case of non-UWI graduates).

Applicants from the Commonwealth Caribbean (Except Guyana)

Applicants from other parts of the Commonwealth Caribbean must apply to the Assistant Registrar (Student Affairs), University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus, Barbados.

Applicants are reminded that the deadline date for applications must be complied with. The closing date for applications to the Faculty of Law is January 31. Late applications may not be considered.

Students from Non-Contributing Countries

Following a ruling of the University Grants Committee, students from Commonwealth Caribbean Countries which have not yet agreed to contribute to the Faculty of Law will only be admitted when applicants from contributing countries have all been placed.

International Students

A limited number of international students may be admitted to the Faculty of Law, provided that there is an exchange programme or cooperative agreement in place between their home university and the University of the West Indies. Other international students who do not fall into this category may be accommodated under the University's Study Abroad Programme. Please contact the Assistant Registrar (Student Affairs), Cave Hill Campus, for further information.

Admissions Procedure

All applicants will receive notification of their eligibility and the decision in relation to their case when first offers are made. It is imperative that any deadlines for acceptance set by the University are adhered to. Applicants should therefore read University replies with the utmost care.

Direct Entry to Part II

The Faculty may permit a student to complete the LLB in two years under the Direct Entry programme. In order to be eligible for entry into this programme a student must have either completed, or be exempt from all the non-law subjects in Part I (the three Foundation courses), as well as possess a high-quality University degree. Students who qualify under Faculty Regulations for such exemption may be considered for direct entry to the Part II course at Cave Hill. A limit on numbers may be imposed on the grant of this direct entry.

It should be noted that the Direct Entry programme is an accelerated one, with students taking six to seven courses per semester rather than the traditional five courses per semester. As a result, the workload for Direct Entrants is significantly heavier than that for regular LLB students.

Exemptions from Foundation Courses

Students in the LLB programme are required by the University to complete all Foundation courses, unless they have passed them in a previous degree or are exempted from them. Exemptions for Foundation courses may be determined by the Faculty, or course director, of the relevant course. In processing exemption requests the Faculty is generally guided by the following considerations:

- Exemptions from Caribbean Civilization may be granted to a student with a prior degree in History, which includes a number of courses focusing on Caribbean history;
- Exemptions from Science Medicine and Technology may be granted to a student who possesses a prior, broad-based degree in Science. This degree should include courses from the various branches of science, not a single subject area;
- Exemption from An Introduction to Argument may be granted to a student who possesses a prior degree in English Literature.

Possession of a prior undergraduate or graduate degree will not necessarily entail exemptions from Foundation courses.

LECTURES AND TUTORIALS

Teaching in law subjects will in most of the courses in Part I and Part II take the form of lectures, seminars and tutorials. In tutorials the student will be expected to develop the techniques of argument and presentation of cases and to produce essays, opinions and small project work under a tutor's guidance. The tutorial is a very important aspect of the teaching programme in the Faculty, and attendance at tutorials is compulsory.

Casebook Method

The student will be encouraged to learn the art of legal reasoning by use of the case-book method. This involves the preparatory reading of selected materials, followed by class discussion designed to deduce the legal rules inherent in the materials and their use and limits in future situations.

Seminars

In the advanced courses, teaching may be conducted by means of seminars. This involves the preparatory reading of selected materials and the use of this to analyze and discuss a presentation based on these materials during classes.

Course Descriptions

Details of all courses offered by the Faculty of Law in our LLB programme are found in our Cave Hill Law Undergraduate Course Guide, published on the Student Resources section of the Faculty website at <https://www.cavehill.uwi.edu/Law/students/student-resources.aspx>. This Course Guide will be updated from time to time as new courses are added to our curriculum or old courses are revised.

Book Lists

Book lists will be issued separately for each course and detailed reading and work sheets will be made available from time to time during the session. Required and recommended readings will also be posted on each course website.

FACULTY ADVISERS

Students are each assigned to a Faculty Adviser for the duration of their undergraduate career in the Faculty. The Adviser will give help and advice on matters both of an academic and non-academic nature if such advice is sought. The Faculty Adviser is to be regarded by students as an important Faculty resource.

FACULTY COMMUNICATIONS

Students must use their 'mycavehill' email accounts to communicate to the staff of the Faculty. Each email must include the student's name and ID number, as well as succinctly state the nature of the request. Communications sent from other email accounts will not be answered by the Faculty. If a form is required to complete your request, please download the form from the Faculty's or Campus' website and submit it at the same time as your email.

REGULATIONS

It is the responsibility of each student to know and comply with the Faculty and University Regulations related to his or her degree. Students should consult the Dean's Office if clarification is required.

EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations are normally held at the end of each Semester. In some courses, however, examinations may take the form of essays and/or course work submitted during the Semester, together with an examination at the end of a Semester, or solely by means of an extended research paper, submitted during the course of the academic year (as in the Independent Research Paper Course). Other courses will involve multiple forms of assessment, including assessment on the basis of class participation, midterm examinations, etc.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Please see Regulation 6, below.

SUPPLEMENTAL EXAMINATIONS

Nature of Supplemental Exams

Supplemental examinations are examinations sat during the summer examination period by students who have failed or otherwise not completed (i.e., Absent Medical) a course in the same academic year. These exams are administered without additional instruction by the course director. The grade for supplemental examinations is counted out of 100%; previously completed coursework does not count towards the supplemental grade.

Faculty's Policy

The Faculty of Law analyzed student performance in supplemental examinations over a five-year period prior to amending our Regulations. The Faculty concluded that most students were failing or performing very poorly in these exams. The Faculty noted that this performance was negatively affecting the class of degree of our students; in some cases it was limiting their ability to graduate. As a result, the Faculty took the decision to allow supplemental exams only in exceptional cases.

The relevant regulations are Regulation 27 in the full-time degree programme and Regulation 30 in the part time degree programme. These provide:

“A candidate who fails a course may, with the permission of the Board of the Faculty, be permitted to sit a supplemental examination in that course.”

In interpreting this Regulation, Faculty Board adopted the following policy guideline on supplemental exams:

“The Board of the Examiners, on behalf of Faculty Board, may permit a student to sit a maximum of two supplemental examinations for Part III Law courses offered in the current academic year where the student obtained a mark in the F1 band in each failed course.”

This guideline generally restricts supplemental exams to cases where:

1. A student has failed no more than two courses,
2. both in Level III, and
3. both failures are at the F1 level.

The guideline aims to assist those students who are ready to graduate and are being held back by only one or two courses, which they came very close to passing on their first attempt

The Faculty’s policy guideline provides guidance to the Board of Examiners. The Board may exercise its discretion to permit examinations in other cases. Those students who are not granted permission to sit supplemental examinations will be required to either retake the course in the following academic year (Level I and Level II courses), or to either retake or replace the course in the following academic year (Level III courses).

All requests by a student to write a supplemental examination must be addressed to the Board of Examiners of the Faculty of Law on the prescribed form and submitted by the date indicated on the form, in advance of the Board of Examiners meeting which follows Semester II examinations. These forms are available on the Faculty’s website.

Please note that Supplemental examinations are only available for courses failed in the same academic year.

ACADEMIC FORGIVENESS POLICY

In the 2016-2017 academic year the Board of Undergraduate Studies clarified the University’s academic forgiveness policy by providing the following guidelines for Faculties:

1. Academic Forgiveness is normally applied to students who withdraw either voluntarily or because the University required them to withdraw.
2. The Guiding Principle is that the integrity of the programme the student is expected to complete must be preserved.
3. In the case of 1 above, that is RTW or Voluntary withdrawal, such students must remain out of the UWI system for a minimum of ONE year, unless they are changing Faculties.
4. When students who have been granted academic forgiveness are re-admitted to UWI, the Dean of the Faculty will determine which courses, if any, may be used as transfer credits. The maximum number of transfer credits is 30 credits which would normally be Level 1 in accordance with Statute 47.
5. The Dean of the Faculty has the discretion to determine which Level 2 or 3 courses may be considered for exemption with credit when a student has previously withdrawn but must seek approval from BUS.
6. When students TRANSFER from one Faculty to another, without withdrawing, the student is considered a continuing student, and transfers with his/her full record.

Under this policy the Faculty of Law will consider re-applicants who satisfy the above conditions for re-entry. The Faculty of Law only exempts with credit completed Level 1 courses. The readmitted student therefore will be required to take or re-take the required ten (10) Level II courses and ten (10) Level III courses. This may mean a student has to repeat a course previously successfully completed.

A student readmitted under the academic forgiveness policy will have his or her degree GPA re-set to a neutral value, as if he or she were starting again as a new Level II student. As a result, the student's degree classification will be determined by performance after readmission. Previous failures will not count towards the degree GPA.

THE FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT (FOR STUDENTS ENTERING IN ACADEMIC YEAR 2023/24)

1. All students registered in the Faculty of Law who do not have at least CSEC General Grade II before 1998, or Grade III after 1998, or its equivalent, in a foreign language are required to complete three (3) credits in one of the following approved foreign language courses:
 - CHIN1001 Chinese Language IA
 - FREN0101 Beginners' French
 - SPAN0101 Beginners' Spanish
 - PORT1001 Portuguese Language IA
 - Or any other foreign language course approved by the Board, Faculty of Law.

A student may substitute FOUN 1201 Science, Medicine and Technology in the Commonwealth Caribbean with an approved foreign language course.

2. International students whose first language is not English and who matriculated into the Faculty of Law with English as a Second Language qualifications shall be exempted without credit from the foreign language requirement.
3. Instead of completing any of the approved foreign language courses, a student may complete self-directed learning path towards achieving the foreign language competency. Those who do so must demonstrate their competency to the satisfaction of the UWI, that is, at the Common European Framework of Reference for Language: Learning, Teaching, Assessment (CEFR) A1 level or its equivalent in other countries.
4. Students who do not possess any formal certification in a foreign language but who might otherwise be competent in a foreign language shall take a proficiency test to the satisfaction of The UWI (i.e., CEFR A1 or its equivalent) in order to be exempted without credit from the foreign language requirement.
5. All students must satisfy the foreign language requirement at any time during their undergraduate law programme and must complete the foreign language requirement to be eligible to graduate.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Entry into the legal profession of all of the Commonwealth Caribbean territories is regulated by the law of the particular territory, but as a result of a regional agreement the basic requirements tend to follow a common pattern.

Since 1975, a Legal Education Certificate is normally required by a prospective lawyer. This is granted by the (West Indian) Council of Legal Education which was established in April 1971. The Certificate will be granted to a student who successfully completes a two-year course of full-time training at one of the Council's three Law Schools in Jamaica, Trinidad or The Bahamas.

The students will be taught by a system of practical instruction designed to give training in the basic and essential skills of the practicing lawyer.

Entry into a Law School will normally be granted to any applicant holding the UWI LLB degree. Students who hold law degrees from other universities may be required to sit an entrance examination which is held in July of each year. The deadline for applications to the Law Schools is January 31 of the proposed year of study. Application forms are obtainable from the Faculty of Law or from one of the three Law Schools at the addresses below:

Norman Manley Law School
P.O. Box 231
Mona Campus,
Kingston 7
JAMAICA

Hugh Wooding Law School
P.O. Bag 323
Tunapuna Post Office
TRINIDAD

The Eugene Dupuch Law School
P.O. Box SS-6394
Nassau
THE BAHAMAS

Holders of a Certificate of Legal Education will be regarded by all Governments in the West Indies as having satisfied institutional and educational requirements for practice. However local legislation may add further requirements, such as the requirement of nationality, which must be satisfied before the right to practice is granted in a particular territory.

58. Where a candidate fails a course and subsequently repeats the course and passes it, or re-sits the examination at supplementals and passes the course, the candidate shall be awarded the final grade obtained when he or she has passed the course; but the grade earned on the supplemental examination or upon repeat of the course shall be computed along with the failing grade or grades that the candidate has received in that course in determining the candidate's cumulative GPA.
59. (a) A candidate who completes the requirements for the LLB degree after the Honours eligibility date under this Regulation shall not be eligible for the award of the LLB degree with Honours.

UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS ON PLAGIARISM (First Degrees, Diplomas and Certificates)Application of these Regulations:

- 1 These Regulations apply to the presentation of work by a student for evaluation, whether or not for credit, but do not apply to invigilated written examinations.

Definition of plagiarism

- 2 In these Regulations, “plagiarism” means the unacknowledged and unjustified use of the words, ideas or creations of another, including unjustified unacknowledged quotation and unjustified unattributed borrowing;

“Level 1 plagiarism” means plagiarism which does not meet the definition of Level 2 plagiarism;

“Level 2 plagiarism” means plagiarism undertaken with the intention of passing off as original work by the plagiariser work done by another person or persons.

- 3 What may otherwise meet the definition of plagiarism may be justified for the purposes of Regulation 2 where the particular unacknowledged use of the words, ideas and creations of another is by the standards of the relevant academic discipline a function of part or all of the object of the work for evaluation whether or not for credit, for example:
 - a. The unacknowledged use is required for conformity with presentation standards;
 - b. The task set or undertaken is one of translation of the work of another into a different language or format;
 - c. The task set or undertaken requires producing a result by teamwork for joint credit regardless of the level of individual contribution;
 - d. The task set or undertaken requires extensive adaptation of models within a time period of such brevity as to exclude extensive attribution;
 - e. The task set or undertaken requires the use of an artificial language, such as is the case with computer programming, where the use of unoriginal verbal formulae is essential.
- 4 It is not a justification under Regulations 2 and 3 for the unacknowledged use of the words, ideas and creations of another that the user enjoys the right of use of those words, ideas and creations as a matter of intellectual property.

Other definitions

- 5 In these Regulations, “Chairman” means the Chairman of the relevant Campus Committee on Examinations;
“Examination Regulations” means the Examination and other forms of Assessment Regulations for First Degrees Associate Degrees Diplomas and Certificates of the University;
“set of facts” means a fact or combination of facts.

Evidence of plagiarism

- 6 In order to constitute evidence of plagiarism under these Regulations, there shall be identified as a minimum the passage or passages in the student's work which are considered to have been plagiarised and the passage or passages from which the passages in the student's work are considered to have been taken.

Student Statement on Plagiarism

- 7 When a student submits for examination work under Regulation 1, the student shall sign a statement, in such form as the Campus Registrar may prescribe, that as far as possible the work submitted is free of plagiarism including unattributed quotation or paraphrase of the work of another except where justified under Regulation 3.
- 8 Quotation or paraphrase is attributed for the purpose of Regulation 7 if the writer has indicated using conventions appropriate to the discipline that the work is not the writer's own.
- 9 The University is not prohibited from proceeding with a charge of plagiarism where there is no statement as prescribed under Regulation 7.

Electronic vetting for plagiarism

- 10 The results of any electronic vetting although capable, where the requirements of Regulation 7 are satisfied, of constituting evidence under these Regulations, are not thereby conclusive of any question as to whether or not plagiarism exists.

Level 1 plagiarism

- 11 In work submitted for examination where the Examiner is satisfied that Level 1 plagiarism has been committed, he/she shall penalise the student by reducing the mark which would have otherwise been awarded taking into account any relevant Faculty regulations.

Level 2 plagiarism

- 12 Where an examiner has evidence of Level 2 plagiarism in the material being examined, that examiner shall report it to the Head of Department or the Dean and may at any time provide the Registrar with a copy of that report. In cases where the examiner and the Dean are one and the same, the report shall be referred to the Head of the Department and also to the Campus Registrar.
- 13 Where any other person who in the course of duty sees material being examined which he or she believes is evidence of Level 2 plagiarism that other person may report it to the Head of Department or the Dean and may at any time report it to the Campus Registrar who shall take such action as may be appropriate.
- 14 Where a Dean or Head of Department receives a report either under Regulation 12 or 13, the Dean or Head of Department, as the case may be, shall
- a. where in concurrence with the report's identification of evidence of Level 2 plagiarism, report the matter to the Campus Registrar; or
 - b. where not concurring in the identification of evidence of plagiarism, reply to the examiner declining to proceed further on the report; or
 - c. where concluding that there is evidence of Level 1 plagiarism, reply to the examiner indicating that conclusion and the Examiner shall proceed as under Regulation 11.

- 15 Where a report is made to the Campus Registrar under Regulation 14a or 16, the Campus Registrar shall lay a charge and refer the matter to the Campus Committee on Examinations.
- 16 Where the Campus Registrar receives a report alleging Level 2 plagiarism from the Examiner or any other person except the Dean or Head of Department, the Campus Registrar shall refer the matter to a senior academic to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to ground a charge of plagiarism and where such evidence is found, the Campus Registrar shall proceed as under Regulation 15.
- 17 Where the matter has been referred to the Campus Committee on Examinations pursuant to Regulation 15, the proceedings under these Regulations prevail, over any other disciplinary proceedings within the University initiated against the student based on the same facts and, without prejudice to Regulation 21, any other such disciplinary proceedings shall be stayed, subject to being reopened.
- 18 If the Campus Committee on Examinations is satisfied, after holding a hearing, that the student has committed Level 2 plagiarism, it shall in making a determination on the severity of the penalty take into consideration:
- a. the circumstances of the particular case;
 - b. the seniority of the student; and
 - c. whether this is the first or a repeated incidence of Level 2 plagiarism.
- 19 Where the Campus Committee is of the view that the appropriate penalty for an offence of Level 2 plagiarism is for the student to be:
- (i) awarded a fail mark;
 - (ii) excluded from some or all further examinations of the University for such period as it may determine;
 - (iii) be dismissed from the University, it shall make such recommendation to the Academic Board.

Clearance on a charge of Level 2 plagiarism

- 20 A determination of the Campus Committee on Examinations that Level 2 plagiarism has not been found will be reported to the Campus Registrar who shall refer it to the Examiner and notify the student. Where the Committee has not identified Level 2 but has identified Level 1, it shall be reported to the Campus Registrar who shall refer it to the examiner.

Level 2 plagiarism: Appeal to the Senate

- 21 A student may appeal to the Senate from any decision against him or her on a charge of plagiarism made by Academic Board.

Delegation by Dean or Head of Department

- 22 The Dean or Head of Department, as the case may be, may generally or in a particular instance delegate that officer's functions under these Regulations.

Conflict of interest disqualification

- 23 Any person who has at any time been an examiner of work or been involved in procedures for laying charges in relation to which an issue of plagiarism is being considered under these Regulations shall withdraw from performing any functions under these Regulations other than those of supervisor and examiner.

About The Law Library

The Law Library is centrally located within the Faculty of Law, and forms an integral part thereof. With modern and functional facilities and a rapidly developing collection of West Indian and other Commonwealth legal materials, it is considered the premier legal library in the region.

The book collection - its first volumes acquired by gift from the Attorney General of the West Indies Federation Library in mid 1970 - now numbers in excess of 125,000 volumes. Significant benefactors include the British Overseas Development Administration, the Canadian Bar Association, the Caribbean Law Institute (CLI), Ford Foundation, University of Virginia Law Library, York University Law Library, and most of the Commonwealth Caribbean Governments.

The collection can satisfy most of the ordinary research needs of the region. Its content reflects the West Indian common law legal heritage. Included are most of the statutes, law reports, texts, law revision commission reports, etc. of the major Commonwealth countries as well as a basic selection of American and civil law legal materials. Strong points are the English and Canadian sections. The Law Library subscribes to hundreds of law reports, digest, statute and citator titles both in print and electronic format.

The collection's unique feature is the West Indian section, including over 50,000 unreported West Indian cases, along with theses, and research papers produced by staff and students. The library also has one of the most extensive collections of West Indian legislation in existence, including pre-1900 laws of the region which have been acquired on microfilm. The Law Library received substantial grants from the UWI Board for Graduate Studies and Research to fund this project in co-operation with the Department of History, the Main Library, Cave Hill, UWI, the Archives Department and the Barbados Public Library. Content lists to the laws on microfilm have been compiled.

The Law Library aims to provide a legal reference service for practitioners and researchers in general, in addition to supporting the teaching programmes in the Faculty of Law. The Law Library has access to several online legal databases. These include vLex, Lexis-Nexis Plus, Westlaw, HeinOnline and the UN Treaty series. An electronic database of West Indian case law, Carilaw, was launched in 2005 and is now available exclusively on the vLex platform. The Law Library's online catalogue was also launched in 2004 and is now incorporated into UWILINC - the University Libraries online catalogue.

Library Learning Commons

Opened officially in 2022, the Learning Commons features two modern eight seat Group study rooms, the Library Training room, Technology and Innovation Support Centre (TISC) and comfortable collaborative seating. Groups of law students can book the study rooms for 2 hours at a time. Persons are encouraged to see the staff at the Circulation Desk for more information.

Library Security

A security officer is on duty during the Library's opening hours. The security officer may ask any person seeking entry into the library to identify himself/herself and to show material on leaving. UWI students and staff from faculties other than law (who may not be known to the security officer) are expected to present current valid ID cards on request.

Outside Users (non-UWI staff and students) need permission from the Law Librarian to use the Law Library. The names of persons who are given the necessary permission are included on a list which is kept by the security officer and updated on a two weekly-basis.

Briefcases and other large bags are not to be brought into the Law Library, but must be left in the lockers provided.

Lockers are available for a rental of $20.00 per year (2 semesters). Students must remove their locks from the lockers by June 15 or the locks will be removed by the Law Library.
